If in any case the Health Officer or Sanitary Inspector considers that the issue of notice under regulation 20 is likely to lead to such an amount of delay as might facilitate the spread of small-pox, he may forthwith take such steps as he may think fit for carrying out the work, and shall thereafter, as soon as possible, issue a notice on the person concerned stating the reasons why such work has been carried out.

3. If any measure which the Health Officer or Sanitary Inspector has, by a notice issued under regulation 20, required to be carried out, be carried out to his satisfaction within the time stated in the notice the Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector shall be entitled to carry out the measure.

Cost and compensation.

4. (1) All expenses incurred in carrying out any work in pursuance of an order issued under these regulations shall be paid by the municipality except in any case where the order directs a person to carry out any work in relation to property in his possession, in which case the expenses shall be paid by such person:

Provided that where the conditions, which led the Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector to pass such an order, are not attributable to any act or default of the person in possession of the property, the municipality may pay to such person the whole or a part of the expenses incurred by him in carrying out the order.

(2) The municipality may recover all expenses incurred by the Health Officer or a Sanitary Inspector in carrying out the measure under regulation 3 from the person or persons to whom the notice was originally issued.

5. The municipality shall pay adequate compensation to any person who has sustained substantial loss or damage by reason of anything done under these regulations:

ORDER.

No. 3588Lab.—30th June 1950.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 1847Lab., dated the 17th April 1950, as amended by order No. 3144Lab., dated the 10th June 1950, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Jamna Das Srinibas, Limited, 82/2, Muktarām Babu Street, Calcutta, and their workmen in connection with the case of Sri Lakshmi Kanta Jha, 396, Upper Chitpore Road, Calcutta, was referred for adjudication to Sri P. R. Mukherjee, District Judge;

And whereas the said Sri P. R. Mukherjee, District Judge, has given the award as shown in the annexure hereto,

Now, therefore, in exercise of the power conferred by section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased to direct that the award be published in the Calcutta Gazette.

ANNEXURE.

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Jamna Das Srinibas, Limited, 82/2, Muktarām Babu Street, Calcutta, and their workmen in connection with the case of Sri Lakshmi Kanta Jha, 396, Upper Chitpore Road, Calcutta.

PRESENT: SRI P. R. MUKHERJEE, Chairman, Industrial Tribunal.

For the Company—Sri Shyam Sundar and Sri Chattu Singh.

For the Union—Sri Lakshmi Kanta Jha.

AWARD.

By Government of West Bengal order No. 1847Lab., dated Calcutta, the 17th April 1950, and No. 3144Lab., dated Calcutta, the 10th June 1950, I had been appointed an adjudicator under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act in the above dispute.

The case relates to the discharge of an employee, Lakshmi Kanta Jha, by the employer. The case of the applicant, employee, is that he had been a Jamadar of Messrs. Jamna Das Srinibas, Limited, of 82/2, Muktarām Babu Street, Calcutta, since January 1947 till 27th January 1950 when he had been dismissed without notice and that he claimed pay of 2 months and 27 days (pay of privilege leave for one month, pay of one month due to dismissal without notice and pay from 1st January to the 27th January 1950).

The Company appeared and filed written statement alleging that the employee left his services on his own motion after misappropriating the rent collected by him from the tenant of the employer. The only point for decision is if the employee is entitled to the wages as claimed.

On hearing both the parties, I persuaded the Management to pay Rs. 100 (Rupees one hundred only) to the employee as his wages by way of noble gesture to the employee. As the Management was very eager to settle the dispute, it readily agreed to pay Rs. 100 (Rupees one hundred only) by way of settlement. I, therefore, do not think it necessary to pronounce any verdict regarding the merits of the case. I rather congratulate the Management for this generous gesture shown to employee on my suggestion. I also place on record here the fact of cash payment of Rs. 100 (Rupees one hundred only) being paid in my presence on duly stamped receipt. As the dispute was thus settled by cash payment there is no more dispute now and I make award accordingly.

P. R. MUKHERJEE,

Judge, Industrial Tribunal

The 17th June 1950.

By order of the Governor,

D. S. P. MUKHERJEE, Jt. Secy

Subject:—Compulsory savings by Government servant through subscription to Provident Fund and emergency cut in pay for certain classes of Government servants.

No. T M/151 28th June 1950. In continuation of this office notification No. T M/135, dated the 12th May 1950, on the subject noted above, published at page 1002 of the Calcutta Gazette, dated the 25th May 1950, a copy of the Government of India, Ministry of Finance office memorandum No. F.23(7)-E V /49, dated the 29th May 1950, is circulated herewith for the information of all concerned.

"The undersigned is directed to invite a reference to this Ministry's office memorandum No. F.23(7)-E V /49, dated the 15th November 1949, on the subject indicated above. The question has now been raised as to how a Government servant should regulate his subscriptions to a Provident Fund when he reverts in the course of a financial year to a post in which his pay is Rs. 250 per month or less. If he wishes to continue as an optional subscriber after such reversion, it may not be possible for him to subscribe for the rest of the year at the minimum compulsory rate applicable to him before reversion nor do the rules allow him to reduce the amount of subscription in the course of a financial year. The Government of India have decided that in such circumstances a Government servant may be permitted to refix the amount of his optional subscription with effect from the month subsequent to the one in which he has been reverted."

LABOUR DEPARTMENTORDER.

No. 3633Lab.—4th July 1950.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Commerce, Labour and Industries Department, order No. 924Lab., dated the 27th March 1948, as amended by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 767Lab., dated the 16th February 1950, the industrial dispute between Messrs. A. Firpo, Ltd., 18/2, Chowringhee, Calcutta, and their employees as represented by Firpo's Employees' Union, 30/2A, Serpentine Lane, Calcutta, in connection with the case of Sri S. K. Banerjee and six other employees mentioned in the list attached with the said order, dated the 27th March 1948, was referred for adjudication to Sri G. Palit, District Judge;

And whereas the said Sri G. Palit, District Judge, has given the award, as shown in the annexure hereto;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the power conferred by section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased to direct that the award be published in the Calcutta Gazette.

ANNEXURE.

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. A. Firpo, Ltd., 18/2, Chowringhee, Calcutta, and their employees represented by Firpo's Employees' Union, 30/2A, Serpentine Lane, Calcutta.

PRESENT: SRI G. PALIT, District Judge, Chairman, Industrial Tribunal.
Present for the Union—Sri P. K. Sanyal, Advocate, along with Sri Krishnadhyan Banerji, Secretary.

Present for the Company—Mr. E. R. Meyer, Counsel, instructed by Sri B. B. Sinha of Messrs. Leslie & Hinds, Solicitors.

1. By an order No. 924Lab., dated the 27th March 1948, the Government of West Bengal constituted a Tribunal of one Judge under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act (Act XIV of 1947) and referred the said dispute to Sri P. K. Sarkar for adjudication. After a time, his services not being available, the Government of West Bengal, by a subsequent order No. 767Lab., dated the 16th February 1950, referred the said dispute to me for adjudication after due appointment.

2. The reference was originally received on 1st April 1948. The Union filed its written statement on 27th April 1948. The Company filed its written objection on 7th May 1948. The issues were settled in the presence of lawyers of the parties on 13th May 1948. Then the proceeding was stayed by a Rule of the Hon'ble High Court of Calcutta on 27th May 1948. The said stay order was lifted on 9th November 1949. Some time was taken for inspection and other steps. I came in charge of the case on 17th February 1950. After several adjournments the case was taken up for final hearing on 10th June 1950. After the case was opened, there was a talk of compromise between the parties. The talks materialised and a petition of compromise was eventually filed.

3. The issues stand as follows:—

- (1) Does the discharge of the seven employees of the Company named in the Government order amount to victimisation and unfair labour practice?
- (2) Can the said employees be reinstated? Has this Tribunal jurisdiction to order such reinstatement? What relief should be granted to the said employees?

AWARD.

Issues 1 and 2.

I need not go into details about the written statement filed by the parties before me. The Union contended briefly that the Company was in a flourishing condition. It did not grant adequate pay and allowances to its employees. Accordingly, the Union was formed to ventilate the grievances of the workers. The Company, with a view to wreck the Union, discharged certain employees without sufficient justification on the plea of retrenchment on economic grounds. The Union contends that this move was actuated by a mala fide motive on the part of the Company. During the hearing, the Union pressed the case of three employees only. The Company, on the other hand, denies its increasing prosperity. It contends that after the cessation of the war, the financial position of the Company has dwindled down greatly; particularly, as the result of prohibition in force in free India. The Company, however, resists the claim for reinstatement or compensation of these three discharged workers.

As the parties, during the hearing, have come to terms and filed a petition of compromise before me, I need not adjudicate upon the matter on evidence. The issues are disposed of in terms of the said petition. In the petition of settlement the terms of adjustment have been recorded. It calls upon the Tribunal to record an award of "no dispute" in respect of the matter under reference. I accept the prayer and record the award accordingly. The petition of settlement, as per Annexure A, will form part of this award, which is one of there being no present dispute between the parties.

G. PALIT,
District Judge,
Chairman, Industrial Tribunal.

The 16th June 1950.

ANNEXURE A.

BEFORE SRI G. PALIT.

Tribunal, appointed under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

In the matter of an Industrial Dispute between Messrs. A. Firpo, Ltd., and their employees represented by Firpo's Employees' Union.

The humble petition of the Employers and the Employees named above.

MOST RESPECTFULLY SHEWETH:—

That the parties hereto have settled their disputes on the following terms, vis.—

- (a) that each of the workmen, viz., Sri P. C. Ghoshal, Sri S. N. Mukherjee and Sri L. M. Bhattacharjee, shall be paid Rs. 660 (Rupees six hundred and sixty only) as ex-gratia payment;

- (b) that they shall get such amount standing to their credit in the Provident Fund account including Company's contribution up to the date of their discharge;
- (c) that all allegations against the Company are withdrawn;
- (d) that the above payment now made to these workmen shall not be taken as a precedent either by the employer or the employees or the Union or be used in any manner in any subsequent dispute between the parties;
- (e) that an award should be made to the effect that there is no dispute now pending between the parties.

Your petitioners therefore pray that the above terms may be recorded and an award may be made to the effect that no dispute is now pending between the parties.

And your petitioners, as in duty bound, shall ever pray.

C. CORTI,
Director, A. Firpo, Ltd.

Subject:—Payment of refund of Central Excise Duty except duty on cloth and land customs duty.

No. TM/157.—5th July 1950.—All Treasury Officers and Sub-Treasury Officers in West Bengal and the Manager, Reserve Bank of India, Calcutta, are hereby informed that orders for refund of Central Excise Duty except duty on cloth and also excepting land customs duty, issued by the Assistant Collector, Central Excise, Calcutta, and duly countersigned by the Chief Accounts Officer, Central Excise, Calcutta, should be accepted for payment, if otherwise in order. In such cases verification of credit by the Treasury/Bank is not necessary as the same is done by the Chief Accounts Officer, Central Excise, before countersignature of refund orders. In this connection a reference is invited to rule 576 of the Central Government compilation of the Treasury Rules, Volume I. The payments should be shown separately in the list of central payments under the head "2—Union Excise Duty—Refunds". Instructions regarding payment of refund of Central Excise Duty on cloth and land customs duty will be issued later on.

Subject:—Preparation of separate schedules by the Treasury Officers in respect of vouchers for payments to Gazetted Officers.

No. TM/158.—6th July 1950.—Attention of all Treasury and Sub-Treasury Officers in West Bengal is invited to this office notification No. TM-1-18/1467, dated 23rd March 1950, published at page 513 of the Calcutta Gazette, dated

30th March 1950, under which a copy of the Government of West Bengal, Finance Department, Budget, Circular letter No. 2479(14)F.B., dated 15th March 1950, on the subject noted above was circulated for their guidance. It has been noticed that in certain treasuries the payment schedules have not been prepared in two parts as directed in the Government order cited above. It has also been noticed that payments made to certain classes of officers who are non-gazetted but who draw their own claims in the gazetted officer's bill form have been included in Part I of the schedule instead of in Part II. As this defeats the purpose for which the system of preparing schedules in two parts has been introduced by the Government it is requested that particular care should be taken to see that the two parts of the schedules are prepared correctly. Payments to the following officers should be shown in Part II of the schedule although these officers draw their pay in gazetted officer's bill form:—

- (1) Jailors.
- (2) Sub-Assistant Surgeon.
- (3) Rationing Officer.
- (4) Inspector of Police, West Bengal.
- (5) Special Officer, Debt Settlement Board, West Bengal.
- (6) Sub-Registrar, West Bengal.
- (7) Assistant Inspector of Schools, West Bengal.
- (8) Surveyors (formerly Sub-Assistant Superintendents) of the Survey of India Department.

No. TM/161.—10th July 1950.—It has been decided by the Government of India, Ministry of Finance, that so long as the employees from Part "B" States taken over by the Central Government on Federal Financial Integration are on their existing scales of pay they should continue under such compulsory savings schemes as may have been introduced by the State Government before such integration and that Central schemes of compulsory savings should not be applicable to them. They will come under such Central schemes as may be in force as soon as they are absorbed in Central scales of pay.

All Treasury and Sub-Treasury Officers in West Bengal and all Drawing and Disbursing Officers of the Central Government under audit of this office should note this decision.

(Government of India, Ministry of Finance, office memorandum No. D.5896-BI/50, dated 19th June 1950—Dy. India 2505/TM-701 filed in Bk. TM/9-38 of 49-50.)

Subject:—Incidence of House Rent Allowance and Compensatory (City) Allowance.

No TM/162.—13th July 1950.—The following decision of the Government of India, Ministry of Finance, is hereby circulated to all the Drawing and Disbursing Officers of the Central Government under the audit control of this office:—

(1) The expenditure on house rent allowance and compensatory (city) allowance relating to post partition period payable to the India-opted staff retained in Pakistan after partition should be allocated as follows, as the Pakistan Government have accepted Central Pay Commission's recommendations in respect of house rent allowance and compensatory (city) allowance though not the recommendations regarding pay scales:—

(i) House rent and compensatory (city) allowances based on the unrevised pay drawn in the existing scale are debitable to that Government

(ii) The extra element of house rent allowance and compensatory (city) allowance representing arrears payable to those Government servants who opted for India finally in the first instance, on account of increase in pay due to the Central Pay Commission's recommendations, is debitable to the Government of India. If this extra allowance had already been paid by the Pakistan authorities to these Government servants then necessary credit for the element should be afforded to the Pakistan Government by debit to the Government of India. In the case of Government servants who had opted for Pakistan initially and changed their option subsequently to India, this extra element is not payable for the period of their retention in Pakistan after 14th August 1947. If, however, they have already been paid the extra element by the Pakistan authorities the amounts paid in excess should be recovered and credited to the Government of Pakistan

(2) The Drawing and Disbursing Officers of the Central Government under audit of this office are hereby requested to examine whether in view of the instructions noted above any readjustment in accounts is necessary due to the extra element of house rent allowance and compensatory (city) allowance, if any, already paid by the Pakistan authorities to those Government servants who opted for India finally in the first instance, on account of increase in pay due to the Central Pay Commission's recommendations and whether any extra element of such allowances has already been paid by the Pakistan authorities to those Government servants who had opted for Pakistan initially and changed their option subsequently to India, for the period of their retention in Pakistan after 14th August 1947. If so, arrangements should be made for effecting necessary readjustments as indicated

ANNEXURE.

In the matter of industrial disputes between Messrs. Britannia Building and Iron Co., Ltd., and Messrs. Holmes Wilson & Co., Ltd., Stephen House, 4, Dalhousie Square, East, Calcutta, and their workmen represented by Association of Employees' Unions, Commercial Buildings, Block No. 3, 2nd Floor, 23, Netaji Subhas Road, Calcutta.

SENT: SRI SAILESH CHANDRA CHAKRAVARTI,

Chairman of the Tribunal.

For the Companies—Sri K. K. Mitra, Technical Director, assisted by Sri M. M. Kalanee, Secretary.

For the Unions—Sri Jitendra Kumar Banerjee, Secretary.

By their order No. 2513Lab., dated the 18th May 1950, Government of Bengal, Labour Department, under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, referred to me for adjudication the industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Britannia Building and Iron Co., Ltd., and Messrs. Holmes Wilson & Co., Ltd., Stephen House, 4, Dalhousie Square, East, Calcutta and their workmen represented by Association of Employees' Unions, Commercial Buildings, Block No. 3, 2nd Floor, 23, Netaji Subhas Road, Calcutta.

The dispute relates to the following twelve points:—

- (1) Pay scale.
- (2) Bonus.
- (3) Retiral benefits.
- (4) Retiring gratuity.
- (5) Tiffin.

- (6) Medical aid.
- (7) Working hours and overtime.
- (8) Recruitment rules.
- (9) Uniforms and umbrellas.
- (10) Service conditions.
- (11) Recognition of the Union.
- (12) Works Committee.

AWARD.

Point 1—Pay scale.

Bengal Chamber of Commerce is an association of business firms mutual benefits. While the parent organisation is so named—it has other organisations, either departmental or working in collaboration. These are Indian Jute Mill Association, Indian Engineering Association, etc.

In October 1947 a tribunal was set up for the engineering industry; those who were members of the Engineering Association were included in it.

In January 1948 another tribunal was set up known as Mercantile Tribunal including all the firms affiliated to the Bengal Chamber of Commerce.

Some engineering firms had trading business and were members of Bengal Chamber of Commerce and they came under the jurisdiction of both the tribunals.

For the Engineering Tribunal a new set of judges were appointed, and for the Mercantile Tribunal the judges who were engaged with the adjudication of Cotton Textile Industry were appointed. The result was that while the work of the Engineering Tribunal progressed fast and the award was made in June 1948, the work of the Mercantile Tribunal could not be seriously taken up till the award of the Cotton Textile Industry was made in the end of July 1948.

Another point to be noted is that the reference to the Mercantile Tribunal was confined to the head offices in Calcutta mostly round about what is known as the Old Clive Street area.

Some of the engineering firms had their head offices in Clive Street and as some became members of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce as general traders, they came under both the adjudications.

In view of the over-lapping some employees of the head offices got themselves excused from the Engineering Tribunal while there was no planned move on the part of the employees.

The Mercantile Tribunal had to tackle the situation of these head offices where the award of the Engineering Tribunal became binding. As no award could be imposed on another award during its continuance, it had to discontinue those head offices from the adjudication.

The present Company has its workshop at Howrah with the head office at Dalhousie Square area. This was a member of the Engineering Association also of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce. The employees of the office did not excuse themselves off from the Engineering Tribunal. At the expiry of the period of the award of the Engineering Tribunal, the employees of the head office have raised disputes. The demands have been put at a higher pitch, but the real intention is to get an award at par with the generality of the awards of the Mercantile Tribunal.

Recently another tribunal has been set up to consider the question of dearness allowance and leave of the employees of the firms covered by the Engineering Tribunal. These two points are not before me.

The Engineering Tribunal did not propose any uniform scale of pay for employees of all the firms. There were firms of different grades and the Tribunal did was to lay down the minimum scale of pay. The employees here were getting more and in terms of the award these were not affected.

It has been contended that since there has been an award regulating wages, no alteration should be made unless there be a change in circumstances. The preponderance of judicial opinion is that no change should ordinarily be made unless there be a change in circumstance. I agree with the view that unless there be a change in circumstance a pay structure, once established by an adjudicator, ought not to be disturbed.

The subject-matter of an adjudication may be divided into two parts: advances for actions done in past and for prospective advantages. So far as the former classes of grievances are concerned, the award gives a finality—irrevocable finality to the matter. These matters ought not to be reopened under any circumstances. So far as prospective matters are concerned, the position is dynamic in nature and further advances or retrocession may be made with altered conditions. Fixation of pay scales, dearness allowance, etc., will come under the second category, while cases of dismissal or punishment, benefits for past services come under the first category.

I have already said that the Engineering Tribunal had to deal with effectively a large number of firms—big and small, factories and also head offices. The adjudicators therefore fixed a minimum scale of pay and dearness allowance leaving the higher emoluments unaffected.

The pay of the employees of the head offices was not practically touched as the employees were getting higher pay. So, in a way, pay was not affected by an award. The effect of the award was only a prohibition against reduction below a certain level.

Since then a material change has occurred. This is the publication of the award of the Mercantile Tribunal. By the award the salaries of the employees of head offices located round about the Clive Street area and affiliated to the Bengal Chamber of Commerce were enhanced. The wages in vicinity and of the employees of the firms associated with the Bengal Chamber of Commerce were increased. The award related only to the head offices. Therefore, there has been a change in the circumstances to raise the salaries of the employees attached to the head offices only and of no other. The award will therefore affect the employees attached to and usually working at Stephen House, 4, Dalhousie Square, East, Calcutta, where the head office of the Company is located.

The award of the Engineering Tribunal cannot be changed so far as floating employees or the employees of the Shalimar Works are concerned. The wages of the persons who do not work usually in the head office will be affected.

While agreeing on principle that the Bengal Chamber of Commerce scales should be introduced, there are some practical difficulties in carrying out the various scales of pay there. The principal difficulty is that in the Bengal Chamber of Commerce case it was found that the employees were mostly matriculates. At any rate, that was the idea conveyed to us and we proceeded on that assumption. We laid down a lower scale for those who were non-matriculates. Here the position is different. Most of the men are non-matriculates who have by long stay acquired some sort of skill in routine business. It is difficult to relegate all of them to the non-matriculate scale of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce and it would be a precedent to put them all in the Bengal Chamber of Commerce's matriculate scale. What I propose to do is this: I want to put the junior matriculate clerks in the lower grade and all matriculates in the regular grade. The non-matriculates who have put in some years of regular service and have acquired some skill will be put on the regular grade. Men in the lower grade who show promise of ability should be freely promoted to the regular grade. I lay down the following grades:—

Grade A—Rs. 110—7—152—E.B.—7—180.

Grade B—Rs. 70—3—130—E.B.—4—150.

Grade C—Rs. 60—3—90.

I do not provide for a higher grade because I do not want to compel the Company to promote less efficient or less educated people to higher grades. If the Company finds useful hands, higher salaries and increments can be granted at their discretion.

The following persons, if they are non-matriculates, shall be placed in Grade C, i.e., Rs. 60—3—90 grade:

Ardhendu Prakash Maitra.

Dwijendra Lal Ghosh.

Bhupendra Nath Ghosh.

Prodyot Kumar Roy Chowdhury.

Bhiswadev Kundal.

Keshab Chandra Sadhu.

Shib Krishna Saha.

Jagannath Dass.

Nanda Gopal Sen.

Gour Hari Sen.

Tracers and Sarcars who do not get more than Rs. 90 will also be placed in this grade.

Grade A is provided for Stenographers and Comptometer operators. The rest of the employees, whose salaries after adjustment shall not exceed Rs. 150, shall be placed in the second grade, i.e., Grade B. Persons getting more than Rs. 150 shall be placed in Grade A. The increment of persons not in the time-scale shall be at the discretion of the employers. So far as Grades B and C are concerned, there shall be point to point adjustment of salaries, that is, the pay should be adjusted according to the years of service put in provided that salary of no person shall be reduced. So far as Grade A is concerned, the salaries of the persons shall be fixed at the next higher step. Probationers and apprentices shall get the salary of the lowest grade to which they were appointed.

Subordinate Staff.

The following are the grades for the subordinate staff:

			Salary.
			Rs.
Durwans	30—1—45.
Bearers and Peons	25—1—40.
Car Drivers	55.
Lorry Drivers	60.

I do not disturb the grades and the time-scales except in one case. The grade of bearers shall be Rs. 30—1—40 instead of Rs. 25—1—40. Those of the bearers who are getting less than Rs. 30 shall be put up to the figure, i.e., Rs. 30.

Point 2.—Bonus.

The Company is now giving 15 days' salary as bonus in the year. I have been assured that there is no intention to discontinue it. In view of this assurance I leave the matter outside adjudication with the recommendation that if the profits permit, attempts should be made to raise the amount of bonus to one month's salary as is the usual custom with the mercantile firms affiliated to the Bengal Chamber of Commerce.

Points 3 and 4.—Retiral Benefits and Retiring Gratuity.

I have already said about the effect of an award for the subsequent time. The Engineering Tribunal did not award any benefit for past services unless there was any rule in the Company. This is, as I have already pointed out, an irrevocable decision and it is not possible for me to interfere with it. I can only lay down a rule for future years. The Company has a Contributory Provident Fund at 8½ per cent. This is a little less than 10 per cent. which we have awarded for the other firms affiliated to the Bengal Chamber of Commerce. Not that we strictly stuck to 10 per cent. but substantially gave 10 per cent. In a very early award I discussed the matter and pointed out that 8½ per cent. was the proper percentage if we compared the retiring benefits given to the Government employees. We had, however, adopted 10 per cent. because that was the offer made by the Bengal Chamber of Commerce at an earlier date and accepted by the employees. 8½ per cent. cannot be considered to be anything inadequate and this firm has got many employees in the workshop who are all governed by the same Provident Fund. I therefore consider it inexpedient to alter the rate of contribution for the few employees engaged in the head office.

Points 5 and 6.—Tiffin and Medical Aid.

The demands under these heads are rejected as we have rejected them in generality of awards in the Bengal Chamber of Commerce case.

Point 7.—Working Hours and Overtime.

Working hours shall be for the clerical staff 37 hours in the week and for the subordinate staff 44 hours in the week excluding the tiffin time. The employers shall fix the hours of attendance.

Overtime shall be paid according to the rates prescribed under the Shop and Establishments Act.

Point 9.—Uniforms and Umbrellas.

These will be supplied only for official work.

Points 11 and 12.—Recognition of the Union and Works Committee.

These are not strictly industrial disputes within the meaning of the Industrial Disputes Act. They are left outside adjudication.

Point 8.—Recruitment Rules:—Recruitment, Promotion and Transfer.

Transfer means allocation of different work. The Union wants that there should not be any such transfer. We feel however that transfer of tables is necessary for two purposes: (1) to make a particular clerk know work of the various departments; and (2) for stock-taking of arrears of any one particular clerk working in a department for a sufficiently long period.

We do not approve of the idea that recruitments should be done through the Union or the Federation. The employer will select his own men.

Recruitment.—(i) Preference should be given to retrenched employees if qualified.

(ii) In the matter of appointment to the higher grades of clerk, promotion from lower grade shall be the rule. Only in exceptional cases, recruitment may be made from outside.

Then comes the question of promotion from the clerical grade to the officer's grade. We award that there should be no bar to promotion from clerical grade to the officer's grade or from subordinate staff to clerical grade. As selection must depend on the management, we cannot dictate that a certain percentage or a certain number of clerks must be promoted to the officer's grade. This must depend on suitability according to the standard of the management. We, however, like to remind that such promotions do change the outlook of the clerk and are conducive to more efficient work by the clerical staff.

Point 10.—Service Conditions.

(a) Probation and confirmation.—It is awarded that the period of probation shall not exceed 6 months though confirmation may be made earlier if the candidate is found suitable.

(b) Service record.—We award that service records be maintained and that adverse remarks shall be incorporated after giving the person an opportunity of explaining his conduct.

(c) Enquiry before punishment and dismissal, discharge and retrenchment or other punishments.—In case of retrenchment, the principle of “last come, first go” shall be applied. Exceptions may be made in case of persons with exceptional abilities.

Now comes the question about dismissal and punishment. The employer has no doubt the right of punishing an employee but we frame the following rules which must precede any punishment for a just cause.

The first thing to be done is that a charge shall be framed and the person proceeded against shall be furnished with a copy of the charge and the facts on which this is based. The person proceeded against shall submit his explanation. Then a future date should be fixed for the matter to be enquired into. If the person proceeded against is found innocent, the matter ends. If, however, he is found guilty, the employee concerned shall be supplied with a copy of the findings and the punishment proposed to be imposed. The employee will get an opportunity again to plead about the punishment only at this stage. If the enquiring officer himself is competent to inflict punishment on the person proceeded against, he will hear his pleadings and order what he thinks best. If the enquiring officer is anybody other than the Head of the Concern at Calcutta, an appeal shall lie with him within seven days of the communication of the order punishing the employee. In case the enquiring officer is not competent to inflict punishment he will forward the proceedings to the authority competent to punish and that authority will hear the person again and then pass orders. If that authority be other than the Head of the Concern at Calcutta, an appeal shall lie likewise with the Head of the Concern at Calcutta. In all cases where the proposed punishment is discharge or dismissal the papers must be laid before the Head of the Concern at Calcutta who will hear the person proceeded against and then pass orders. The clerk proceeded against shall have always the right to be defended by any other employee or by any other retired employee. These are domestic matters and bringing outside agencies is not helpful to the person proceeded against. Any outsider may defend a person proceeded against with the permission of the enquiring officer.

We hope that the rules framed by us will remove apprehensions about abrupt termination of services and will give to the employee a sense of security which is essential for efficient working.

(d) Retiring age.—We decide that a man shall retire on completing 55 years. We do not favour extension of services, thereby blocking the way for younger people to get employments. In exceptional cases where both the employer and the employee agree, extension of services may be granted.

ORDER.

No. 4025Lab.—24th July 1950.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 1289Lab., dated the 18th March 1950, as amended by corrigendum No. 1802Lab., dated the 15th April 1950, the industrial dispute between San Equip, Ltd., Serampore Hooghly, and its workmen represented by San Equip, Ltd., Mazdoor Union 2, Netaji Avenue, Serampore, Hooghly, was referred for adjudication to Sri G. Palit, District Judge;

And whereas the said Sri G. Palit, District Judge, has submitted to the State Government his award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the power conferred by section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE.

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. San Equip, Ltd., Serampore, Hooghly, and its workmen represented by San Equip, Ltd., Mazdoor Union, 2, Netaji Avenue, Serampore, Hooghly.

PRESENT:

SRI G. PALIT, District Judge, Industrial Tribunal.

Present for the Union: Sri P. K. Sanyal, Advocate.

Present for the Company: Sri S. P. Ghosh, Advocate, instructed by Sri B. K. Ghosh, Pleader.

1. By an order No. 1289Lab., dated the 18th March 1950, the Government of West Bengal constituted a Tribunal of one member under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act (Act XIV of 1947) and referred the said dispute to me for adjudication.

2. The reference was received on 22nd March 1950. The Union filed its written statement on 3rd April 1950. The Company filed its written objection on 25th April 1950. The case was taken up for final hearing on 15th June 1950 after two adjournments. When the case was opened there was a talk of compromise between the parties. A petition of compromise was eventually filed, containing the terms of the settlement.

3. The issues after amendment stand as follows:—

- (1) Whether the sudden lock-out of the foundry shop was justified. If so, what compensation should be paid to the retrenched workers?
- (2) If the lock-out was not justified, whether the workers would be entitled to re-instatement and/or any other compensation?

AWARD.

It is not necessary for me to go into details about the written statement filed by the parties, inasmuch as the matter was disposed of amicably by petition of compromise filed before me. It is a case of the Union that the Company refused to start the Provident Fund Scheme on the terms of the Engineering Tribunal's award, though directed by the Labour Commissioner. On 2nd February 1950 the Company suddenly, without notice, locked out 27 employees of the foundry shop. At the intervention of the Labour Directorate, the lock-out was lifted on the 3rd February 1950 and the workmen were allowed to work on two succeeding days. Again on the 6th February 1950 the Company closed down the foundry department for an indefinite period. The Union contends that this lock-out was unjustified and uncalled for; as such the employees are entitled to compensation during the period of voluntary unemployment. The Company, on the other hand, contends that this lock-out was a forced measure necessitated by the fact that the stock of pig-iron was reduced to nil. There was a scarcity of the supply of pig-iron for some time past. The Company managed somehow to carry on with scrap-iron. But the products, made of scrap-iron, did not find good market. The Company's finances also were tottering. The Company divided the employees into two groups just as a makeshift measure to avoid the total breakdown. But the employees forced their entrance into the factory on the 3rd and 4th February 1950 with the result that the Company had no other alternative than to close down the foundry department for an indefinite period. The Company, however, is willing to take in as many as possible of the employees when it finds its way to re-open the foundry department consequent on the supply of the quota of pig-iron.

When the case was opened by the Advocates of the parties, the talk of compromise arose. The talks resulted in a petition of compromise being filed justifying the differences and disposing of the issues before the Tribunal. The petition of compromise is embodied in Annexure A. This will form part of the award. I, accordingly, pass an order of "no dispute" disposing of the issues in terms of the petition of compromise as per Annexure A.

G. PALIT,

District Judge, Industrial Tribunal.

And

Its workmen represented by San Equip, Ltd., Mazdoor Union.

The humble petition of the Employers and Workmen named above

MOST RESPECTFULLY SHEWETH :

"That the parties have settled their dispute on the following terms, viz. :—

- (a) that the 44 workmen of the Foundry Department retrenched shall be paid one month's wages including dearness allowance as compensation with effect from the 7th of February 1950;

- (b) that the employers shall re-employ at least 75 per cent. of these workmen according to their seniority and skilfulness as soon as they get 70 tons of pig-iron as covered by their permits Nos. SC/3699013/Pig, dated the 10th January 1950, and SC/369369/Pig, dated the 27th February 1950;
- (c) that as soon as sufficient supply of pig-iron is received the remaining workmen shall be re-employed;
- (d) that when re-employed the period of service put in by the workmen up to the 6th day of March 1950 shall be taken into account;
- (e) that in re-employing the workmen as stated above the employers shall take into account the recommendation of the Union.

Your petitioners, therefore, pray that the Tribunal may be pleased to pass an award in terms of the above settlement.

And your petitioners, as in duty bound, shall ever pray.

In addition to these visits at fixed times the members will pay unexpected visits to the hospital. Members while paying surprise visit should on arrival at the hospital immediately contact the Superintendent before entering the wards. If all the three members of the group are not present, the remaining members can go round without the absentee or absentees, as the case may be. The members constituting the group should inspect the internal arrangements and offer such suggestions regarding the administration of the institution as they think proper.

A visitors' book will be kept in the hospital in which the recommendations of the Committee will be recorded. The Superintendent will note on the margin the action taken on each recommendation with any other remarks or explanations that he may wish to offer. He will transmit a copy of the entries without delay to the Director of Health Services, West Bengal, for consideration. The Director of Health Services will take such further action as may seem necessary and will bring to the notice of Government any matter which he thinks sufficiently important. A copy of the entries should also be sent to the Secretary to the Government of West Bengal, Medical and Public Health Department, for information.

The Committee as a whole will meet at least once a quarter, review the reports of the visiting groups and discuss the remedial measures adopted. The Superintendent should attend the meetings of the Visiting Committee.

The Committee will send copies of the resolutions passed at their quarter meetings to the Secretary to the Government of West Bengal, Medical and Public Health Department, and also to the Director of Health Services, West Bengal, who will submit to Government a report of the action taken or proposed to be taken on the points raised in those resolutions.

The members will hold office till the close of the financial year 1950-51 or until the next reconstitution of the Committee, whichever is later. Any member who fails to visit the hospital during three successive months without sufficient reason will automatically cease to be a member, and Government will appoint a new member in his place. In the case of scientific and technical personnel also the Cabinet have expressed the view that it would be desirable to retain their services, if their special experience so warrant even after the normal age of retirement.

2. The Ministry of Home Affairs will continue to be responsible for the enforcement of the policy regarding the superannuation of officers and all cases including those of displaced officers, scientific and technical personnel covered by the recent Cabinet decision should continue to be referred to them well in advance (at least three months before the date of superannuation or expiry of the sanction) as at present.

Nadia.—No. P.H. 1851/2R-10/50.—22nd July 1950.—The following draft of rules which, in exercise of the power conferred by section 311 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932 (Bengal Act XV of 1932), the Governor proposes to make for the regulation of the supply of filtered water to private premises for domestic purposes in the municipality of Nabadwip, in the district of Nadia, is published for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby.

2 The draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 15th September 1950, and any objection or suggestion with respect thereto received by the undersigned before the date will be considered:—

Draft rules.

So long as the Commissioners of the Nabadwip Municipality hereinafter referred to as "the Commissioners" deem it practicable and consistent with the maintenance of an efficient water-supply, they may allow any owner or occupier of a holding paying a water-rate imposed under the provisions of Chapter V of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932, on the annual value of such holding, when such annual value is not less than Rs. 100, to lay down communication pipes from the service-pipes of the Commissioners for the purpose of leading water to such holding for domestic purposes only, subject to the following rules and conditions:

Provided that no connection shall be allowed to holdings other than masonry buildings without the sanction of the Commissioners at a meeting:—

1 The owner or occupier of any holding whose annual value is not less than Rs. 100 requiring water to be laid on to such holding for domestic purposes, or requiring any addition or alteration to an existing water-supply, shall apply for the same on a printed form to be supplied, free of cost, at the municipal office.

2 A fee of Rs. 350 or such sum as may be determined hereafter shall be paid to the Commissioners by such owner or occupier for each connection to a municipal main supply-pipe or a common communication-pipe laid in accordance with rule 3 before any work is commenced, such fee to be in addition to all other costs and charges imposed under these rules.

3 Except as provided below each holding shall have a separate connection to the municipal main supply-pipe and extensions from the communication-pipe of one holding to another holding shall not be permitted:

Provided that with the consent of the Commissioners at a meeting connections to two or more holdings may be permitted from a common communication-pipe. Any such communication-pipe shall be laid in a street or common passage, and a stop-cock and meter as provided for in rule 7 shall be fixed in the connection to each holding:

Provided also that no holding shall have more than one separate connection, but if in any case the Commissioners at a meeting are satisfied that an adequate supply to any holding cannot be given through a single connection, they may sanction a second connection hereto.

4. The owner or occupier of the holding, in respect of which the connection is required, shall pay the entire cost of the connection, including the supply and fixing of the fittings referred to in rule 7 and shall also pay the cost of such alterations in, or repairs to, roads, drains, sewers, gas or water mains or pipes, and the cost of such other works as may be necessitated by or result from, the work of making such connection.

5. The owner or occupier of the holding to which a connection has been given shall, at any time, on receipt of notice to do so from the Commissioners, pay the entire cost of any repairs or alterations to the connection or any part thereof which the Commissioners may consider necessary to put into satisfactory condition or which may be necessitated by any change in the municipal water-works or system of distribution or by the defective condition of the connection or any part thereof or by any other cause whatever.

6. (1) The works required under rules 4 and 5 may, at the option of the Commissioners, either be carried out by the Commissioners themselves at the expense of the owner or occupier of the holding in respect of which the works are required, or may be carried out by a person or firm employed by such owner or occupier and approved by the Commissioners.

(2) No work shall be carried out under sub-rule (1), except under the supervision of a municipal officer.

7. A holding connection shall comprise the following parts or fittings:

- (a) a brass or gun-metal ferrule inserted in the main supply-pipe;
- (b) a galvanized iron communication-pipe from the ferrule to the meter;
- (c) a stop-cock and its surface-box;
- (d) a meter;
- (e) service-pipes from the stop-cock to the taps, and
- (f) taps.

8. (1) All the fittings referred to in rule 7 shall be exact duplicates of standard samples kept in the office of the Commissioners, and approved by them at a meeting.

(2) All fittings shall be inspected and tested and stamped by an officer of the municipality before being fixed.

(3) If any owner or occupier shall desire to adopt any fitting of a pattern different from the standard pattern, he shall present such fitting for the approval of the Chairman of the Commissioners and any fittings so presented may, if considered satisfactory by the Chairman, be stamped, and samples thereof may be purchased and placed among the standard fittings.

9. The holding connection, when fitted in position, shall be capable of standing a pressure of 40 feet, and no water shall be supplied until it has stood such a test applied by the Commissioners.

40. The size of the ferrule and the diameter of the communication-pipe referred to in clauses (a) and (b) of rule 7, and the number of taps shall be fixed in accordance with the annual valuation of the holding as follows:—

Annual valuation of holding.		Size of ferrule.	Diameter of communication- pipe.	Number of taps.
Rs.	Rs.
From 100 to 199	1	1	2
200 to 399	1	1	3
400 to 599	1	1	4
600 to 899	1	1	6
900 to 1,199	1	1	6
1,200 to 1,499	1	1	6
1,500 to 1,999	1	1	7

Rs. 2,000 and above, special sanction of the Commissioners will be necessary in each case.

11 (1) On every communication-pipe a brass or gun-metal stop-cock having the same water-way as such pipe shall be placed as near as practicable to the point where that pipe enters the holding to be supplied.

(2) The stop-cock shall be built in a brick chamber provided with a cast-iron surface cover-box so designed that it can be locked and the key of this box shall remain under the control of the Chairman.

(3) The stop-cock shall be capable of adjustment so that the supply to the holding may be regulated thereby.

12 (1) The meter shall be placed as near to the stop-cock as possible and in a position where it can be conveniently examined.

AWARD.

The dispute under reference is over the dismissal of Sri S. K. Sen Gupta ex-Head Clerk of Sarugaon Tea Estate.

It came on for hearing on 19th June 1950 and both parties appeared before me and filed a joint petition of compromise.

There being no dispute before me calling for adjudication, I make an award in terms of the petition of compromise which shall be treated as part of my award. The terms of the petition of compromise are the following:—

- (1) That Sri S. K. Sen Gupta, Head Clerk, is reinstated to his former status as Head Clerk but shall resume his duties on transfer to another garden under the management of Messrs. Andrew Yule & Co., Ltd.
- (2) That as regards back pay from May 1949 up to his date of reinstatement the amount will be decided and paid by the Company according to the decision of the present Manager of the Tea Department.

Accordingly, I award that Sri S. K. Sen Gupta be reinstated to his former status as Head Clerk according to the terms of the petition of compromise which is made a part of my award. As regards the payment of back pay from May 1949, there was some deadlock and I appealed to the Company to make a generous gesture to the employee. I am happy to record that the Company responded to my call and the amount of the back pay to be paid by the Company to the said Sri S. K. Sen Gupta was left to the discretion of the present Manager of the Tea Department of Messrs. Andrew Yule & Co., Ltd.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE.

The matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. J. K. Hosiery Factory (Calcutta), Ltd., 7, Council House Street, Calcutta, and their employee Sri T. P. Gidwani represented by the Association of Employees' Unions, Block No. 2, 2nd floor, 23, Netaji Subhas Road, Calcutta.

PRESENT: SRI G. PAIT, District Judge, Industrial Tribunal.

Agent for the Union: Sri Jiten Banerji, Joint Secretary to the Association of Employees' Unions.

Agent for the Company: Sri N. M. Das Gupta, Pleader.

By order No. 1881Lab., dated the 19th April 1950, the Government of West Bengal constituted a Tribunal of one Judge under sections 7 and 8 of the Industrial Disputes Act (Act XIV of 1947), and referred the said dispute to me for adjudication.

2. The reference was received on 21st April 1950. The Union filed its written claim on 13th May 1950. The Company filed its written objection on 3rd May 1950. The case was taken up for hearing after framing the issues on 19th June 1950. There was a talk of compromise which did not actually materialise. So the case was taken up for hearing on 22nd June 1950.

3. The issue stands as follows: Is Sri T. P. Gidwani entitled to reinstatement and/or compensation?

AWARD.

The facts which led up to the present dispute are quite simple. According to the Union Sri T. P. Gidwani was originally appointed at Kanpur by Messrs. J. K. Oil Mills on 13th May 1943. He was transferred to Calcutta in October 1944 and was deputed to serve under Messrs. J. K. Hosiery & Co., which was an associate and allied concern of J. K. Group in Calcutta. It was on 2nd September 1949 that Sri T. P. Gidwani got a notice of termination of his appointment at his office. The letter was dated 31st August 1949. At that time Sri T. P. Gidwani was drawing Rs. 320 per month as his wages. He approached the Company to no effect for reinstatement. So he referred the matter through the Association to the Labour Commissioner, West Bengal. Attempts at conciliation followed with no result. The matter has ultimately been referred to the Tribunal for adjudication. Sri T. P. Gidwani claimed his reinstatement, and failing that, compensation, bonus, gratuity, etc.

The Company contends that Sri T. P. Gidwani does not come within the definition of "Workman" as defined in the Industrial Disputes Act of 1947, and as such the Tribunal is not competent to decide this matter. Besides, it contends that Sri T. P. Gidwani's services were terminated at Kanpur in April 1948 that he was appointed by Messrs. J. K. Oil Mills of Kanpur and posted in Calcutta. As his services were not required by the Company which was suffering loss, he was given verbal notice in January 1949 and again in July 1949 to seek his job elsewhere. He was ultimately given a notice of discharge on 31st August 1949 terminating his appointment with effect from 1st September 1949. The Company admits that there was a clerical mistake in the said notice about the date.

The facts are not disputed during the trial. Regarding the jurisdiction of this Tribunal to go into this dispute I am of opinion that the Company's contention is not correct. Sri T. P. Gidwani, as it appears from the evidence, was a salesman of the mill. He was employed in outdoor work. As such, his job may be termed as "clerical", only of a superior status and he comes within the definition of "workman" as defined in the Industrial Disputes Act of 1947. That he was employed in an industry and also that his wages is without question. So the initial objection of the Company on the score of jurisdiction is overruled.

Regarding reinstatement of Sri T. P. Gidwani, the claim is not pressed. Even if it was pressed, I do not think it could be sustained, because the Company has abolished the post for financial reasons. Certainly every Company is free to manage its own affairs and it is within its inherent right to retrench a man if his service is no longer required. So the claim for reinstatement fails. Regarding the claim for bonus and gratuity, the claim was not seriously pressed during the trial. As a matter of fact, it was not also referred to in the argument of the agent of the employee. As the man was out of service, he could not press his claim for any bonus. Regarding gratuity, the employee was in the service of this particular mill only from April 1948. He may have rendered services to other mills under the same proprietor. But that does not entitle him to claim gratuity under this particular mill owned by Messrs. J. K. Hosiery Co., Ltd., unless he can show that there was continuity of service. He could not make out before me that there was a continuity of service right from 1943. So his claim for gratuity also fails. Certainly, the Company was not justified in serving the notice of retrenchment on the 2nd September 1949 terminating his services with effect from the expiry of the 31st August 1949. That there have been a mistake in the notice as the Company admits. His services were intended to be terminated with effect from 1st September 1949. But the employee is entitled to get compensation for one month from the date of notice, that is, from 1st September. It is next contended by his agent before me that the man was drawing a handsome salary and as he had no assets in Hyderabad where he has lost all his assets, the Tribunal must grant him further compensation. I allowed the parties full opportunities for a compromise, but what with this and what with that the compromise did not materialise. In the present financial position of the Company I am unable to grant more compensation than what the employee can legitimately claim, namely, one month's salary only for the month of September 1949. The employee in question had previous intimation of termination of his service. So he cannot say that the termination of his service sprang surprise upon him. In the circumstances, I do not award any further compensation than one month's salary only for the month of September 1949 assessed at Rs. 300. This payment must be made within two months from the date of publication of this award. That is all the relief that I award in the present case.

Calcutta Jute Manufacturing Co., Ltd., 93, Narkeldanga Main Road, Calcutta, and their workmen represented by the Narkeldanga Jute Workers' Union, 62, Narkeldanga Main Road, Calcutta, in connection with the case of Sri Kali Prosad Ambusth, a clerk.

JUDGE: SRI SAILES CHANDRA CHAKRAVARTI, Chairman of the Tribunal.

the Company: Sri S. C. Sen, Advocate, assisted by Sri N. Das Gupta, Pleader.

the Union: Sri P. K. Sanyal, Advocate.

Acting under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the Government of West Bengal, Department of Labour, by their order No. 2296Lab., dated the 8th May 1950, constituted with me a tribunal to enquire upon the industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Calcutta Jute Manufacturing Co., Ltd., 93, Narkeldanga Main Road, Calcutta, and their workmen represented by the Narkeldanga Jute Workers' Union, 62, Narkeldanga Main Road, Calcutta, in connection with the case of Sri Kali Prosad Ambusth.

The reference to me has been confined to the dispute in connection with the case of Sri Kali Prosad Ambusth and the specific reliefs prayed for are (1) reinstatement of the said workman and (2) pay and emoluments for the period of his non-employment resulting from the dismissal.

AWARD.

Sri Kali Prosad Ambusth, a clerk employed in the mill in the stores department, was dismissed on the 31st March 1950 on the charges of misconduct in abusing the Manager, leaving the place of work and threatened violence to the gate-keeper and, further, for inciting a strike.

The Union's case is that there were some outstanding disputes with the company and that Sri Ambusth, an Assistant Secretary, was functioning as Secretary of the Union at that time. The story is that on the 27th March 1950, at about 7-30 a.m., when Kali Prosad Ambusth was going to perform his duties after lunch, he found a rumour of workers having some disputes with the Manager. He asked one of the workers—Raghunath—what had happened. The Manager flew into a rage and abused him and said that nothing happened on that day as also on the following day. He said that when on 29th March 1950 Ambusth came to attend to his duty in the morning he found that a charge-sheet against him had been posted on the notice board and he was not allowed to go in. It is said that at 11-30 a.m. the said Kali Prosad Ambusth interviewed the Labour Commissioner for intervention. He said that thereafter at 4-30 p.m. the charge-sheet was made over to him and he showed cause on the 30th March. He said that on 31st March he was dismissed by the Manager without enquiry being made by the Manager.

The version of the Company is that on the morning of the 27th a complaint was made to the Manager that some outsiders had come to the gate. He went there and found that this was a fact. He expelled the persons and, while returning, found in presence of the Labour Officer a group of workers. It was found that a workman who had been on leave had been directed to appear on the expiry of his leave. It was found that he had a sore in his feet and could not do any work. Some workmen were demanding that as the disabled man had been brought on the basis of a letter from the Company he should be paid the cost of journey. The Manager was talking with them and it was about 6-45 a.m. when Ambusth came from his place of work in the store room in an agitated condition shouting that the Manager had allowed outside goondas to come in. He was hysteric and began shouting at the Manager for allowing the men to come and showing him fists and saying that he would see what sort of a Manager he was. It is further said that on seeing the time-keeper at a distance he cried that that badmash was responsible for introduction of strangers and should be assaulted outside the mill. At this some of the workers rushed towards him and the Manager and the Labour Officer intervened and slowly decoyed the whole people to the mill side and Ambusth to his place of work. On the afternoon of the 28th charges were framed against Ambusth and were sent to him entered in a peon book. Ambusth read the charge-sheet but refused to sign the peon book. The mill was closed at that time. The Manager directed the gate-keeper and the Labour Officer not to allow Ambusth to enter the mill on the following day. The charge-sheet was posted on the notice board and arrangements were made for the charge-sheet being made over to Ambusth on the following morning. On the following morning Ambusth came and saw the situation. He tried to enter the mill but was not allowed. He insisted on making the necessary entry in the peon book which was refused. He then shouted from outside the gate that as he was not allowed to enter the mill, the workers should not do any work. So after the commencement of the work the workers staged a strike. The Manager informed the police. Ambusth in the meantime went to the Labour Commissioner's office and the Assistant Labour Commissioner, Janab Q. Newaz, went there at about 3 p.m. along with Srijut Mukherjee, a Labour Officer of the I. J. M. A. As the time for Ambusth's submission of explanation was nearly ending, Janab Newaz induced the Manager to extend the time and requested Ambusth to accept the charge-sheet. Ambusth agreed to it and the members of the Works Committee and some leading workmen were called in wherein Ambusth was present. The situation was explained to them and they were asked to resume work. Ambusth enquired whether he would be allowed to work. It was said that he would not be allowed to work unless the Manager permitted. On this Ambusth and the workmen said that in such a case the strike would not be called off. At this stage the Assistant Labour Commissioner left the place and thereafter Ambusth submitted the explanation. Then the Manager considered the explanation and dismissed Ambusth.

There is no evidence of previous ill-treatment to Sri Ambusth. On the other hand, it appears that he was frequently granted leave and as he was regular, without any reduction of pay he was transferred to a post where seasonal absence did not impede work. The Works Committee was functioning with another office bearer of the Union as the Joint Secretary. Many of employees were office bearers of the Union and no one was so long shed. After this it is difficult to imagine why the Manager wanted to shift this particular clerk for nothing except for trade union activities.

On the other hand, it looks strange why a report of the entry of outsiders should upset Sri Ambusth to such an extent as he would burst into hysterics and direct his oral assaults to the Manager and the gate-keeper.

To think the internal affairs of the Union will help us to understand the matter better.

There was an informal and unregistered Union some time before, but the Union was formed and registered in December 1948. Sri Phani Ghosh was the President and Ram Sakti Samanta was the Secretary. Kali Prosad Ambusth was one of the Assistant Secretaries. There were Vice-President and other Assistant Secretaries.

Sri Phani Ghosh is a reputed trade unionist in the State. There is the T. U. C., the all-India organisation and under it is B. P. N. T. U. C., an organisation for the State of West Bengal. Under B. P. N. T. U. C. there are unions as also federations of unions. There is a federation of unions called the Jute Mill Workers' Union. Sri Phani Ghosh was also the Joint Secretary of the Jute Workers' Federation.

Internal troubles in the Union arose in the middle of 1949 when Ram Sakti Samanta, the Secretary, resigned. Samanta put forward the plea that he had to resign as he could not control Ambusth who acted in the way he liked. Samanta's resignation was not formally accepted but he stepped aside and Kali Prosad Ambusth became de facto Secretary. In a letter, dated the 11th November 1949, written by Sri Phani Ghosh from Switzerland to Kali Prosad Ambusth he stated that on account of Ram Babu's stepping aside the entire responsibility fell on him. He admonished Ambusth that he was leaning towards personal affairs from Union politics and asked him to devote his energies in strengthening his Union in the Jute Mill first. Phani Babu told him that he must not court too many leaders because the result of a course would be that no one would trust him.

There were some outstanding disputes with the Management. In the beginning of 1950 Sri Phani Ghosh, as the President of the Union and as Secretary of the Federation, took some steps for canalising the disputes in a particular way. This was communicated to Ambusth on 21st February 1950.

Ambusth did not like it and on 20th March 1950 wrote to Sri Phani Ghosh not to meddle with the affairs of the Union. Prior to this letter Sri Ambusth invited Sri Bijoy Singh Nahar to be the President in a meeting held on 18th March.

The matter, as it stood on the 20th March, was this. Some of the workers were with Ambusth and some with Phani Ghosh. A month before Phani Ghosh had made an arrangement for canalising the disputes in a particular way.

According to Ambusth, Phani Babu was unsteady and was drifting and therefore he brought in Bijoy Singh Nahar with the obvious object of replacement and in a meeting held by him on 18th demands contrary to Phani's plan were taken. P. W. 2, Raghunath, said that when Kali Babu came out with Jugol the former brought in Bijoy Singh Nahar. He further stated that Jugol was Kali Babu's enemy. P. W. 3, Bishen Rajbhor, said that Kali Babu tried to enter the Union but some workers resisted it but the Company allowed him to enter the factory to incite the workers to join Union. He made another interesting revelation. "Three or four months before the incident Brindaban, Madho, Jugol and Raj Kishore assaulted Babu outside the factory." After getting Bijoy Singh Nahar on the 15th Ambusth openly asked Phani Ghosh not to meddle with the work of Union without obtaining the consent of the office bearers. Ambusth who following was standing in revolt against the President. Jugol and others were trying to undermine Ambusth's hold on his followers. Ambusth's position laboured under the suspicion that the Management supported Jugol's cause. A new Executive Committee was formed on 6th April when Ambusth was ousted. Ambusth denied the meeting. On the eve of this election a certain amount of canvassing was necessary and must have been made especially when the workmen were divided. Jugol came on the morning of 27th and is now understandable why on hearing this report Ambusth became angry with any persons suspected to be responsible for allowing him to come and burst into hysterics.

Ambusth's version of the story becomes probable if we assume that the Manager wanted to have Phani Ghosh and Dr. S. C. Banerji in the Union and for this purpose was prepared to do anything. The Management was not to gain anything as these gentlemen were seasoned trade unionists and stood much above being corrupted.

When we compare the two versions, the version of the Company becomes probable while the story given by Ambusth appears to be improbable. I believe the Manager, Sri Jyotish Chandra, that Ambusth left his work at 6-45 a.m., used insulting words against him, showed him fists and threatened the gate-keeper.

Now let us pass over to the second phase. This part is relevant not only considering whether Ambusth is guilty of the charges as against him but also relevant for determining the amount of punishment. I have already found that Ambusth was guilty of the offences with which he had been charged. The charges were framed in the evening of 28th. The Manager says that he was being treated in that way by a clerk felt agitated and did not want to do anything till he calmed down. His further version is that he waited till the evening of 28th to see if there was any spontaneous expression of regret from Ambusth. It seems to me that he wanted to be very cautious as any action against Ambusth might lead to some trouble. A little before the mill was closed on the 28th the charge-sheet was sent to Ambusth entered in a peon book. Ambusth admits that a letter was taken to him but that he did not know what it was and that as the mill had already closed he asked the man to come on the following day. The Manager's version is that Ambusth tore the envelope and saw the contents and then refused to sign the peon book. Even if he did not go to that extent, Ambusth admitted that he saw the entry in the peon book. When confronted with the entry in the peon book which indicated that the letter contained his charge-sheet he turned back and said that he only saw his name and not the other entries. He forgot that he was telling the story to a Judge and not to a grand-mother. Though the Manager does not admit, I can understand why he selected that time for sending the letter. It was the closing time of the mill. The Manager probably apprehended some demonstration by Ambusth and he wanted to avoid it by delivering the letter at that time. I think Ambusth wanted just contrary to what the Manager desired.

On the morning of the following day Ambusth came to the gate. He was not allowed to enter the mill, nor was he allowed to sign the Hazira book. Ambusth said that when he was not allowed to enter he went outside the gate and after some time heard that there was a strike in the mill. P. W.

Raghunath, said that on hearing that their Secretary Kali Babu was not allowed to work they spontaneously stopped work. P. W. 3, Bisen Rajbhor, said "Kali Babu told us that he was dealt with by the Manager in that way that other Babus would also be dealt with in the same way and that if we wanted to work we could work". It is thus clear that Kali Prosad Ambusth, or he was refused entry, said some thing. Though he and Raghunath said it, the other witness admitted that he said some thing. Though what P. W. 3 said does not amount to incitement to a strike, it goes perilously near suggesting some action. The Manager says that he heard Ambusth saying that as he was not being allowed to enter the mill the workers should stop the work of the mill. The gate Babu—Dinanath Singha, P. W. 4, also corroborates what the Manager says. I have not the least doubt that the Manager is telling the truth and that Sri Ambusth incited the workers to stop work to compel the Management to allow him to enter the mill.

The next point relevant is the arrival of Janab Q. Newaz, the Assistant Labour Commissioner. He went there at 3 p.m. He says that he made the Manager agree to extend the time for submission of explanation and Ambusth at first agreed not to come to the mill till he was asked to do so. The Manager then called in the members of the Works Committee and some other workmen. The terms were explained to them. These included resumption of work from 30th March 1950. The workmen were told that they would not get any wages for the 29th. Janab Newaz further added that at this time the workmen and Sri Ambusth said that unless the latter was allowed to join on 30th March 1950, they would not resume work". This clearly shows what Sri Ambusth had in the strike. After Janab Newaz had left the place Ambusth accepted the charge-sheet.

It is thus clear that Ambusth was guilty of misconduct, and when a charge-sheet was framed against him he did not accept it but created troubles and brought about a situation which was beyond all comprehension. In view of his subsequent conduct, the punishment, viz., dismissal, appears to be only fair and reasonable.

The learned advocate appearing for the Union urged that there was no enquiry after Ambusth submitted his explanation. The Company has got a prescribed form for charge-sheet. There is in it a column with the heading "Supervisor's comments". The next column is for "Labour Officer's comments". The Manager, on receipt of the explanation sent the charge-sheet with his comments by the Officer-in-charge of Stores and for the Labour Officer's comments. He did not send to them Ambusth's explanation. If a full-fledged enquiry had been necessary, I should have considered this as nothing. But the real point is that in this case no enquiry was needed. The offences were committed in presence of the Manager, the person who is the final authority for inflicting punishment or dismissal. The object of an enquiry is to ascertain true facts. When facts were known to him it was unnecessary for the Manager to send the papers to the two officers for their comments. The Manager's business is to run the mill and not perhaps to understand all its implications correctly. In my opinion, there is no substance in this contention.

Another point raised is that the Manager, as the complainant, had delegated to himself the duty of a Judge. It was contended that this was against the fundamental canon of administration of justice and contrary to the provisions of the award of the Jute Textile Tribunal. The Manager is the head of the mill and has got powers of appointment and dismissal. A departmental enquiry is not a judicial trial. Administrative enquiries become very satisfactory when the real facts are known to the person who deals with the matter. This was not a regular trial or regular judicial trial.

for any offence. Here the Manager could charge an employee for misconduct in his presence and he was quite competent to deal with it. There is, in my opinion, nothing in the award of the Jute Textile Tribunal contrary to this.

This is no case of victimisation. I must once more say that trade unionism is no passport to indiscipline. There might have been party party conflicts. Even if Ambusth suspected that the Manager gave some advantage to his rival party, yet he should have been disciplined. It was unpardonable for him to show his fists to the Manager and say that he would see what sort of Manager he was.

All the claims of the Union are refused.

AWARD.

By Government of West Bengal, Department of Labour, order No. 5887Lab., dated the 22nd November 1949, this industrial dispute between the Champdany Jute Mill, Baidyabati, Hooghly, and their clerical staff represented by the Champdany Jute Mill Employees' Union, Baidyabati, Hooghly, over the question of revision of grades and scales of the clerical staff on a fair and equitable basis, has been referred to me as Industrial Tribunal for adjudication. The parties submitted their written statements in due course, and further statements in elucidation of the points raised by both sides in course of the discussion were received. As the order of reference indicates the only point in dispute, which forms the subject matter of the present adjudication, is the question of revision of grades and scales of the members of the clerical staff on a fair and equitable basis.

appears that this matter engaged the attention of the Union as well as the Company even before the Jute Textile Industry Tribunal was constituted. Paragraph 6(7) on pages 29 and 30 of the Jute Textile Industry Tribunal's award as published by Government of West Bengal, order 3443Lab., dated the 20th September 1948, that Tribunal fixed only two scales for the lower grade clerks, viz., Grade I (Rs. 70—4—130), and Grade II (Rs. 55—3—85). The Tribunal noticed that the scales of wages applicable to higher or special grade clerks varied very widely from mill to mill, and in view of the widely different conditions prevailing in the different establishments, it did not find it practicable to fix definite time scales for the higher or special grade clerks, and it came to the conclusion that the question of basic wages and grades for higher or special grade clerks should be left to the discretion of the individual employers in different jute mills. In the present proceedings before me the propriety of fixing the above mentioned Grade I and Grade II for the lower grade clerks is not disputed. It is however contended by the Union that the discretion left to the employer in this particular mill for determining the scales applicable to individual clerks has not been correctly and equitably exercised even in respect of the two grades applicable to lower grade clerks. It is further contended that the grades applicable at present to those clerks who ought to be classified as higher or special clerks are not fair and equitable, and the higher or special grades should be revised on a proper basis. The demands put forward by the Union in the present dispute in respect of this particular mill are two-fold, viz., (1) that the higher or special scales should now be determined by the Tribunal, and (2) that the Tribunal should evaluate all the jobs held by both higher or special grade clerks and lower grade clerks, and each job should correspond to a particular grade, and a person holding a particular job should be entitled to the corresponding grade.

2 It has been contended on behalf of the Union that the grades should be fixed in accordance with the terms laid down by the Mercantile Firms Tribunal for the clerical staff of the office of the Managing Agents of the Mill under consideration. I am unable to accept this contention as sound and fair, as it must be appreciated that there is a good deal of distinction between the clerical staff employed in the factory and office or other places pertaining to a jute mill and that employed in the mercantile office of the Managing Agents in the city of Calcutta. The conditions of employment are apparently different and the nature of the duties performed is also be different from various points of view. I come to the conclusion that the case of the clerical staff attached to a jute mill must be considered quite independently of the city office of the Managing Agents. In the present proceedings both sides have fully accepted the two grades for lower grade clerks laid down in the award of the Jute Textile Industry Tribunal, but they have put forward divergent views about the grades to be applied to the higher or special grade clerks. I should note here in passing that the Jute Textile Industry Tribunal, of which I happened to be the Chairman, intended to convey the same idea by the use of the words "higher" and "special". The Union has urged that apart from the two lower grades already determined by the Jute Textile Industry Tribunal there should be two higher grades, viz., Rs. 150—10—250, and Rs. 110—5—170, and also a special grade above the higher grades, such special grade being left to the discretion of the management. The Company, on the other hand, has put forward before me a scheme of higher or special grades, apart from the ordinary grades, which is said to have been framed on the basis of the recommendations of a technical sub-committee constituted by the Indian Jute Mills Association. The Company's scheme regarding higher or special grades is that there should be five grades, viz., Rs. 190—5—250,

Rs. 130—5—190, Rs. 110—5—170, Rs. 100—5—160 and Rs. 90—5—150. The Union has contended that there should not be too many higher grades. On examining the nature of the different jobs being performed in the mill I have got the impression that while the number of higher grades need not be too many, it should not be too few, in view of the various types of work involved in the running of a jute mill. On giving careful consideration to the arguments advanced on both sides, I have come to the conclusion that the grades applicable to the clerical staff in the Mill under consideration should be the following:—

Higher or Special grades.

S.A. Rs. 190—10—260.

S.B. Rs. 130—6—190.

S.C. Rs. 110—5—170.

S.D. Rs. 90—5—150.

Lower grades.

I—Rs. 70—4—130.

II—Rs. 55—3—85.

3. The next question is to determine a grade for each job. Both parties were asked to submit a list of the designations held by the existing clerks and the duties performed by each of them, and such lists were submitted by both. As regards the description of the duties performed by each clerk, it was agreed during the discussion that there was no substantial difference between the versions submitted by the two parties. I find, however, that the description of duties as given in the list submitted by the Company is more concise and to the point and for our present purposes I have preferred to adopt the descriptions given by the Company. Both parties have submitted a detailed list of the individual clerks holding the different jobs together with their respective suggestions as regards the grades of basic wages which they consider to be applicable to the respective jobs. I have carefully considered the nature of the jobs performed in the light of the materials placed before me and the suggestions of both sides regarding the grades and have come to my own conclusions which I consider to be fair and equitable. It is noticeable that in some cases the suggestions of the two parties are identical, whereas in most cases they have differed, sometimes widely. In setting forth my conclusions regarding evaluation of the different jobs by way of attaching a particular grade of basic wages to each job, I feel that the designation alone is not adequate for giving a full and correct picture of the job, and it is necessary to give a description of the duties involved in each case. It also seems to me that to ensure a correct identification of the job it will be necessary for our present purposes to mention the name of the present holder of the job. The name of the clerical worker concerned is being mentioned in the chart which I am going to set forth below, not for conveying the idea that the grade mentioned against him necessarily relates to him, but the idea that the grade mentioned attaches to the job, and the name of the present holder of the job is mentioned for the purpose of ensuring a proper identification of the job. The manner in which the different jobs have been evaluated will appear from the chart set forth below, wherein, apart from the names of the 78 clerical employees holding 78 different jobs, the present designation and duties attaching to each job have been set forth, the existing grade as applied by the Company with effect from 1st January 1949 is also shown and the revised grade as determined by the Tribunal, except in a few cases of no change, is also shown in the last column. I direct that the grades set forth in paragraph 2 above be adopted, and they be applied to the different jobs in the Mill under consideration in accordance with the chart set forth below, with effect from 1st January 1950. The principle be observed when a clerical employee on an existing lower grade of wages brought on to the corresponding revised grade shall be the following. His initial wages should be fixed at the stage in the new grade which is equal to or next above the scale of wages he is drawing at present, and to this should be added one increment in the new grade. The new scale of wages thus obtained should take effect from 1st January 1950, as presumably the question of increment has been kept in abeyance during the pendency of the present proceedings since November 1949. I suggest, under the particular circumstances, that the period of operation of this award may be one year with effect from the 1st January 1950. The chart referred to above is set forth below:—

ANNEXURE.

In the matter of the industrial dispute between the Britannia Building and Iron Company, Ltd., 287, Grand Trunk Road, Howrah, and their workmen in connection with the case of Sri Ketaki Mohan Ghose, 15, Dasarathi De Lane, Sibpur, Howrah.

PRESENT:

SRI SAILES CHANDRA CHAKRAVARTI, Chairman of the Tribunal

For the Company:—Sri M. M. Kalanee, Secretary of the Managing Agents of the Company.

For the Union:—Sri Jiten Banerjee, Joint Secretary, Association of Employees' Unions.

Acting under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the Government of West Bengal, Department of Labour, by their order No. 2941Lab., dated the 3rd June 1950, referred to me for adjudication the industrial dispute existing between the Britannia Building and Iron Company, Ltd., 287, Grand Trunk Road, Howrah, and their workmen in connection with the case of Sri Ketaki Mohan Ghose, 15, Dasarathi De Lane, Sibpur, Howrah.

The only point for consideration in this case is the reinstatement of Sri Ketaki Mohan Ghose or other reliefs to be granted to him.

AWARD.

I have heard both parties. I have also seen Sri Ketaki Mohan Ghose. He is an old gentleman. He entered service under this Company for the first time in July 1943. I consider that this is not a case for reinstatement but that he should be given some compensatory allowance.

I award that Sri Ketaki Mohan Ghose shall get his contribution as the employers' contribution to the Provident Fund; in addition he will get basic salary for two months as compensatory allowance.

ANNEXURE.

the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. India Reconstruction Corporation, Ltd., 21A, Gour Laha Street, Calcutta, and their employees represented by India Reconstruction Corporation Mazdoor Panchayet of 121/2D, Surendra Nath Banerji Road, Calcutta.

PRESENT: SRI G. PALIT, District Judge, Industrial Tribunal.

sent for the Company: Sri Thakur Prosad Sarma, Manager and Sri R. N. Mukherji, an officer of the Company.

sent for the Union: Sri Jagannath Pandey, Secretary of the aforesaid Panchayet.

1 By an order No. 1759Lab., dated the 11th April 1950, the Government of West Bengal constituted a Tribunal of one Judge under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act (Act XIV of 1947) and referred the said dispute to me for adjudication.

2 The reference was received on 15th April 1950. The Union filed its written statement on 6th May 1950. The Company filed its written objection on 12th May 1950. The case was taken up for hearing on 5th June 1950. The hearing continued from day to day up to 8th June 1950 when it concluded. The issues were contained in the schedule of the order of reference. The issues stand as follows:—

ISSUES.

(1) What should be the total remuneration of the two following skilled employees who are getting Rs. 60?

(a) Sri Tincowri Das.

(b) Sri Priya Nath Chakravorty.

(2) Whether the employer is justified in dismissing the following three employees on the ground of alleged misconduct?

(a) Sri Chaturbhuj Singh.

(b) Sri Tarak Nath Das.

(c) Sri Chittaranjan Paul.

If not, whether the said three employees are entitled to reinstatement and/or compensation?

2. Before I actually discuss and record my findings about the issue referred to above, I think, it will be worth while to give a brief outline of the present dispute.

The Company was started three years back in Calcutta for the manufacture of electric fans and allied products. Its Head Office was at Kanpur where various kinds of plastic products were also manufactured. It is alleged by the Union that in 1948 the workers resorted to a strike as a result of which a flat rate dearness allowance of 8 annas per day was allowed by the Company. But this hardly succeeded in meeting the aspirations of the workers. They formed themselves into a Union known as the Indian Reconstruction Corporation Mazdoor Panchayet in February 1949 and it was registered in March 1949. On 18th April 1949 the Union placed its charter of demands before the Company. On 4th July 1949 an agreement was entered into between the Union and the Company on the intervention of Sri B. K. Roy, Labour Officer. Under that agreement, both the parties undertook to fully implement the terms of the award of the Engineering Tribunal with effect from the 1st July 1949. But in spite of repeated demands by the Union, the Company is said to have not implemented the said award. On the top of this, the Company locked out Sri Chaturbhaj Singh on 6th December 1949 without giving any reason whatsoever. The Company also dismissed Sri Tarak Nath Das and Chittaranjan Paul on 15th December 1949 summarily for alleged misconduct. Thereafter, some unsuccessful correspondence was exchanged between the Company and the Union, and the intervention of the Labour Directorate was sought for the Union. Attempts at conciliation were made but to no effect. The dispute has been referred to the Tribunal for adjudication.

The Company admits that it granted dearness allowance on a flat rate of 8 annas per day but not, as the result of the strike. From 1st April 1949 the Company also granted general increment of pay to the workers. The Company admits the agreement to implement the award of the Engineering Tribunal. It granted increased rates of pay in pursuance of the award, viz., Rs. 2-2 per day for the unskilled and Rs. 2-5 per day for the semi-skilled workers. The Company pleads financial inability to pay extra dearness allowance to the skilled workers. Regarding the discharge of the three workers, the Company alleges that they were dismissed for misconduct and so it resists the claim for reinstatement or compensation. The Company is prepared to pay the wages till the day of dismissal of these workers and as a matter of fact, offered the same.

Issue No. 1.

Several things are admitted in the case. The Company does not deny that Sri Tincowri Das and Sri Priya Nath Chakravorty have earned amounts amounting to Rs. 60 per month. The Company also admits that there was an agreement between the Union and itself as per Exhibit 1. Under the award of the Engineering Tribunal was undertaken to be implemented for one year with effect from the 1st July 1949. The Company also admits that these two workers can be classed as skilled workers as per Exhibit 1. But the Union contends that these two workers being admittedly skilled workers, are entitled to a separate dearness allowance of Rs. 35 per month under the award of the Engineering Tribunal. In support of their contention the Union relies on an opinion expressed by Sri P. R. Mukherjee and Sri P. K. Sarkar, two Judges of the Engineering Tribunal, on the reference made by the Labour Commissioner as per order No. 946L dated 3rd March 1949. The learned Judges are said to have expressed their opinion, by way of clarification of the award, that where the wage of skilled workers are a consolidated one, they should get extra dearness allowance. The employer cannot avoid its payment by merely splitting up consolidated pay into basic pay and dearness allowance. The Company, on the other hand, contends that the learned Judges, sitting in the Tribunal, did not fix any minimum pay for the skilled workers. They also did not fix dearness allowance for such workers. The Company refers to the opinion expressed by Sri K. K. Mitra, Assistant Labour Commissioner. He is said to have expressed an opinion that no prosecution would lie with reference to skilled workers for non-implementation of the award of the Engineering Tribunal. I must say that the Company and the Union seem to be labouring under a mistaken impression about the implication of the award of the Engineering Tribunal and also in respect of the opinion expressed by the learned Judges Sri P. R. Mukherji and Sri P. K. Sarkar in the letter of Texmaco's letter, dated 19th August 1948. In the case before me it is an admitted position of both parties that dearness allowance was granted by the Company to the extent of annas 8 per day on a flat scale in 1948. So it is abundantly clear that Rs. 13 per month, taking a month of 26 days, so far as the workers are concerned, must have been included in the earnings or pay that was given to the workers. So the Union's claim for extra dearness allowance of Rs. 25 or Rs. 35 under the award of the Engineering Tribunal cannot be sustained. If it succeeds it may succeed partially. Here I am required to find how much of the pay represents wages and how much represents dearness allowance. From the Company's statement it is clear that though it raised the basic pay from time to time, it did not grant any more dearness allowance than 8 annas per

The workers' month being of 26 days, Rs. 13 must be taken to have represented the extent of dearness allowance that was given. That being the position, these two workers, namely, Sri Tincowri Das and Sri Priya Nath Chakravorty, whose earnings per month came up to Rs. 60 admittedly, Rs. 47 as basic wages and Rs. 13 as dearness allowance per month. Under the award of the Engineering Tribunal all workers, irrespective of their categories of unskilled, semi-skilled, skilled and highly skilled, should be entitled to get Rs. 25 per month on a pay range reaching up to Rs. 50 per month. I do not accept the Company's contention that dearness allowance was denied to the skilled workers. I quote from page 564 of the Calcutta Gazette, Extraordinary, dated 3rd July 1948, Part I, where this award finds mention. The passage runs thus:—

"This scale of dearness allowance will apply to all workers, viz., factory workmen, clerical staff, supervisory staff and subordinate staff."

Skilled workmen must necessarily be included in the words "factory workmen" used above. So these two workers in question are entitled to get Rs. 12 more per month as dearness allowance. Financial inability cannot be pleaded by the Company in face of the agreement as per Exhibit I. So their earnings per month would be Rs. 60 plus Rs. 12, i.e., Rs. 72 per month for 26 working days provided they work on all the days. It is not clear from Texmaco's case, dearness allowance was admitted to have been included in the consolidated pay as here. If that was not so, unlike here, the opinion of the Judges, Sri P. R. Mukherji and Sri P. K. Sarkar, would be out of place. Similarly, the opinion expressed by Sri K. K. Mitra is not relevant, because prosecution for non-implementation of the award of the Engineering Tribunal may not have been advised as inexpedient. That can never amount to saying that the award of the Engineering Tribunal was implemented in fact, with reference to skilled workers in the present case. Thus the claim of the Union succeeds only partially. So, in conclusion, these two workers, Sri Tincowri Das and Sri Priya Nath Chakravorty would get Rs. 12 per month more from 1st July 1949, the date of the operation of the agreement, as per Exhibit I, up to the date of the award. The Company will make this payment of arrears in three monthly instalments from the date of the publication of the award. The workers will have their earnings at this rate henceforth during the operation of this award.

Issue No. 2.

I take up the cases of these three discharged workers, one after another. They are said to have been discharged on the ground of alleged misconduct summarily without notice and without their being supplied with any written charge-sheet. They were apparently allowed no opportunity to explain their conduct. The Union contends that they are entitled to be reinstated or would get compensation. The Company resists the claim.

(a) Regarding Chaturbhuj Singh, he appears to have been discharged on 6th December 1949. The Company says that he was guilty of betraying the trade-secrets of the Company and also for suppressing the fact that his brother Bhubaneshwar, who was a gate-keeper of the Company in the godown at Grey Street, was guilty of dereliction of duty. This Bhubaneshwar was said to have been a whole-time employee, but he worked part-time elsewhere. His brother Chaturbhuj Singh did not inform the Company of this. It will appear from Exhibit 10, dated 27th December 1949, which purports to be a letter sent by the Company's Manager to the Labour Commissioner by way of explanation for Chaturbhuj Singh's dismissal that Chaturbhuj Singh was accused of betraying the secrets only and nothing else. So it is clear that to accuse him of screening his brother Bhubaneshwar is nothing more than an after-thought on the part of the Company only to justify the dismissal of Chaturbhuj Singh. Chaturbhuj Singh is said to have been discharged on 6th December 1949. But his certificate (Exhibit 15), purported to have been granted by Sri S. N. Chatterji, Factory Manager, on the following date, shows that Chaturbhuj Singh was looked upon as a very hard-working, intelligent and ardent worker. It is said that this certificate was obtained under a false representation of Chaturbhuj Singh that he was having a better job elsewhere. That may or may not be true but it shows unmistakably that on the very next day this man was discharged for betraying secrets and for misconduct, the Manager speaks of his qualities in very glowing terms. Not only that, this Chaturbhuj Singh had also other brilliant testimonials about his past conduct from the General Manager from time to time. So I have no hesitation in discarding the allegation of misconduct laid by the Company at the door of this worker who had a sparkling and unblemished record of service. Now the question is why should the Company then discharge this worker? The Union has given the answer. That this man was the Assistant Secretary of the Mazdoor Panchayet and that was the cause which underlay his dismissal. The Union has proved beyond doubt that Chaturbhuj Singh was the Assistant Secretary of the Panchayet and also an active member of the same. The Company makes no secret of its displeasure for the activities of the Union even in its written statement before this Tribunal. To victimise an active member of the Panchayet and thereby to weaken its power, seems to be a manifest motive of the Company to discharge Chaturbhuj Singh. So this is an instance of clear unfair labour practice. I hold that Chaturbhuj Singh is entitled to reinstatement. He will have half pay calculated on the earnings of November 1949 from 6th December 1949 up to the date of reinstatement. He must be reinstated in his previous post, if that post is still vacant or in a corresponding post with equivalent pay and prospect. He must turn up for appointment within one month of the publication of this award. If he does not, then his claim for reinstatement must fail but he will be entitled to compensation on the basis of half pay during the ervening period, I mean, from the date of his discharge and the date of award. The payment must be made by the Company in three equal monthly instalments, the first starting from within a month of the publication of this award. So far about Chaturbhuj Singh.

(b) and (c) Sri Tarak Nath Das and Sri Chittaranjan Paul were discharged on the same date, i.e., on 15th December 1949 on the ground of alleged misconduct. They are said to have been involved in an obscene and ugly affair while on duty. They are also said to have been guilty of committing breaches of discipline and acts of rowdyism in the factory. Chittaranjan is said to have been responsible for the strike in 1948. He is also said to have assaulted the Darwan and also to have flung paint in the face of a co-worker. Tarak Nath Das started a case against the Manager for sections 323 and 504, I.P.C., after his discharge in the Presidency Magistrate's Court. The case was quashed on 4th April 1950. The Union on the other hand says that Sri Chittaranjan was a member of the executive of the Union and Sri Tarak Nath Das acted as the auditor of the Union and such, they are being victimised by the Company just to wreck the Union. I again refer to the letter written by the Manager of the Company Sri B. K. Roy, Labour Officer, on 27th December 1949 by way of explanation why these workers were discharged (vide Exhibit 10). This was shortly after the discharge. In that letter I do not see that the obscene and ugly affair now levelled against Sri Tarak Nath Das and Sri Chittaranjan Paul did find mention. So it is clearly an after-thought to mention this fact in subsequent letters and in the written statement of the Company. Exhibit 10 these workers, namely, Sri Tarak Nath Das and Sri Chittaranjan Paul were accused of merely making scenes and rowdyism in the factory. So I discard the charge of committing obscene acts on the part of these workers. The next point to be decided is whether these workers were discharged, because of unsatisfactory conduct or because of their Trade Union activities. Of course, I find from the evidence that these two workers have incurred displeasure and annoyance of the Company, because they took part in parleys on behalf of the Union before the Assistant Labour Commissioner. They were also attached to the Union, if not active members thereof. The Union contends that they should have been supplied with written charge-sheets and should have been granted opportunity to explain their conduct as laid down in the award of the Engineering Tribunal. There is some force in this contention. The said award was binding on the Company by virtue of the agreement contained in Exhibit 1. So written charge-sheet and an opportunity to explain their conduct should have been given to these workers before their discharge. They could have been suspended. They have not been given any written notice terminating their employment. They are said to have been verbally discharged on 15th December 1949. On the evidence I find that though the Company was not absolutely justified in dismissing these employees in the summary manner, cannot be said with certainty that these men were discharged because of their participation in Union activities. They had hardly an approved record to their credit. The two certificates which were given by the Manager subsequent to their discharge, though may go to the length of acquitting them of obscene and ugly talks, are more or less formal. They are not sufficient to displace the allegations made by the Company against the workers on the score of indiscipline, etc. So it is not a case of unfair labour practice and these two workers are not entitled to reinstatement. But they are certainly entitled to a notice of one month from 15th December 1949 and one month's wages in lieu of notice. As they were not given any notice, I award that Sri Tarak Nath Das and Sri Chittaranjan Paul would get wages for one month from 15th December 1949. This payment must be made in one instalment within one month of the publication of this award.

They must also get their wages for the period up to 15th December, if not already paid. I do not grant any further compensation to these two workers. So, while the claim for reinstatement stands disallowed in respect of these two workers, they are allowed compensation for one month on the basis of their earnings of November 1949 with effect from 15th December 1949. The issue is thus awarded.

BY ORDER SRI S. N. MODAK, I.C.S. (RETD.), Chairman, Industrial Tribunal, West Bengal.

For the Company: Sri S. Choudhury, Counsel, Sri S. C. Sen, Advocate, Sri J. K. Ghosh, Pleader, Mr. D. L. Edwards, Manager, Dr. V. S. Rostagi, Labour Adviser and Sri K. N. Mukherji, Labour Officer.

AWARD.

By Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 6372Lab., dated the 14th December 1949, this industrial dispute between Messrs. Oriental Gas Company, Limited, 12A, Park Street, Calcutta, and their workmen represented by Oriental Gas Karmachary Sangha, 139, Narikeldanga Main Road, Calcutta, regarding certain matters specified in the schedule was referred for adjudication to Sri P. K. Sarkar, District Judge, an industrial tribunal. Subsequently, the services of Sri P. K. Sarkar being no longer available, the industrial dispute was referred for adjudication to me by Government of West Bengal, Department of Labour, order No. 530Lab., dated the 2nd February 1950. The issues specified in the schedule appended to the order of reference are set forth below:—

- (1) Number of men to be employed in the Retort House.
- (2) Hours of work for the Wagon Department.
- (3) Retention of Raj Mangal Singh and Shew Kumar Missir in the Company's service.

Written statements of both sides were received and before the hearing actually commenced I inspected the factory. The lawyers of both sides were then heard in respect of issues Nos. 1 and 2. As regards issue No. 3 the attention of the tribunal was drawn to an agreement, dated the 24th

October 1949, between the parties, by virtue of which an enquiry was held by Mr. Newaz, Assistant Labour Commissioner. It appears in Mr. Newaz's report, dated the 25th October 1949, that the proposed enquiry was started by him on 24th October 1949 but could not be completed owing to the tense situation prevailing in the factory at that time. Mr. Newaz was requested by this tribunal to hold the enquiry afresh at a suitable place or places convenient to him and to the parties and send his report. Mr. Newaz held further enquiry into the matter of issue No. 3 but reported that he was unable to conclude the enquiry. This tribunal then requested Mr. Newaz to conclude his enquiry and send a complete report. Meanwhile the parties reached a settlement in respect of all the issues with which the tribunal is concerned as well as other issues which are said to be pending before another tribunal. On 4th July 1950 the parties filed before me a signed petition of settlement which is reproduced below:—

NOTIFICATIONS.

No. L.S.-G-2F-47/50.—28th July 1950.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 4 of the West Bengal Fire Service Act, 1950 (West Bengal Act XVIII of 1950), the Governor is pleased to make the following order for regulating and controlling the powers, duties and functions of the Director, West Bengal Fire Service:—

Order.

1. The administration of the Fire Services throughout the areas where the Act is in force shall vest in the Director of Fire Services.

2. The Director shall be directly responsible to the State Government for the control and management of the fire fighting forces and appliances. He shall generally advise Government on all matters relating to fire fighting, including the advice on licensing of manufacture or storage of commodities under the Act.

3. The Director is authorised to issue, without reference to Government, standing or general orders, either on matters of routine or to amplify or explain previous orders, but shall not issue a standing order which deals with a point of law without previous reference to Government.

4. The Director shall be responsible for maintaining the strictest discipline and the highest possible standard of efficiency in the fire fighting forces under him. He shall ensure this by making frequent inspections and by keeping in close touch with the Divisional Officers and the Station Officers.

5. The Director is authorised to make such disposition of the staff, engines and appliances for the fire stations as may seem to him expedient.

6. The Director shall, subject to such general directions as Government may give in this behalf, appoint the clerical and operational staff up to and including the rank of the Station Officers in the Fire Services and shall also take such disciplinary action against them as is considered necessary by him in accordance with the relevant rules on the subject.

7. The Director shall sanction payment of ordinary service pensions or gratuities to members of the Fire Services but not wound and other extraordinary pensions or gratuities. According to the proviso to the said sub-section (3) of section 24, the next general election cannot however be held after the year 1950-51 unless the term of office of the present Commissioners of the said municipality is extended beyond the 1st February 1952.

and the date or dates so fixed shall be published—

- (a) in the case referred to in clause (a) in the union, and
- (a) in the case referred to in clause (b) in each ward or in the respective wards, as the case may be,

12. Any candidate may withdraw his candidature by a notice in writing bearing his own signature or thumb impression if he is unable to sign his name, and be sent to the Election Officer at least ten days before the date for the election. The candidate who has withdrawn his candidature, shall not be allowed to cancel his withdrawal or to be re-nominated as a candidate for the same election.

The manner of holding elections.

13. If the number of qualified candidates, after withdrawal of candidature, if any, under rule 12, does not exceed the number of vacancies, the Election Officer shall at once declare such candidates to be duly elected.

14. If there be—

(a) no candidate, or

(b) if the number of candidates is less than the number of vacancies, the election shall be held to have failed—

(i) in case (a), in respect of the vacancy or vacancies, or

(ii) in case (b), in respect of the vacancy or vacancies not filled up by the declaration under rule 13.

15. If the number of candidates exceeds the number of vacancies, a list showing, ward by ward, the names of candidates who are duly qualified shall be published in each ward in a conspicuous place and by beat of drum at least one week before the date fixed for election.

16. The election shall be held on the date or dates fixed under rule 4 and at such place or places within the union as may be fixed by the Election Officer. The place or places at which and the hours between which the voters will attend for the purpose of giving their votes shall be notified within the union by the publication of notices and by beat of drum at the same time as the list of candidates is published under rule 15.

17. The elections for the different wards in the union shall be held, either in succession or simultaneously, and the Election Officer or such other person or persons, not being themselves candidates, deputed by the District Magistrate for the purpose, shall preside at such elections.

18. Immediately before proceedings for the election for each ward are commenced, the Presiding Officer shall explain to such voters as may be present the manner in which they shall record the votes and may give such other instructions as he may deem necessary. He shall then read out the list of candidates and state the number of vacancies for such ward.

19. The Presiding Officer shall then proceed to take a poll for each candidate, recording the number of votes given for each candidate with his own hand.

20. The votes of all duly registered voters who are present between the hours mentioned in the notice within the building or enclosure in which the election is held shall be recorded. No voter shall be admitted within the building or enclosure after the expiry of the period mentioned in the notice.

21. A voter shall be entitled to vote for the ward for which he is registered as a voter.

22. Each voter shall be entitled to vote for as many candidates as there are vacancies but shall not give more than one vote for any candidate.

23. All persons wishing to vote must be present at the election. No vote by proxy or in writing shall be received.

24. No objection to a voter shall be entertained except on the ground that he is not the person under whose name as entered in the voters' register he claims to vote. Such objections shall be summarily decided by the Presiding Officer, whose decision shall be final.

25. The Presiding Officer shall then and there declare such candidates as have the largest number of votes to be duly elected. In the case of an equal number of votes being recorded in favour of two or more candidates, all of whom cannot be returned, selection shall be made from such candidates by lot, in such manner as the Presiding Officer may deem fit. The candidate thus selected shall be declared to be duly returned.

26. In the event of any candidate being elected for more than one ward, he shall, within five days from the date of election, declare which ward he will represent; and if he fails to make such declaration the Election Officer shall forthwith declare the ward which such candidate shall represent, and in either case such candidate shall be held to be elected in the ward in respect of which either of such declaration has been made, and in every other ward from which the said candidate has been returned, the result of the election shall be determined as if no votes had been recorded for him.

Provided that, if there is a candidate or candidates who have not been declared elected but for whom votes have been recorded, such candidate or the candidates having the largest number of votes shall be declared to be duly elected to fill the vacancy thus caused, and if there is no candidate for whom votes have been recorded to fill the vacancy thus caused, the elections shall be held to have failed in respect of that vacancy.

27. If the number of candidates exceeds the number of vacancies, a candidate shall be declared to be duly elected unless 10 per cent. of the registered voters have appeared and recorded their votes; if not, the election shall be held to have failed.

28. A second election under sub-section (4) of section 6 of the Act shall begin at the stage from which the original election failed, e.g., if the election failed at the time of polling, a fresh poll shall be held or if the election failed for want of candidates, fresh nominations shall be called for. If the second election is held in the year in which the original election was held, the register of voters which would have been used for the original election if the original election had not failed shall be used for such second election. If, however, the second election be held in a year subsequent to the year in which the original election was held a fresh register of voters shall be prepared for such election in accordance with rules 5 to 9. If a vacancy or vacancies be not filled at such second election, the Election Officer shall at once report the fact to the District Magistrate.

29. The list of duly returned candidates shall be forwarded by the Election Officer to the District Magistrate within a week after the election.

Appointments of members.

30. As soon as possible after the receipt of the list of elected members referred to in rule 29 the District Magistrate shall appoint members, if any, under sub-section (4) of section 6 of the Act.

Publication of the names of members.

31. The District Magistrate shall forward a list of duly elected members or appointed members, if any, to the Superintendent of the West Bengal Government Press for publication in the Calcutta Gazette.

Election of President.

32. Within one month after the names of the members have been notified in the Calcutta Gazette, the District Magistrate shall send a copy of the notification to the Circle Officer or such other person (not being one of the members) as the said Magistrate may select, with an order directing him to convene a meeting of the members for the purpose of electing a President among them, within one month from the date of such order:

Provided that—

- (i) The District Magistrate may in writing delegate his power under this rule to the Subdivisional Magistrate.
 - (ii) The District Magistrate or the Subdivisional Magistrate, as the case may be, may, for any special reason to be recorded by him in writing, extend the period of one month relating to the election of President.
 - (iii) If a meeting convened under this rule for the election of President fails for want of quorum or for any other reason, a fresh meeting for such election may be convened within the period of one month from the date of such order or the period extended under proviso (ii) at the discretion of the District Magistrate or the Subdivisional Magistrate, as the case may be, for reasons to be recorded in writing.
 - (iv) Where the District Magistrate has, for any reason, failed to take action within the time prescribed by this rule, the State Government may nevertheless extend the period of one month by such time as it may think proper and the time as thus extended shall be deemed to be the period prescribed by the rule.
33. At such meeting one-half of the number of members shall be necessary to form a quorum; if, however, the board consists of 7 or 9 members, 4 or 5 members, respectively, shall form the quorum. There shall be no election of a President unless a quorum is present.

34. The meeting shall be presided over by the Circle Officer or other person convening it under rule 32. The Presiding Officer shall ask the members to record their votes in writing, and each of the members voting shall hand to him a signed voting paper containing the name of the person whom he votes. No member shall vote for more than one candidate:

Provided that the Presiding Officer shall record the votes of an illiterate member according to the direction of the latter.

35. The candidate for whom there is the largest number of votes shall be declared by the Presiding Officer to be the President of the board. In the case of equality of votes, the Presiding Officer shall give a casting vote.

36. If the members fail to elect a President within the time prescribed by rule 32, the fact shall be reported to the District Magistrate, who shall then ask the district board to appoint under section 8 of the Act, one of the members to be the President.

Election of Vice-President.

37. After the President has thus been elected or appointed, as the case may be, the members shall, if they consider a Vice-President necessary, elect one of their number to be the Vice-President in the same manner that prescribed for the election of the President in rules 33 to 35. The newly elected or appointed President shall perform the functions of the Presiding Officer or in his absence a member who, not being himself a candidate for the Vice-Presidency, may be elected for performing the functions of the Presiding Officer and such member shall be entitled to give his usual vote and also a casting vote, if necessary.

Casual vacancies.

38. In the case of a casual vacancy occurring on account of the removal, resignation or death of a member, or otherwise the vacancy shall be filled by election in the manner prescribed by rules 10 to 26 and the provisions of rules 27 to 31 shall be applicable to such election. If such election is held in the year in which another election was previously held, the register of voters used for the election previously held shall be used for such election. If such election is held in a year subsequent to that in which the last election was held, a fresh register of voters shall be prepared in accordance with rules 5 to 9.

39. As soon as a vacancy occurs under section 13 of the Act on account of the removal, resignation, or death of a member appointed under section (4) of section 6 of the Act, the vacancy shall be filled by election in the manner prescribed by rule 38.

40. (1) When the office of the President becomes vacant under section 13 of the Act simultaneously with his office as a member of the board, the vacancy in the office of the President shall be filled by election in the manner prescribed by rules 33 to 35 in so far as they are not contrary to any express provision made in this rule, within one month from the date on which the election appointment, if any, of a member in his place is notified in the Calcutta Gazette. When he resigns or is removed from the Presidency, but remains a member of the union board, the vacancy in the office of the President shall be similarly filled within one month of the resignation being accepted by the Chairman of the district board or of the order of removal, as the case may be:

Provided that the District Magistrate may, for any special reason recorded by him in writing, extend the period of one month.

2) The meeting at which the President is to be elected shall be presided by a member of the union board not being himself a candidate for the presidency who notwithstanding anything in rules 33 to 35 shall carry out the duties of Presiding Officer under those rules. The meeting shall be convened by the Circle Officer or such other person (not being one of the members) as the District Magistrate may select.

3) The District Magistrate may in writing delegate all or any of the powers conferred upon him by this rule, to the Subdivisional Magistrate.

1. When the office of the Vice-President becomes vacant under section 9A the vacancy shall, if the members of the board consider it necessary to do so, be filled in the manner prescribed by rule 37 within one month—

(a) from the date of the Vice-President's resignation or removal if he remains a member of the board, or

(b) from the date of the election or appointment of a member in his place if his office as member of the board simultaneously becomes vacant.

2. When a President avails himself of leave granted under section 9A a temporary vacancy shall be filled by electing a new President from among the remaining members of the board in the manner prescribed by rules 33 to 35 in so far as they are not contrary to any express provisions contained in this rule. When a Vice-President avails himself of leave granted under section 9A, the temporary vacancy shall, if the members of the board consider it necessary to fill it, be filled by electing a Vice-President from among the remaining members of the board in the manner prescribed by rule 37. The meeting for the election of the President shall be presided over by the Vice-President or, in his absence or in case he is himself a candidate for the election, by a member of the union board not being a candidate for the election, who shall be selected by the convener of the meeting and shall, notwithstanding anything in rules 33 to 35, carry out the duties of Presiding Officer under these rules. The meeting shall be convened by the Circle Officer or such other persons (not being one of the members) as the District Magistrate may select.

3. No person in the employment or pay of the district, local or union board shall directly or indirectly engage in canvassing for votes or otherwise assist in the election of any candidate held under these rules other than by giving his own vote. Any breach of this rule will render the person liable to dismissal.

4. All costs incurred in the preparation of the register of voters, the publication of notices, the holding of election, or taking any other necessary action under these rules shall be payable from the union fund. In the case of a newly-created union board, in which no union fund has been formed, the District Magistrate shall, with the sanction of the State Government, advance such sums as may be required; and such sums shall be recoverable from the union board within six months:

Provided that the travelling allowance of Government officers or non-officials deputed by the District Magistrate for conducting union board elections, shall be paid from the consolidated fund of the State.

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Nanda & Co., 46, Kali Temple Road, and 37/1, Corcha Road, Calcutta, and their workmen represented by the Association of Employees' Unions, Commercial Building, Block No. 3 (2nd floor), 23, Netaji Subhas Road, Calcutta.

PRESENT: SRI G. PALIT, District Judge, Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Sri Jiten Banerji, Joint Secretary to the Association of Employees' Unions.

For the Company: Sri N. M. Das Gupta, Pleader.

1 By order No. 1926Lab., dated the 22nd April 1950, the Government of West Bengal constituted a Tribunal of one Judge under sections 7 and 1 of the Industrial Disputes Act (Act XIV of 1947) and referred the said dispute to me for adjudication.

2 The reference was received on 24th April 1950. The Union filed a written statement on 5th May 1950. The Company filed its written objection on 22nd May 1950. The issues were framed on 22nd June 1950. The case was taken up for hearing on 3rd July 1950 and was concluded on 4th July 1950.

3. The issues stand as follows:—

- (1) Were the workers employed by Nanda & Co. illegally locked out on 23rd February 1950? If so, are they entitled to have reinstatement?
- (2) Fixation of wages of workers.
- (3) Conditions about leave, holiday and working hours and also overtime work.
- (4) Are the workers entitled to get wages for the lock-out period? If so, at what rate? If not, are they entitled to get compensation?

AWARD.

Before the issues are dealt with specifically a brief outline of the history of the dispute will be relevant. According to the Union, the workers submitted a written petition on 16th January 1950 demanding half day's work on Saturday and holiday on Sunday and also leave and overtime rates according to the Factories Act. The Company is said to have turned a deaf ear to the said demands. On 20th February 1950 six employees, namely, (1) Ramjatan, (2) Bhagirath, (3) Guljara Singh, (4) Bisvanath, (5) Sashi and (6) Ram Singh were discharged by the Company without any charge-sheet. The employees in a body wanted to have the cases reconsidered. They submitted a petition to this effect. There was no work on 22nd February 1950 and 23rd February 1950. On the latter date, the employees on reaching the gate of the factory found it closed. Their tools were kept within the factory. They were prevented from entering the workshop.

The dispute was accordingly taken up with the Labour Directorate on 23rd February 1950. Sri Satish Chandra Sarkar and Sri K. K. Mitra of the Labour Directorate visited the spot on 23rd February 1950. Attempts at conciliation failed. The Labour Directorate addressed letters to the Company on 10th March 1950 for the return of the tools to the workers. The workers also lodged a criminal complaint at Bhowanipore police-station on 6th March 1950. The tools were returned on the 17th March 1950. The Union claims re-employment, wages during the lock-out period and determination of service conditions.

The Company denies having any concern with the garage at 37/1, Gorchha Road—its alleged branch. It asserts that it had on the relevant date only 16 employees in its workshop at 46, Kali Temple Road. As such, it is contended that the Factories Act cannot have any application here. Regarding the discharge of the six employees on 20th February 1950 the Company admits it. Then it goes on to say that the workers resorted to strike over this matter. It denies having ever refused to hand over the tools to the workers. It also gives a specific denial of the alleged lock-out.

Issues Nos. 1 and 4.

From the evidence I am satisfied that Messrs. Nanda & Co. locked out its workers on 23rd February 1950. From the Labour Commissioner's report, which is a part of the record, I find that the parties got together for a joint conference on 6th March 1950. The Assistant Labour Commissioner remarks in his report "In course of discussion it was suggested that the factory might be opened with the workers upon payment of half of their wages for the period the workers were locked out. The Management did not readily agree. They were not willing to forgive and forget though of course, no definite charge against the workers could be made out justifying a lock-out." From this it is clear that the Assistant Labour Commissioner who visited the spot on 23rd February 1950, the very day of the alleged lock-out, is of opinion that there was a lock-out. If there was no lock-out the Company would have denied it. He further states in his report that on 7th March 1950 the workers went to resume their work according to his proposal but the Management resisted. This also indicates that the lock-out which was declared on 23rd February 1950 was continued. In the oral evidence before me, I also find reference to the lock-out which could not be disproved. Apparently the Management got nettled by the workers' demands. It went out of its temper when the workers demanded re-instatement of the discharged workers. A lock-out in such circumstances is only probable. Besides, if there was no lock-out, it can never be thought that the workers would lodge a complaint to the police-station to have back their tools from the workshop. They were certainly very keen on having their tools back, without which they could not earn their daily bread. It might be a sport with the Management to detain the tools, but it was almost death to the worker to go on without tools. So I am clearly of opinion that the Company locked-out the workers from 23rd February 1950.

But before this, I must consider what happened on 21st February 1950 and 22nd February 1950. Was there a strike on these days which the Company alleges and which the Union denies? From the evidence I am satisfied that the workers did strike work on those two days. But there seems to have been good provocation for such a step. The workers filed petition of demands, only claiming amenities under the Factories Act. The Company was in no mood to accede to the said demands, because I thought that the Factories Act could not be invoked in such a case. In this explosive atmosphere the Company dismissed six of its employees.

February 1950. Even Sri P. B. Nanda who was an active partner in Messrs. Nanda & Co. admits that he discharged the six workers merely on the basis of a report from one Raghunandan who was said to be an agent at 46, Kali Temple Road. He was not a regular Darwan and was not paid as such by the Management. It was he who reported to Sri P. B. Nanda that the carpenters took away nuts and bolts while leaving the factory. He gave six names. When confronted, these workers denied the charge. But still Sri P. B. Nanda chose to dismiss them. He never stated that he did furnish them with any charge-sheet or did make any enquiry before dispensing with their services. I must say that the dismissal could hardly be sustained unless the Management had prejudices against them. The cause of prejudice is said to be the demands under the Factories Act already referred to. So it is clear that the Management acted to stifle this agitation for demands which, on its face, are not unreasonable. In such circumstances, if the workers demanded re-instatement of the discharged employees and if the same is referred or refused, a strike cannot be taken exception to, as that was the only remedy available with the workers. The Management must have provoked it. From the statements filed by some of the workers, marked Exhibits B, B1 and B2, I get that there was a strike. These statements might have been procured from gained-over workers but I believe them, because they chime in with the circumstances. So I find that there was a strike on 21st February and 22nd February 1950 by the workers. There was clearly an unfair labour practice, wantonly dismissing six of the employees whose only demand was that they presented their demands under the Factories Act. The strike was thus justified under the circumstances. Sri P. B. Nanda admitted that he did not go forward to negotiate a settlement. From the Labour Commissioner's report he rather banged the door for negotiation. So in the above circumstances the discharged workers as also others who were locked-out could claim re-instatement. But Sarban Singh in his deposition specifically stated that he did not want re-instatement. He is also deposed not claiming re-instatement. So in the present case I cannot give any direction for re-instatement. Re-instatement would also apply to the workers already taken in.

I have found above that there was a strike on the part of the workers which led to the lock-out resorted to by the Management. I find that the strike was justified and the lock-out was not so. I also find that the workers were deprived of the use of their tools from 21st February 1950 to 17th March 1950 when the tools were handed over through the intervention of the police. In the circumstances I do not grant compensation for the entire lock-out period. Only I allow compensation at the rate of half-pay from 21st February 1950 to 17th March 1950 to the workers so locked-out. I do not grant them full wages during this period because the impasse which was created was contributed partially by the workers as well as by the Management, though the latter's share was far in excess of that of the workers. Half-pay would be worked out on the basis of the earnings of the workers for the month, i.e., January 1950.

Regarding the number of workers, there is some difference between the version of the Union and of the Management. The Management specifically has disclaimed having any concern with the garage at 37/1, Gorecha Road. Exhibit A shows that Messrs. Nanda & Co. had municipal licences for their business at 46, Kali Temple Road. It was incumbent on the Management to show that Messrs. Nanda & Co. had connection with the garage at Gorecha Road. That onus has not been discharged. So I accept the version of the Management that only 16 people were employed at 46,

Kali Temple Road workshop of Messrs. Nanda & Co. They are the persons who are entitled to have compensation referred to above. I find their names from the Payment Register which is not disputed. They are:—

1. Sarban Singh.
2. Bhuban.
3. Mahendra.
4. Lakshmi Chand Sarma.
5. Hari Singh.
6. Lalit.
7. Dal Singh.
8. Jatin.
9. Bhagirath.
10. Ramjatan Sarma.
11. Guljara Singh.
12. Bisvanath.
13. Sohan Singh.
14. Gian Singh.
15. Ram Singh.
16. Sashi.

Out of the group, Jatin and Sashi will get the abovementioned compensation less the wages they have been paid after they joined during the above period. This payment must be made within one month of the operation of this award. The issues 1 and 4 are thus answered.

Issue No. 2.

This does not call for any decision, because the workers are all discharged and also because the contention has not been mooted on this point during the trial.

Issue No. 3.

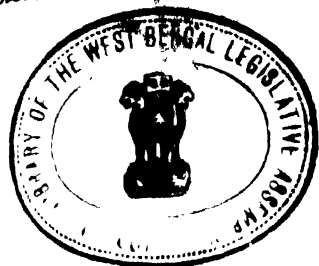

This is also disposed of without any direction because the old workers have all gone. So their service conditions do not require any fixation. I may only add in this connection that I turn down the claim of gratuity advanced by the workers in this case, because of the rather short period of service put in by those workers.

Subject:—Drawal of contingent bills and submission of sub-vouchers in support thereof

No. TM/175.—10th August 1950.—Attention all Drawing and Disbursing Officers of the Central Government, as well as of the State Government under audit of this office, is invited to rule 304 of the Central Treasury Rules (for Central Government Officers) or to S. B. 245(2) of the Treasury Rules, Bengal, Volume I (for Government Officers), as the case may be, which requires that the sub-vouchers for sums exceeding Rs. 25 shall be submitted to the audit office. It has been noticed that the provision of this rule being strictly observed by many of the Drawing Officers and non-receipt of sub-vouchers in is causing much unnecessary work in this office. Drawing and Disbursing Officers are requested to see that the provision of the cited above is strictly followed in all cases in which the sub-vouchers are required, under the order, to be submitted to the audit office.

In case of expenditure met out of the permanent fund, sub-vouchers should invariably be attached to the contingent bills drawn in payment of the advance; in other cases, the contingent bills should either contain full details of the charges drawn or be supported by original bills of the suppliers' bills, the sub-vouchers being submitted to this office later on. It should, however, be ensured that the sub-vouchers which do not accompany the contingent bill reach this office within, at the latest, one month of the receipt of money from the treasury. In sending sub-vouchers to this office it should be seen that they are properly listed for the particular bill to which they relate. Some Drawing Officers usually send the sub-vouchers without the cover-list to show the particular contingent bill to which the vouchers relate. This unbusinesslike system causes much unnecessary work in this office and should forthwith be discontinued. Steps should also be taken to ensure that amounts drawn on contingent bills do not remain undischarged for a long period, in contravention of rule 290 of the Central Treasury Rules or S. R. 229 to the Treasury Rules, Bengal, Volume I, as the case may be.

ANNEXURE.

INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, CALCUTTA.

PRESENT: SRI MATISH CHANDRA BANERJI, District Judge, Tribunal.

Industrial dispute between Messrs. Albert David, Ltd., Head Office, 15, Chittaranjan Avenue, Calcutta, Factory at 5/11, D. Gupta Lane, Calcutta, Glass Blowing Department, 29/1, Doctor's Lane, Calcutta, and their workmen as represented by Albert David Workers' Union, 34, Creek Row, Calcutta.

AWARD.

The present reference relates to an industrial dispute between Messrs. Albert David, Ltd., Head Office, 15, Chittaranjan Avenue, Calcutta, Factory at 5/11, D. Gupta Lane, Calcutta, Glass Blowing Department at 29/1, Doctor's Lane, Calcutta, and their workmen as represented by Albert David Workers' Union, 34, Creek Row, Calcutta.

Messrs. Albert David, Ltd., is a Pharmaceutical Firm manufacturing drugs and chemicals. Its factory is situated at 5/11, D. Gupta Lane, Dum Dum, Calcutta; it has a Glass Blowing Department for manufacture of glass bottles, etc., at 29/1, Doctor's Lane, Calcutta, and its Head Office is at Chittaranjan Avenue, Calcutta. The total number of employees in the shops and the office is a little over 600. The employees of the Company joined themselves into a Union under the name of the Albert David Workers' Union in the beginning of 1946. Shortly after the formation of the Union and on or about the 1st April 1946 disputes arose between the Union and the Company regarding conditions of service and terms of employment and the workmen staged a strike which continued from 1st May 1946 to 3rd May 1946. The dispute was referred for arbitration to Sri Kalichand Mukherji, then the Secretary of the Bengal Provincial Congress Committee and at present the Hon'ble Minister in charge of Labour, of Government of West Bengal. The learned Arbitrator made an Award which granted general increments in wages and also effected improvements in conditions of labour of the workmen. This Award was dated 8th August

1946 and although the learned Arbitrator requested the Company to give immediate effect to the Award, the Company granted the increments in wages and dearness allowance as awarded, with effect from 1st August 1946. The latter part of 1946 was a notorious time for Calcutta and on the 28th of October 1946 the factory of the Company which was then situated at Taltala was besieged by the hooligans of the locality and some workers were killed, both within and outside of the factory. The factory was closed indefinitely, and in the month of December 1946 the factory was restarted at Sarat Chatterji Avenue at Ballygunge. The Company could not absorb all the workers at that time as there was not enough space in the new premises and the Union struck on this issue. The strike lasted for two days on 8th and 9th of January 1947. The strike was called off after an agreement between the Union and the Company by which additional benefits were secured to the workers. Disputes again appeared in the latter part of 1947 and by order No. 135Lab., dated 17th January 1948 the Government of West Bengal referred the disputes between the Company and the Union along with disputes between many other Mercantile firms in Calcutta and their workmen to the Tribunal for adjudication. While the dispute was pending before this Tribunal for adjudication, a settlement was effected at the mediation of Sri K. K. Mitra, Assistant Labour Commissioner to the Government of West Bengal, and terms of settlement were signed by both the parties and these terms of settlement were submitted before the Tribunal with a prayer for an Award. Accordingly an Award was made by the Tribunal in accordance with the terms of this settlement and this Award which was enforced by Government by Notification No. 3642Lab., dated 4th October 1948, with effect from the latter date mentioned in Appendix A of this Award. Under this Award based upon the settlement between the parties, graded scales of salaries were fixed for all categories of workmen and the dearness allowance was fixed at the rate of Rs. 19 per month, with a stipulation that at the end of 6 months a revision would be made in the scale of the dearness allowance in view of the financial condition of the Company and the rise of the cost of living index figure. The settlement was made in the month of September 1948 and the Award was enforced on 4th October 1948. According to the Company the rates of basic wages were fixed at too high a level and according to the Union the rate of the dearness allowance was unusually inadequate. At the end of 6 months from the date of the Award the Union raised the question of reconsideration of the dearness allowance and a conciliatory proceeding followed in which the claim of the increase of dearness allowance made by the Union was found to be unjustified by the Conciliation Officer. Thereafter on an appeal made by the President of the Union to the Management an interim relief was granted to the workers with effect from 1st July 1949 at the rate of one anna in the rupee to the workers whose basic salary was not more than Rs. 100 per month. This was an increase in the dearness allowance and was agreed to be paid for three months, i.e. up to September 1949 and the Management promised to review the matter in October 1949. In the month of September 1949 the Union made demand of a month's wage as Puja Bonus. The Company could not allow the payment in view of its financial position. In the month of July 1949 the Company retired three superannuated employees in the office, but the clerical staff in the office went on a "pen down" strike for one day as protest. Adequate compensation by way of gratuity in consultation with the President of the Union was paid to these retired employees. On 2nd October 1949 the Union served on the Company a notice of strike for fulfilment of a 32-point charter of demands. The Labour Directorate of the Government of West Bengal started conciliation proceedings but the employees launched a strike on 12th November 1949 and the Company clared a lock-out on 15th November 1949. The Labour Directorate failed effect any conciliation of the disputes and reported under section 12(4) the Industrial Disputes Act to Government recommending reference of dispute to the Tribunal.

Thereupon the Government of West Bengal, in the Department of Labour, by order No. 581Lab., dated 4th February 1950, referred, under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the dispute between the Company and their workmen, as represented by Albert David Workers' Union, 34, Creek Row, Calcutta, to me for adjudication. Notices were issued on both parties and they appeared before the Tribunal receipt of such notice.

After the parties appeared before me, at my advice and instructions, they came to a settlement. By this agreement which was signed by the parties on 22nd February 1950, the Union called off the strike and the Company lifted the lock-out with effect from the date of the settlement and the Company agreed to take up all the workers within a period of 3 weeks from the date of the reopening of the factory. The Union agreed to give up the claim for wages for the strike period. A copy of this agreement is made Appendix B to this Award.

Written statement was filed by the Union on 21st March 1950 and by the Company on 3rd April 1950. Issues were framed on 18th April 1950. The demands of the Union will appear from the issues.

The appearances for the parties were as follows:

For the Union: Sri Nanda Misra, President, Sri Nalin Bhanja, Secretary, Sri Jyotish Chatterji, Treasurer and some other workers.

For the Company: Mr. Myer, Counsel, instructed by Sri B. B. Sinha, Solicitor, of Messrs Leslie and Hinds, Solicitors, and Sri P. Pardesh Rao, Secretary.

The issues framed were as follows:

ISSUES.

- (1) Dearness Allowance.
- (2) Tiffin Allowance.
- (3) Pay for the period of strike and lock-out.
- (4) Revision of Standing Orders.
- (5) Regularisation of the Provident Fund.
- (6) Disability, death benefits and gratuity.
- (7) Increment in basic pay in September 1949.
- (8) Interim reliefs for October 1949 for workers of Dum Dum and Sector Lane Factories.
- (9) Canteen.
- (10) Bonus for 1949.

DECISION.Issue No. 1.—Dearness Allowance.

The Union claims dearness allowance at the rate of Rs. 30 per month for all employees. The Company opposed this claim on the ground that the financial condition of the Company did not permit of payment of more than Rs. 19 by way of dearness allowance as was being paid at present. It is also stated that the basic salary paid by the Company is very high and does not justify an increase in the dearness allowance.

As has been mentioned above the dispute between the Company and the Union that was settled in the latter part of 1948 and was made a part of the Award, Appendix A, embraced in its scope elaborate provisions as to terms of employment and conditions of labour of the workmen. Graded scales of salaries reserving automatic annual increments were fixed for different categories of employees, both for the office and in the factory. The dearness allowance was fixed at Rs. 19 per month and provisions were made for fixation of pay of the employees in graded scales of salaries as fixed in the settlement. The Union did not in this present proceeding claim any revision of the basic wages; it confined its demand to the revision of dearness allowance only. There was a provision in Appendix A that "revision of dearness allowance consistent with financial position of the Company and increased cost of living, if any, shall be taken after 6 months". The terms of employment in Appendix A came into operation on 4th October 1948 and at the end of 6 months the Union made demand for a revision of the dearness allowance and conciliation proceedings were started by the Labour Directorate of the Government of West Bengal. The Labour Directorate did not find that either the financial position of the Company had improved or that the cost of living had increased and could not grant any relief to the Union. The Union then made an appeal to the Directors of the Company who granted an interim increase in dearness allowance to the extent of one anna in the rupee for those workers whose basic salary was not more than Rs. 100 per month, and this interim relief was granted for a period of 3 months, i.e., up to September 1949 and the Management promised to review the matter in October 1949. It appeared that the Company paid the interim relief to the members of the staff in the Head Office also in the month of October 1949 but did not grant it to the workers in the factory. This they did not allow because the workers in the factory had started "go slow" tactics causing a considerable loss to the Company in inadequate production. On top of this came the strike notice on 28th October 1949 which culminated into a strike on 12th November 1949 that lasted till 21st February 1950.

The learned Counsel for the Company drew my attention to the fact that the Company's financial condition was very low, that the basic wage fixed in Appendix A was much in excess of wages granted either by Messrs. B. K. Paul & Co., or by Messrs. Bengal Chemical and Pharmaceutical Works, Ltd., which are companies carrying on manufacture of pharmaceutical products and were sister companies of bigger size with larger production and greater financial stamina. The learned Counsel for the Company referred me to the Awards of Sri S. N. Modak, I.C.S. (Retd.), in the industrial disputes between the Bengal Chemical and Pharmaceutical Works, Ltd., and their workmen published in the Calcutta Gazette, dated 3rd November 1949, and in the industrial dispute between Messrs. B. K. Paul & Co. (Agency, Ltd.), B. K. Paul & Co. (Edwards Tonic), B. K. Paul & Co. (Research Laboratory) and their employees published by Government ification No. 1276Lab., dated 22nd April 1948. Comparing the scales salaries of the workmen in the two concerns with those granted by the Board, Appendix A, which was based upon a settlement between the parties before the learned Assistant Labour Commissioner, Government of West Bengal, I find that the salaries have been fixed at a much higher level in Messrs. Albert David, Ltd., than in the other two companies mentioned above. A few of the grade scales of basic wages of similar categories of employees in the 3 establishments are mentioned below for appreciation of observation:—

Posta.	Albert David, Ltd.	Bengal Chemical and Pharmaceutical Works.	B. K. Paul & Co.
Unskilled (peons, street and sweepers).	Rs. 36—2—42	Office boy—Rs. 25 Grade B workers—Rs. 28. Grade A workers—Rs. 29. Syce—Rs. 31. Miscellaneous Literate—Rs. 32.	Labourers—Rs. 30— $\frac{1}{4}$ —36.
Packers ..	Rs. 45—2—65	Rs. 32	Rs. 30— $\frac{1}{4}$ —36.
Despatch packers	Rs. 40—2—50
Glass Blowers ..	Rs. 65—3—80—4—100.	Rs. 35
Clerks ..	(1) Rs. 55—3—85— —E. B.—4—125. (2) Rs. 65—4—105 E. B.—5—155. (3) Graduates specially qualified— Rs. 80—5—120— E. B.—10—150— E. B.—10—250.	Rs. 45. Junior Grade Rs. 32.	Assistants— A Grade Rs. 105—5—150. B Grade—Rs. 75—2—105. C Grade—Rs. 45— $\frac{1}{4}$ —75.
Supervisor ..	(1) Rs. 100—6—160 —E. B.—8—240. (2) Rs. 75—5—125 —E. B.—7—195. (3) Rs. 60—4—100 —E. B.—5—150.	Rs. 45	.. Sectional Heads and Chemists— A Grade—Rs. 130—10—200. B Grade—Rs. 84—6—120.

It is needless to multiply instances. It is obvious that the grade scales in Messrs. Albert David, Ltd., as fixed in the settlement evidenced in Appendix A was on a very liberal scale, much above the current wages of workmen in this industry in the Calcutta area. It may be noted that in Messrs. Albert David, Ltd., the dearness allowance was fixed at Rs. 19 per month; in Messrs. Bengal Chemical and Pharmaceutical Works, Ltd., the monthly dearness allowance varied between Rs. 25 and Rs. 50 in various stages up to Rs. 312, and in Messrs. B. K. Paul & Co. the dearness allowance of every employee was 1/3rd of his basic wage.

The learned President of the Union pointed out to me that in Messrs. Bengal Chemical and Pharmaceutical Works, Ltd., the workmen got wages up to the extent of 1½ months' basic wages. As it appears from the award regarding Messrs. B. K. Paul & Co. it was agreed between Company and the Union that bonus to the extent of one month's salary will be paid in respect of a year in which a dividend to the extent 5 per cent. or more was declared to the shareholders. Even with the increments to the emoluments by way of bonus, the total emolument earned by the employees in Messrs. Albert David & Co. was much above that received by the employees of similar categories in the other two companies. It may be mentioned that Messrs. Albert David, Ltd., granted one month's bonus (15 days + 15 days) in 1947 and 15 days Puja Bonus in 1948. They did not grant any bonus in 1949 owing to the deliberate slowing down of production. It is needless to add that very great stress is to be given to the time-scale grades reserving automatic annual increments.

The financial year of the Company is from 1st November to the end of the next October. The balance sheets of the Company ending 31st October 1945, 31st October 1946 and 31st October 1947 have been filed before me. In the financial year ending 31st October 1945 the Company made a net profit of Rs. 1,22,193; in the two succeeding years the Company incurred a loss of Rs. 13,844 and Rs. 83,855, respectively. In the financial year ending 31st October 1948 the Company earned a net profit of Rs. 1,38,000. It is needless to add that as much as Rs. 97,000 and odd of this amount was utilised to make up the losses in the two preceding years. The balance sheet of Messrs. B. K. Paul and Co. was not available before me but the balance sheet of Messrs. Bengal Chemical and Pharmaceutical Works, Ltd., for the financial year ended 13th April 1948 was filed before me. It shows a net profit of Rs. 10,69,092-15-6. The statement of accounts given by this Company also shows that while the salary and allowances of employees in the Bengal Chemical and Pharmaceutical Works, Ltd., was only 23·2 per cent. of the annual sale in 1947-48, in this Company the salary and allowances accounted for 32·6 per cent. of the sales for 1947, 34 per cent. of the sale in 1948 and 34·6 per cent. of the sale in 1949. It is also stated that this percentage in Messrs. Bengal Immunity in 1947-48 was only 17 per cent. and in Messrs. Smith Stansfield and Co., Ltd., only 16 per cent.

The revision of dearness allowance was permissible in Appendix A in view of the financial position of the Company and increase in the cost of living. It is, therefore, necessary to consider the change in the cost of living index figure subsequent to October 1948. It appears from the cost of living index figure published by the Office of the Statistical Bureau, Government of West Bengal, that in October 1948, the cost of living index for middle-class men was 364 and for the working class it was 384·3. In August and September respectively these figures were 361·0 and 360·2 for the middle-class and 377·3 and 378·8 for the working class. Since then it diminished gradually up till May 1949 and then showed a slight increase but not reaching the figures as in October 1948. Thereafter they decreased again till February 1950 and then they recorded a slight increase till 1st March 1950 in which month it was 347·4 for the middle-class and 359·0 for the working class. The index numbers for June have not been compiled. It, therefore, appears that the cost of living index figure for the working class or the middle-class has all along been less than what it was in October 1948 when Appendix A came into operation. No revision of dearness allowance is, therefore, justified in view of the provisions of Appendix A. As there has been no increase in the cost of living index since the date when the Award, Appendix A, came into operation.

Considering all these circumstances I am of opinion that the claim for increase of dearness allowance as made by the Union is not justified and this claim is, therefore, rejected.

Issue No. 2.—Tiffin Allowance:

Issue No. 2.—Canteen.

Under the terms of Appendix A a canteen was to be opened at Dum Dum factory and the establishment cost of this canteen, being the cost for the accommodation of the canteen, and the cost for two cooks and two servants, are to be paid by the Company and every workman was to get a tiffin allowance at 4 annas daily. The Union demanded an increase in the tiffin allowance from 4 annas to 6 annas per day per head. I do not consider the demand of any increase in the tiffin allowance or in the commitments of the Company in regard to the cost of the canteen, beyond what was provided for in Appendix A, to be justified. The tiffin allowance and the provision for the maintenance of the canteen shall continue to be governed by the terms in Appendix A.

This issue is accordingly answered.

Issue No. 3.—Pay for the period of Strike and Lock-out.

The claim for the pay for the period of strike and lock-out from 12th November 1949 to 21st February 1950 was not pressed at the time of the hearing of the case. It may be mentioned that this claim was abandoned by the agreement between the parties dated 22nd February 1950 that resulted in the termination of this strike and the lock-out (Appendix B). This claim is, therefore, rejected.

Issue No. 4.—Revision of Standing Orders.

No definite claim as to the revision of standing orders was made by the Union. It was not stated which standing orders of the Company were to be revised and in what particular manner. It appears that the existing standing orders have been certified by the Labour Commissioner. I do not find it possible to deal with this issue in the absence of any definite demand.

This issue is accordingly answered.

Issue No. 5.—Regularisation of the Provident Fund.

Under the terms of the Award, Appendix A, provision for a Provident Fund of the employees was made with 6½ per cent. contribution on either side. It appears that the Company started the Provident Fund in September 1948, i.e., even before the Award, Appendix A, came into operation on 1st October 1948. The Union complained in this proceeding that the Provident Fund money had not been transferred to a separate fund as yet. The representatives of the Company informed me that the permission of the Income-Tax Commissioner has not yet been obtained for the starting of the Provident Fund. It is directed that the money belonging to the Provident Fund of the employees should be kept in a separate account by the Company.

The Union asked me to frame rules in regard to the availability of the employer's contribution to the fund. In Appendix A it is provided that the Company's contribution should be payable after 3 years' service. No more provision has been made in this regard in Appendix A. It cannot, however, be accepted that the full contribution of the Company to the Provident Fund should be available to the employee after the expiry of the 3 years of service. In this regard I frame the following rule in accordance with the Model Rules for Provident Fund for Industrial Employees framed by the Government of India.

(a) If any subscriber resigns or leaves his employment at his own request, otherwise than by reason of superannuation on medical grounds, the Board or trustees of the Provident Fund may, by a majority of two-thirds members, direct that deductions according to scales specified below shall be made from the amount paid into the subscriber's account by the employer (including interest accrued to the employer's contribution):—

- (i) Subscribers of less than 3 years' standing—100 per cent.
- (ii) Subscribers of 3 but less than 6 years' standing—50 per cent.
- (iii) Subscribers of 6 but less than 9 years' standing—25 per cent.
- (iv) Subscribers of 9 or more years' standing—Nil.

(b) If any subscriber is dismissed for misconduct the Board shall, at the request of the employer, direct that a deduction equal to the contribution made by the employer into the subscriber's account, including the interest accrued thereon shall be made.

Explanation.—The term "misconduct" shall be interpreted with reference to standing orders existing in the undertaking.

This issue is accordingly answered.

Issue No. 6.—Disability, death benefits and gratuity.

I do consider that the employees are not entitled to both kinds of benefit, in Provident Fund, as well as in gratuity. As the Company allows the benefit of Contributory Provident Fund, I consider that the employee should not be given any additional advantage or gratuity. As, however, the Provident Fund was started only in September 1948, the benefit to the old employees to the Provident Fund will be unsubstantial.

On giving a careful consideration to the matter I have come to the conclusion that a system of gratuity of a complementary character should be introduced to meet the needs of the old employees and also employees in general under the circumstances of death or retirement on account of superannuation or on medical grounds. It is awarded that there should be a scheme of supplementing the benefit of Contributory Provident Fund by a scheme of gratuity for some years next. The provision of the system of gratuity shall be as follows:—

- (1) On retirement after continuous service for not less than fifteen years—Gratuity at the rate of half a month's basic pay for each completed year of service subject to a maximum of fifteen months' basic pay.
- (2) On retirement before completing fifteen years' service by reason of superannuation on medical grounds or owing to any other sufficient cause approved by the employer in this behalf—Gratuity at the rate of half a month's basic pay for each completed year of service.
- (3) On death—Gratuity at the rate of half a month's basic pay for each completed year of service (payable to the employee's nominee or nominees or heirs), subject to a maximum of fifteen months' basic wages.
- (4) The basis of calculating gratuity shall be the average basic pay not including overtime wages or any allowances, bonuses or other benefits, during the last twelve months of service on full pay.

- (5) For the period for which Provident Fund has been in operation in respect of an employee, he or his nominee or nominees or heirs will receive the whole amount at his credit in the fund including the amounts of the employer's contribution subject to operation of the rules of the Provident Fund of the Company in this behalf, but in calculating the number of years of service for which gratuity will be payable, the period for which the Provident Fund has been in operation in respect of the particular employee shall be deducted from the total period of service.

Issue No. 7.—Increment in basic pay in September 1949.

The Union claimed the annual increment in basic pay of the employees in September 1949. The representatives of the Company stated that they are unable to pay the annual increments to all the employees and that they are paying increments to the more efficient hands. No increments, however, fell due in September 1949. As the Award in Appendix A came into operation on 4th October 1948, the increments really fell due in October 1949. In October 1949 troubles were brewing and the workmen had already adopted "go slow" methods causing loss to the Company. In the first part of November the strike occurred and the factory was reopened only in the latter part of February 1950. The plea of the Company that it was unable to pay annual increments to all the employees is not tenable. The increments as provided for under the Award in Appendix A have to be paid until the wage scales are altered by a fresh settlement or Award. I, therefore, direct that annual increments that fell due to the employees in the month of October 1949 should be payable with effect from March 1950 and the next increment will be due in October 1950.

This issue is accordingly answered.

Issue No. 8.—Interim reliefs for October 1949 for workers of Dum Dum and Doctor Lane Factories.

I have already related that an interim relief of increase of dearness allowance at one anna per rupee for employees drawing basic salary up to Rs. 100 per month was allowed for 3 months from July and that in October 1949 this relief was granted to the staff at the Head Office, but not to the factory workers at Dum Dum and Doctor Lane. The Company's plea is that this relief was not granted to the factory workers at Dum Dum and Doctor Lane as they had adopted "go slow" methods and caused loss to the Company. The circumstances of the case justify this plea and I accept it. I accordingly reject the claim for interim relief for the factory workers at Dum Dum and Doctor Lane for October 1949 as claimed.

Issue No. 10.—Bonus for 1949.

No bonus was paid in 1949 before the Puja vacation. The Company proposed the plea of payment of Puja Bonus in 1949 on the ground that the workmen made it impossible for the Company to pay this bonus by go slow tactics which caused the Company a severe loss. These go slow tactics in the month of September and October culminated into a strike in the month of November 1949 which lasted for 102 days. The Company is now struggling for its sheer existence. By October next the Company will have to grant two increments in the basic salaries. The losses incurred in 1946 and 1947 have been recouped in 1948, but the cash balance position of the company is anything but satisfactory. No dividend of ordinary shares has been paid since 1945. In the circumstances I do not consider that the Company should be compelled to pay any Puja Bonus for 1949.

This issue is accordingly answered.

APPENDIX A.

GOVERNMENT OF WEST BENGAL.

Labour Department.

ORDER.

No. 3642Lab.—4th October 1948.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Commerce, Labour and Industries Department, order No. 135Lab., dated the 17th January 1948, the industrial disputes that have arisen or were apprehended between the employers of mercantile firms and their associate firms specified in column 1 in the two lists Nos. 1 and 2 annexed to the said order and their clerical and all subordinate staff in their offices as represented by some trade unions mentioned against firms in column 2 of the lists aforementioned, and others represented by such other registered trade unions as might have been permitted by the Industrial Tribunal hereinafter mentioned to be represented individually for legitimate reasons, were referred for adjudication to a Tribunal constituted by Sri Ashutosh Das Gupta, Additional District Judge, as Chairman and Sri Sailesh Chandra Chakravarty and Sri Sudhir Chandra Dutta Gupta, Additional District Judges, as members;

And whereas the services of Sri Sudhir Chandra Dutta Gupta, one of the members aforesaid, having no longer been available, the said Chairman and Sri Sailesh Chandra Chakravarty, another member aforesaid, have given the award in respect of the industrial dispute between one of the firms mentioned hereinbefore, namely, Messrs. Albert David, Limited, 15, Chittaranjan Avenue, Calcutta, being item No. 1 in list No. 1 aforementioned and their employees represented by Albert David Workers' Union, C/4, College Street Market, Calcutta, as shown in the annexure hereto;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of section 15 read with sub-section (3) of section 19 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased to make the following order and to direct with reference to section 17 of the said Act that the award be published in the Calcutta Gazette.

The award made by the said Chairman and the said Sri S. C. Chakravarty shall bind the Company and their employees aforesaid as specified therein and shall remain in operation for a period of one year with effect from the date of this order.

Annexure.

In the matter of industrial disputes between 267 mercantile firms of Calcutta and their employees, referred for adjudication, by Government order No. 135Lab., dated the 17th January 1948, to a Tribunal constituted of (1) Sri Ashutosh Das Gupta, and (2) Sri Sailesh Chandra Chakravarty.

Pursuant to the provisions of sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act of 1947, the Government of West Bengal constituted a Tribunal with Sri Ashutosh Das Gupta as Chairman, Sri Sailesh Chandra Chakravarty and Sri Sudhir Chandra Dutta Gupta as members to adjudicate upon disputes between 267 mercantile firms of Calcutta and their employees. As Sri Sudhir Chandra Dutta Gupta's services are no longer available.

The firms have been divided in two lists in Government order and it is proposed to maintain the serial numbers given in the lists for the sake of convenience. In column 1 of the lists the names of the firms have been stated and in column 2 the names of the unions representing the employees have been stated.

It is now proposed to consider the case of Messrs. Albert David, limited, being No. 1 in list No. 1. In this case there have been settlements between the employer and the employees as represented by the two unions. In another award wherein we disposed of the cases of several absentee employees we decide that we could treat the cases separately. The reasons hold good here also and we do not consider it necessary to reiterate them. We propose to pass an award in terms of settlements arrived at.

We, therefore, pass an award in terms of the settlements a copy of which do form a part of this award.

Annexure B.

Re: Industrial Disputes as referred to in the said order, dated the 4th February 1950, between Messrs. Albert David, Ltd., of 15, Chittaranjan Avenue, and the workers as represented by Albert David Workers' Union, 34, Creek Row, Calcutta-14.

The Union agrees to call off the strike with effect from the 22nd February 1950 and gives up any claim for wages for strike period.

2. In view of the above the Company agrees to lift the lock-out and re-open the factory from the 22nd day of February 1950 on the condition that the Company will employ such number of workers in the beginning as it may think fit on the same as per the Award of the Industrial Disputes Tribunal made in 1948 but so that the Company will employ and take up all the workers within a period of three weeks from the date of the re-opening of the Factory.

3. Either of the party reserve its right to cancel the above agreement after the expiry of three weeks from the re-opening of the Factory on giving to the other a fortnight's notice provided however if the Union cancels the agreement aforesaid, it will not be entitled to raise any issue for payment of wages for the strike period which the Union has given up.

4. The above agreement is made without any prejudice to any of the right and contentions of either of the parties before the Tribunal.

5. In view of the above agreement the proceedings before the Tribunal have been adjourned for four weeks.

Rishra, Hooghly, and their employees represented by Hastings Jute Mill Employees' Union, 18, Grand Trunk Road, Rishra, Hooghly, in connection with the case of Sri Kritanta Kumar Chatterji, was referred for adjudication to Sri M. C. Banerji, District Judge;

And whereas the said Sri M. C. Banerji, District Judge, has submitted to the State Government his award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE.

INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, CALCUTTA.

PRESENT. SRI MATISH CHANDRA BANERJI, District Judge, Tribunal.

Industrial dispute between Messrs. Hastings Jute Mill, P. O. Rishra, district Hooghly, and their employees represented by Hastings Jute Mill Employees' Union, 18, Grand Trunk Road, Rishra, district Hooghly.

AWARD.

The Government of West Bengal in the Department of Labour by order No. 1957Lab., dated 24th April 1950, referred under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the industrial dispute between Messrs. Hastings Jute Mill, P. O. Rishra, district Hooghly, and their employees represented by Hastings Jute Mill Employees' Union, 18, Grand Trunk Road, Rishra, district Hooghly, in connection with the case of Sri Kritanta Kumar Chatterji, to me for adjudication.

Notices were issued on both parties and they appeared and filed written statements.

Sri Kritanta Kumar Chatterji was employed as a clerk in the Hastings Jute Mill and was in charge of the canteen of the Company. He was appointed to this post on 1st May 1948, and was discharged on 3rd January 1950. At the date of his discharge he used to get a basic pay of Rs. 58 and a dearness allowance of Rs. 32-8 per month. The Union's case is that the dismissal of Sri Kritanta Kumar Chatterji was an instance of unfair labour practice and this order of dismissal was void ab initio for the reason that no charge-sheet was framed against the workman, nor was he offered any opportunity to defend himself as provided for in the Standing Orders of the Company. The Union, therefore, claimed reinstatement with retrospective effect of the said workman to his post and also claimed full compensation for the period of his non-employment. The Company opposed the claim of the Union and stated that the discharge of Sri K. K. Chatterji was not actuated by any malice or unfair motive and that it was not the result of any unfair labour practice on the part of the Company. It was, therefore, submitted that the Union's prayer for reinstatement or compensation was neither lawful nor equitable. The details of the facts of the case will appear from the decisions of the issues. The issues were framed on 30th May 1950.

The appearances for the parties were as follows:—

For the Union: Sri D. L. Sen Gupta, Advocate, assisted by Sri Phani Ghosh, and Sri Benoyendrakumar Mitra, Secretary of the Union, and the discharged employee Sri K. K. Chatterji.

For the Company: Sri S. C. Sen Gupta, Advocate, and Sri J. K. Ghosh, Pleader, of Messrs. Orr Dignam & Co., assisted by Miss P. Mitra of I.J.M.A., and Mr. W. Alexander, the Manager of the Company.

The issues framed were as follows:—

ISSUES.

- (1) Was the dismissal of Sri K. K. Chatterji an instance of unfair labour practice on the part of the Company?
- (2) Is he entitled to reinstatement or to any other relief?

Decisions.

Issue No. 1.

Sri K. K. Chatterji was appointed as the clerk in charge of the canteen of the Company on 1st May 1948. The second clerk in the canteen was Sri Amrita Lal Chakravarty. Sri K. K. Chatterji was entrusted with the task of purchasing the foodstuffs for the canteen. It appears that towards the latter part of 1949 the tea which was supplied by the canteen to the labourers of the mills was sweetened by molasses which were refined by boiling before use. It is the common case of the parties that the canteen was showing some loss every month till December 1949. The loss or profit in the canteen was, however, no concern of the Company and profit or loss in the canteen meant improvement or deterioration of amenities available from it. On 1st January 1950 the Company transferred Sri Amrita Lal Chakravarty to the Labour Department and one Sri Lahoti of the Labour Office was posted to the canteen in his place. The Union alleged in its written statement that Sri Lahoti was a friend of Sri Bhansali—the Assistant Labour Officer of the Company. This allegation was, however, denied by Sri Bhansali in his evidence. On Sri Lahoti's appointment, he was authorised to purchase goods for the canteen as was till that date done by Sri K. K. Chatterji—clerk in charge of the canteen.

The Union's case is that on 2nd January 1950 Sri Lahoti purchased for the canteen a quantity of gur which was of bad quality and was not fit for human consumption. According to the Union the hours of work of Sri K. K. Chatterji were from 6-30 a.m. to 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. According to the Company the working hours of Sri K. K. Chatterji were from 6-30 a.m. to 11 a.m. and from 12-30 p.m. to 4-30 p.m., although for the other clerks the working hours were from 6-30 a.m. to 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Both the parties, however, agreed that on 3rd January 1950 Sri K. K. Chatterji left his duty at 11 a.m. in the forenoon and returned back to work at 1 p.m. Tea to the labourers is supplied at 6 a.m. in the morning and at 12-30 p.m. in the afternoon, as the working hours of the Mills are from 6-30 a.m. to 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. During the period of absence of Sri K. K. Chatterji, between 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. on 3rd January 1950, his Assistant Sri Lahoti was in charge of the canteen and looked after the supply of tea to the workmen at 12-30 p.m. The tea that was supplied to the workmen at 12-30 p.m. was bad. It was nothing more than milk and water and had a very bad taste. At about 12-45 p.m. a crowd of workmen approached the Manager with glasses of tea supplied to them by the canteen. They complained about the poor quality and the bad taste of the tea. The Manager promised an enquiry into the matter. At about 1-45 p.m. the Manager visited the canteen and mentioned to the canteen in charge Sri K. K. Chatterji and his assistant Sri Lahoti about the workmen's complaint.

According to the Union the Manager and the Assistant Labour Officer came to the canteen and the Assistant Labour Officer stated to the Manager that Sri K. K. Chatterji was a great agitator for the labour and the root of all troubles and the Manager thereupon without caring to have any explanation from Sri K. K. Chatterji started saying "bloody agitator" to which he protested and claimed to be properly treated. The Union further states that Sri K. K. Chatterji continued his day's work as usual till he was called at the office in the evening to receive his notice of dismissal and final payment and was asked to hand over charge of the canteen to the Assistant Labour Officer Sri Bhansali.

The Company's case is as follows:—

At about 1-45 p.m. the Manager visited the canteen and mentioned to the canteen in charge and his assistant about the workers' complaint. Sri K. K. Chatterji at first did not admit that the tea was of poor quality but subsequently admitted that some gur which was found to be bad was used to sweeten the tea in his absence. The Manager felt that he was responsible for the state of affairs and had been shirking his responsibilities. He, therefore, took him to task for not taking necessary steps so that bad stuffs could not be used. Upon this he flared up and shouted in a most insolent manner. Finding the situation awkward the Manager asked him to come to his office and left the place. Thereafter Sri K. K. Chatterji went to the Labour Office and cried out in a loud voice in Hindi that the Manager had abused him. A few hundred workers had assembled at the time. The Assistant Labour Officer who was there asked him to go away from the place, but he refused to do so. The Manager, therefore, decided to dismiss him for his rowdy and insolent conduct. Sri K. K. Chatterji thereupon became repentant. The Manager, therefore, taking into consideration that he was a refugee and in a somewhat helpless condition, discharged him on giving one month's pay in lieu of notice by letter, dated 3rd January 1950. The Manager also granted him a certificate on 5th January 1950 to help him to get employment elsewhere.

Sri K. K. Chatterji (P.W. 1) examined himself and was cross-examined by the Company. The Company examined O.P.W. 1, Bejoy Chandra Adhikari, O.P.W. 2, Mr. W. Alexander, Manager of the Mills, and O.P.W. 3, Sri B. S. Bhansali, the Assistant Labour Officer. These witnesses were cross-examined by the Union. The letter of discharge to Sri K. K. Chatterji, dated 3rd January 1950, was marked Ext. 1 and the certificate granted by the Manager to Sri K. K. Chatterji, dated 5th January 1950, was marked Ext. 2 for the Union. On the side of the Company the warning notices to Sri K. K. Chatterji, Exts. A, A₁ and A₂, the Canteen Account Books, Exts. C and C₁, the letter, Ext. D and the trading accounts, Ext. B, were marked Exhibits.

The Union assails the discharge of Sri K. K. Chatterji as an instance of unfair labour practice on the part of the Company and claims his reinstatement on the following grounds:—

- (1) The dismissal of Sri K. K. Chatterji was made with an ulterior motive for his honest character and sympathy to the cause of labour and the whole case was decided with an unfair attitude of mind and as such it was a case of unfair labour practice.
- (2) The Company's order of dismissal is void as no charge-sheet was framed against Sri K. K. Chatterji and he was not offered any opportunity to defend himself as provided for in the Standing Orders of the Company.

These points will be considered below.

In evidence Sri K. K. Chatterji states that on 3rd January 1950 he supplied tea with the old stock of gur that had been purchased by him and there was no objection with that tea. He went home after 11 a.m. and came back at 1 p.m. As he reached the canteen after the mid-day recess the Manager and the Assistant Labour Officer came to his office. After they arrived in his office, the Assistant Labour Officer pointed out to Sri K. K. Chatterji and told Mr. Alexander, the Manager, that he was the root of all evil and he should be finished. The Assistant Labour Officer then went away. The Manager was in furious mood. Sri K. K. Chatterji asked the Manager to hear the cause of trouble and tried to tell him that he was not present when the trouble occurred. But the Manager did not want to hear any explanation from him and addressed him as "bloody". He protested at his using such language and requested him to hear his explanation but with no success. About an hour after the Assistant Labour Officer came to him and took over charge of office from him. He was then asked to go to the Manager's office where he was served with a written notice of discharge. Ext. 1 is that notice. In cross-examination Sri K. K. Chatterji states that the gur used in the tea was always boiled and refined before use but the gur which was purchased on 2nd January 1950 was not refined. He was in charge of the canteen and was responsible for its conduct. He also states that on 3rd January 1950 when he went home at 11 a.m., he left instructions with Lahoti as to the gur which was to be used in the tea to be supplied at 12-30 p.m. and also instructed Lahoti to refine the gur which was bought on the previous day. It is not stated in the written statement of the Union that he left instructions with Lahoti that the gur which was to be used in the tea was to be refined before use. It is also stated in the examination-in-chief of Sri K. K. Chatterji that Sri Lahoti, the clerk appointed in place of Sri A. L. Chakravarty on 1st January 1950, was a friend of Sri Bhansali. Bhansali denies the statement in his evidence. I do not find any substance in this plea. In his evidence Mr. Alexander states that as usual on his rounds of the Mills at 1-45 p.m., he visited the canteen where he saw Chatterji and his assistant Lahoti. He told them about the complaints he had had and asked for reasons. Sri K. K. Chatterji immediately told him that bad gur had been used for the tea. This the Manager considered to be a serious matter as the gur which he knew to be bad was used in the tea which was supplied. Sri Chatterji then took an aggressive attitude towards the Manager for his using bad language. In the evidence of Sri Bhansali, the Assistant Labour Officer, it appears that after the Manager left the canteen, Chatterji came to his office shouting aloud that the Manager had abused him. Chatterji addressed the clerk and said what right had a European to call an Indian "bloody". He did not desist even though requested by the Labour Officer. Sri Bhansali then sent a chit to the Manager informing him of the matter and the Manager sent back the chit with an endorsement on it saying that Sri Chatterji should be asked to go to the canteen office. This chit is Ext. D. It appears that at about 4 p.m., the Manager instructed Sri Bhansali to serve a charge-sheet for dismissal to Sri Chatterji and Bhansali conveyed the instructions to Chatterji when he began to repent and requested Bhansali to avoid an order of dismissal. Chatterji told Bhansali that he had chances of being employed elsewhere and a charge-sheet would destroy his chance elsewhere. Bhansali then requested the Manager not to dismiss Chatterji and the Manager then discharged Chatterji with one month's pay in lieu of notice. Bhansali stated in his evidence that he had no grudge against Chatterji. There is nothing on record to show that the Assistant Labour Officer had any reason to have any personal grudge against Chatterji. It appears from the evidence of the Manager that on enquiries he learnt that Sri K. K.

Chatterji had given instructions to the cook not to purify the gur that was used in the tea during his absence from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. on 3rd January 1950. This evidence is not acceptable in view of the fact that in the written statement the cause of dismissal as decided on by the Manager has been stated to be a rowdy and insolent conduct. It, therefore, appears that Sri K. Chatterji's behaviour with the Manager in the canteen office and his haranguing in the Labour Office in Hindi alleging that the Manager had abused him and called him "bloody" was the cause of his discharge. It also appears that when Sri K. K. Chatterji was about to be given a charge-sheet before his dismissal, he requested Bhansali not to serve any charge-sheet, in which case his chances for appointment in other concerns will be affected, and the Manager, therefore, discharged him with a notice and gave him pay for one month in lieu of notice.

The fact that Lahoti was appointed in place of Sri Chakrabarti as the second man in the canteen and was authorised to make purchases of foodstuffs in the market appears to me to have had something to do with the incident on 3rd January 1950. The circumstances of the case would clearly show that Sri Chatterji did not accept with a good grace the transfer of the privilege of purchasing foodstuffs in the market from him to Lahoti. He complained that the gur that was purchased on 2nd January 1950 was of very bad quality. But that was no reason why this gur should not be refined before it was used for tea. He was certainly responsible for seeing that this gur was refined before use in the tea. It has not been stated in his written statement or in the examination-in-chief of Sri K. K. Chatterji that when he left for home at 11 a.m. on 3rd January 1950, he left due instructions with Sri Lahoti for using the better quality of gur in the tea during his absence or for refining the gur that had been purchased by Sri Lahoti on the previous day although such a statement was made by him in his cross-examination at the question of the lawyer for the Company. I do not believe that he did anything of the kind and rather believe that he wished that the quality of the tea should suffer for articles purchased by Lahoti to discredit the choice of Lahoti as the person to purchase articles from the market in preference to himself, although he was the canteen-in-charge. The Union's plea that the Company discharged Chatterji with an ulterior motive for his honest character and sympathies to the cause of labour has not been substantiated and is not worthy of acceptance. The evidence on record suggests that Chatterji was very much offended with the talk of the Manager with him in the canteen and while Chatterji says that the Manager addressed him as "bloody" and the Manager denied having uttered any such word or any abuse, I am inclined to think that Sri Chatterji took exception to the Manager's words whatever they were, although I have no doubt that he might be even wrong in doing so, in case he could not clearly follow what the Manager actually said. I am, therefore, of opinion that Sri K. K. Chatterji was insolent as stated by the Manager and Bhansali after the Manager saw him at the canteen at about 1-45 p.m., but his insolence was due to his having formed the idea, rightly or wrongly, that the Manager had abused him. This fact mitigates to a great extent the severity of his delinquency in committing an insolent behaviour with the Manager of the Mill. Even then, however, a discharge on account of an insolent conduct in these circumstances would not amount to an unfair labour practice or victimisation. This point will be considered in detail below.

Sri Kritanta Kumar Chatterji was not dismissed for a misconduct but his employment was terminated with notice. An opportunity for explanation is to be afforded to the offending workman only when disciplinary action for misconduct is taken against him under section 14 of the Standing Orders framed by the Major Tribunal in their Award on the Jute Textile Industry, West Bengal, enforced on 20th September 1948 (vide page 164 of the Award). Section 13 deals with termination of employment. This section provides that in case of monthly paid permanent workmen one month's notice shall be necessary for termination of employment. It has also been laid down that it was optional for the employer to give one month's wage in lieu of notice. The termination of employment of Sri K. K. Chatterji did not, therefore, require the service of a charge-sheet on him or giving him an opportunity to defend himself. This ground of the Union shall also fail. It, therefore, appears that Sri K. K. Chatterji's employment was terminated by the Company following a rowdy and insolent conduct caused by the Manager's talk with him, which he considered to be abusive although the Manager denies it to be so. There is no question of victimisation for any trade union activity involved in the matter.

In paragraph 19 of the written statement of the Union it is stated that Sri K. K. Chatterji during the term of service under the Company was never warned or otherwise taken to task. The Company, in paragraph 4 of its written statement, states that on three occasions, viz., 12th March 1949, 21st June 1949 and 21st December 1949, he was found guilty of very serious offences, but on each occasion he was left off by the Manager after a warning. Copies of charge-sheets and warnings were annexed to the written statement of the Company. In his evidence Sri K. K. Chatterji admitted the notice of warning, Ext. A, dated 21st June 1949, for the offence of taking some foodstuffs without permission from the canteen of the Mills on 18th June 1949. It appears that the Manager directed Chatterji to pay a sum of Rs. 1-8 towards the price of the food articles taken by him by way of punishment. In his evidence Chatterji states that he took goja and nimki worth Rs. 1-8 on 18th June 1949 after having duly paid the price for the articles before he took them, but that he signed the warning, Ext. A, through fear of losing his job. He denied that the Manager realised the money after he was caught by the Jamadar at the gate. The accounts Ext. C, shows a subsequent addition of Rs. 1-8 to the total collection of the day and Ext. C₁ shows subsequent alteration of figures to show the realisation of this sum. Exts. C and C₁ clearly falsify the claim of Chatterji that he took the articles after having paid the proper price thereof in the ordinary course of business. His explanation on the point cannot, therefore, be accepted. Warnings, Exts. A₁ and A₂, dated 12th March 1949 and 21st December 1949, were denied by Chatterji in his evidence. These warnings relate to complaints of insubordination made by the Assistant Labour Officer Bhansali against him. Chatterji denied the signature on Exts. A₁ and A₂. At the cross-examination of Bhansali it was, however, suggested by the learned Advocate for the Union that these letters of warning were falsely created on previously-signed papers of Chatterji. This suggestion does not appear to be substantial. I do not, however, think that these charges of insubordination or that of the attempt at unauthorised appropriation of some foodstuffs from the canteen on 18th June 1949 has anything to do with the discharge of Chatterji on 3rd January 1950, even though the claim of Chatterji that his record of service was clean and he was never served with a notice of warning for any misconduct is unworthy of support.

I have related above in detail the grounds on which Chatterji was discharged by the Manager on 3rd January 1950. The question is if the discharge of Chatterji, in the circumstances as stated above, would amount to an unfair labour practice on the part of the Company.

"Section 8(3) of the National Labour Relations Act does not purport to interfere with the normal exercise of the employer's right to hire and fire. What the Act does purport to do, however, is to qualify that right to the extent of prohibiting its exercise as a means of interfering, restraining or coercing employees in connection with their rights to organize, form and join labour unions, or as a means of encouraging or discouraging membership in a labour union."

* * * * *

In its Third Annual Report, the Board stated that "The Board has never held it to be an unfair labour practice for an employer to hire or discharge, to promote or demote, to transfer, lay off, or reinstate, or otherwise to affect the hire, or tenure of employees or their terms or conditions of employment, for asserted reasons of business, animosity, or because of sheer caprice, so long as the employer's conduct is not wholly or in part motivated by anti-union cause" (Labour Disputes and Collective Bargaining by Ludwig Teller, pages 828 and 829).

These principles have been adopted in most of the Tribunals in India. The All-India Banking Tribunal, however, enlarged the scope of the meaning of the word "victimisation" even to grossly unfair cases of punishments and served as follows:—

"There is, however, no reason, in our opinion, why victimization should be specially connected with trade union activities, though, as a matter of fact, probably the largest number of cases of dismissals, etc., with which Industrial Courts and Tribunals are concerned are so connected. It is also undoubtedly true that in the majority of such cases the employer gives a reason for discharge or dismissal, etc., which is not the true reason. In our opinion, the expression 'victimization' should embrace all cases of discharge, dismissal, punishment inflicted on or suffering caused to an employee where such discharge, dismissal or infliction of such punishment or suffering is so unjust that a remedy is called for in the interests of justice between the parties. This is no doubt a wide definition, but it appears to be consistent with the basic meaning of victimization; we are not satisfied that a narrower technical meaning has been evolved during the history of employer-employee disputes and their management or development in the different countries of the world."

The principles enunciated by this Award were considered in detail by Sri S. C. Chakravarti in his Award on the industrial dispute between Messrs. Rampuria Cotton Mills, Ltd., and their workmen published in the Calcutta Gazette, dated 22nd June 1950. The following observations were made by the learned Judge in this Award:—

"The Statute of Law of the U.S.A. limits interference by Board only to cases where unionism is involved. It is not the whole law on the point of interference with punishments. I refer again to the decision in Quinn v. Leatham (1901) A.C. 495. Every man is free to act within his rights so long as he does not interfere with the rights of another man. When an employee is punished or discriminated for his union activities, there is an interference with his just rights recognised by the Statutes. In the Constitution of India, it has been recognised as a fundamental right. If there be a clause in the collective agreement that no person shall be punished except for a just cause or after an enquiry, the adjudicators have freely interfered. I think I may say that we should interfere in those cases where there has been any infringement or encroachment of the natural or common law rights or rights created by Statute, agreement or conditions of service. Mere entry into the service of another person does not give him any common law or statutory right to stay on. Discharge in breach of the conditions laid down in an agreement or in an award of the adjudicator would be infringement of legal rights created for the employee.

The Tribunals will have the propriety to interfere in cases involving trade unionism and also in cases where there has been an encroachment of any natural, contractual, statutory or legal rights of the employee."

Viewing the matter of the discharge of Sri K. K. Chatterji in the light of the principles enunciated above it does not appear that this discharge was motivated by any anti-union cause or that it was an encroachment on the rights of the employee or that in the whole, the order of discharge was so grossly unjust that a remedy was called for in the interests of justice between the parties. The employee was found responsible for neglect of duty and thereafter when he was asked to explain, he resorted to a rowdy and insolent behaviour with the Manager of the concern. The Manager terminated the employment of the employee in accordance with the Standing Orders of the Company after due notice. There is nothing to show that the discharge was made with any ulterior motive or that the Company exceeded its rights of exercise of Management functions as employers in effecting this termination of service. It is, therefore, decided that the discharge of Sri K. K. Chatterji was not an instance of unfair labour practice on the part of the Company and it is awarded accordingly.

Issue No. 2.

From what has been decided in the foregoing issue it is clear that Sri K. K. Chatterji is not entitled to reinstatement to his post as claimed by the Union. The Union's claim for reinstatement of Sri Chatterji is, therefore, rejected.

The next point for consideration is whether Sri Chatterji is entitled to any compensation for termination of service. The evidence on record clearly shows that for some reason, may be wrongly, Chatterji thought that he had been abused by the Manager and he raised serious protests over this matter. The Manager denied that he used any abusive language to Chatterji. As has been mentioned above this fact mitigates to a certain extent the severity of the misconduct of the employee. I consider that although the Company was within its rights to terminate the employment of the employee, the latter should be paid some compensation for this termination of service, in view of the circumstances of the case. It appears that Chatterji used to draw a basic salary of Rs. 58 per month and he was in the service of the Company from 1st May 1948 to 2nd January 1950. On a consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case, it is decided that the Company should pay Rs. 125 to Sri K. K. Chatterji by way of compensation for termination of service and it is awarded accordingly. This compensation should be paid by the Company to Sri K. K. Chatterji within three weeks of the date on which this Award comes into operation.

This issue is accordingly answered.

M. C. BANERJI,

Tribunal, Industrial Disputes

The 31st July 1950.

By order of the Governor,

D. S. P. MUKHERJEE, Jt. Secy

ORDER.

No. 4601Lab.—19th August 1950.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 4266Lab., dated the 26th November 1948, the industrial dispute between the Britannia Engineering Co., Ltd., Titagarh, 24-Parganas (Head Office: McLeod House, Post Box No. 78, Calcutta), and their workmen represented by the Britannia Engineering Works Mazdoor Union, Titagarh, 24-Parganas, in connection with the question of Puja bonus to the workmen was referred for adjudication to Sri P. R. Mukherjee, District Judge;

And whereas the said Sri P. R. Mukherjee, District Judge, has submitted to the State Government his award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE.

In the matter of an industrial dispute between the Britannia Engineering Co., Ltd., Titagarh, 24-Parganas (Head Office: McLeod House, Post Box No. 78, Calcutta), and their workmen represented by the Britannia Engineering Works Mazdoor Union, Titagarh, 24-Parganas.

PRESENT: SRI P. R. MUKHERJEE, Judge, Industrial Tribunal.

For the Company: Sri S. C. Sen, Advocate, Sri J. K. Ghose, Pleader.

For the Union: Sri D. L. Sen Gupta, Pleader, Sardar Darsan Singh, President of the Union.

AWARD.

By Government order No. 4266Lab., dated the 26th November 1948, the above dispute was referred to me for adjudication as a Tribunal constituted under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

Reference has been made in connection with the dispute over payment of Puja bonus to the workmen.

The case of the Union is that the Company is an Engineering concern and was a party to the Engineering Industries Tribunal appointed by the Government of West Bengal with Sri S. K. Sen, I.C.S., as Chairman, that the Company is carrying on its business for about 35 years and is a prosperous one and employs about 1,300 workmen.

On the eve of the Puja, the clerks, subordinate staff, Doctor, compounder, office boy, motor drivers, foremen and supervisors of the factory are granted bonus while the monthly paid durwans and the other factory workmen are deprived of the privilege of the same. That the Engineering Tribunal for difficulties arising out of the failure to supply the balance-sheets of the Company left the question of future bonus open for future adjudication. The Union alleges that considering the earning of huge profit of the Company, the workmen who had not been privileged to get the Puja bonus of 1948, should be granted the same. The Company opposed the claim on the ground that the Major Engineering Tribunal had rejected the prayer for bonus for past years as also future bonus and that the said Award is in force up to 31st March 1949. The claim is, therefore, not maintainable under section 15(4) and section 19 of the Industrial Disputes Act. It is also urged that the Company never paid bonus to the menial workers of the factory but paid such bonus to the clerical staff only all along.

ISSUES.

- (1) Is the Tribunal debarred from adjudicating the dispute in view of the provisions of section 15(4) and section 19 of the Industrial Disputes Act?
- (2) Are the workmen entitled to the Puja bonus of last year?

Issue No. 1.—Is the Tribunal debarred from adjudicating the dispute in view of the provisions of section 15(4) and section 19 of the Industrial Disputes Act?

It is contended by Mr. Sen on behalf of the Company that inasmuch as the present concern was a party to the Major Engineering Tribunal and inasmuch as the same Tribunal had rejected the claim for bonus both for past and future years, cognisance of the dispute is barred both under section 15(4) and under provisions of section 19 of the Industrial Disputes Act. Reading these above two sections of the Industrial Disputes Act, it is clear that during operation of an Award, no further adjudication varying the terms of the Award should be made and as such if really the Major Engineering Tribunal had rejected the claim for such bonus, then certainly this Tribunal has got no jurisdiction to entertain the claim. Now reading the Award of the Major Engineering Tribunal and the relevant portion thereof, it is clear that the Tribunal in its issue No. 18 discussed the question of bonus under 3 heads—

- (1) Bonus for past years.
- (2) Bonus for future.
- (3) Bonus for increased production.

We are concerned with the bonus for last year and there the Tribunal made this pertinent observation "In connection with this question, the rule adopted generally is that where a particular firm has been paying bonus from profits for several years, it should pay bonus for the year last ended provided it earned similar profits in that year..... But we are not in a position to make any Award on bonus on the result of the last financial year, because no Company has placed the balance-sheet of the year ended on 31st March 1948 before us. Accordingly, we shall leave this issue with the recommendation that the Companies which have been paying a bonus in the last few years should pay a bonus for the year just ended, if circumstances are similar, i.e., if they have earned comparable profits." From the above it is clear that the Tribunal was not in a position to make a definite Award for past bonus inasmuch as the balance-sheets of many Companies were not submitted and could not be submitted at the time of the hearing. The Tribunal, however, wanted to maintain status quo saying that the existing practice of paying bonus should not be disturbed or, in other words, the privileges which are already enjoyed by workers in a particular Company should not be taken away. Regarding the propriety of bonus to be granted to workers who did not get it or to certain other sections who are deprived of the same, the Tribunal was not in a position to adjudicate for reasons already stated and so clearly the question was left open and was not at all gone into nor decided this way or that.

Mr. Sen put forward a strong plea in support of the Company that when the Tribunal has not specifically granted the claim for past bonus, it must be deemed to have rejected the prayer on the principle of constructive res judicata. In my opinion, the portion quoted above clearly shows that there was no adjudication and there was no rejection of the claim even by application for the Tribunal did not at all go into the question nor could it go into it not because of the initial or inherent weakness of the claim but because there was no material before it sufficient for the purpose of adjudication. It would be twisting the plain meaning of the finding to say that the claim was rejected by implication. I may also say that in the earlier part on the question of bonus, the Tribunal definitely rejected the claim for past years.

The precise interpretation of what had been meant by the Major Engineering Tribunal was a question raised before my learned colleague Mr. P. K. Sarkar who was also a member of the Engineering Tribunal. He had in two able judgments—one in Messrs. Jessop & Co., and the other in Burn & Co.—held that so far as the dispute over the bonus for firms paying bonus is concerned, it was a question left open and not decided adversely against the workers who are deprived of the privileges of the same. I also agree with him in all his findings, and hold that this Tribunal has got jurisdiction to decide the question as it is an existing dispute and the present workers of the Union cannot be prevented from raising that before the Tribunal.

Issue No. 2.—Are the workmen entitled to the Puja bonus of last year?

Once it is decided that it is a new dispute not adjudicated upon by the Major Engineering Tribunal, this Tribunal will now proceed to consider the respective points of merit urged by both. It is admitted that this Company had paid bonus to certain section of workers and excluded certain other categories. It is urged by the Union that this indiscriminate treatment is an unfair labour practice. It is urged on behalf of the Company, however, that the factory workers have got additional advantages to earn overtime allowances which the other section had not got. It is simply to compensate less fortunate class that this system of bonus is restricted to them. In my opinion, the reason is not very convincing for if the factory workers earn excess remuneration, it is not because of the generosity on the part of the Company but because of the excess labour they had put and placed (overtime) their tired shoulders to the wheel of the machine. The Company is also benefited by their extra labour. In my opinion, it is all the more necessary that all these factory workers who play important part in production and consequently materially contribute to the earning of profit of the Company should in justice and fairness be given a fair portion of the bonus.

On considering, therefore, the point on fact and also on law, I make the following

AWARD.

That the Puja bonus of the year 1948 be granted to the monthly paid durwans and factory workers on the same scale as other workers had been paid

The petition of appeal shall be accompanied by the original order, notice or report appealed against, or by a copy thereof; or where no such order, notice, or report has been made in writing, by a clear statement of the facts appealed against, the grounds of appeal, and the relevant section of the Act.

38. On receipt of an appeal, the Chief Inspector shall, if the appeal is to be heard by himself, at once fix a date for hearing the appeal; and if it is to be heard by the appellate authority, obtain a date for the hearing of the appeal from the President of that authority. No delay shall be made in deciding appeals. The decision shall ordinarily be given within fifteen days from the receipt of the petition of appeal.

VIII.—Administrative Instructions for Registration.

45. Inspectors shall carry out the technical instructions for the registration of boilers, as laid down in Part II of the Regulations, with the greatest care and precision, as the details of measurement recorded at the time of registration constitute a permanent record for the boiler and determine the original pressure at which the boiler is allowed to work.

Importance of registration

46. Applications for registration under sub-section (1) of section 7 shall be made to the Inspector in accordance with the provisions of rule 12. No boiler shall be registered if on measurement the fee is found to be deficient until the deficit has been paid. Any excess payment will be refunded according to rule 6.

Receipt of
tions

47. The Chief Inspector shall maintain a register of registered boilers in serial order in Form A in two parts; in Part I (boilers originally registered in the State) the registered number of a boiler shall be the one immediately following the last serial number in the register. Gap numbers due to boilers being broken up or transferred to another State shall not be filled up. In Part II (boilers originally registered in other States) entries shall be made as prescribed in rule 49.

Procedure
of a boiler.

48. Whenever a boiler is transferred from one State to another, the owner shall, under section 6 (b), apply to the Chief Inspector of the State to which the boiler is transferred, for the registration of the transfer; the boiler cannot be used until registration has been effected. The Chief Inspector shall then obtain from that State the registration book and memorandum of inspection book of the boiler. No fee shall be charged for recording transfer.

50. Whenever a boiler has been transferred to another State or broken up, the fact shall be noted in the register.

In the case of a boiler that has been permanently dismantled the registration book and the memorandum of inspection book shall be destroyed.

Reference to previous inspection.

51. Inspectors shall carry out the inspection of boilers in accordance with the detailed instructions contained in Part II of the Regulations. The Inspector previous to an inspection shall scrutinize the memorandum of inspection book and shall note any entries that may have been made at the last inspection orders.

53. All certificates shall be issued from the head office after being countersigned by the Chief Inspector.

A provisional order shall be issued in each case of registration after the hydraulic test if the Inspector is satisfied. The steam test may be taken at any convenient time within the period of the provisional order, after which, if the test is satisfactory, the certificate under section 7 of the Act shall be issued.

A provisional order shall also be issued after each completed inspection for renewal of the certificate so as to give authority for the use of the boiler pending the issue of the certificate

The period specified in any certificate or provisional order shall begin on the day following that on which the completed hydraulic test or thorough inspection is made.

REGULATION 150.

(A) PREPARATION FOR THOROUGH INSPECTION.

At every inspection of a boiler for the grant or renewal of a certificate, boiler shall be empty and thoroughly clean in all its parts. All doors manholes, handholes and sight-holes and cleaning plugs and all caps in headers and mud-drums of water-tube boilers, all firebars, bearers, stay plates, bridge plates, fire-bridges, brick arches, oil fuel burners and manual stocker fittings shall be removed. All valves and cocks coming into the boiler mountings shall be opened up and taken apart and the valves and cocks ground, when necessary, before the Inspector's visit.

Provision shall be made for the removal of lagging or brickwork or anything concealing part and for the drilling of plates, if required by the Inspector, and for verifying the pressure gauge and safety valve dimensions and weights. All smoke tubes, exterior of water tubes, smoke boxes, and boiler flues must be swept clean.

Provision shall be made for the effective disconnection of all steam and water communication with any other boilers under steam, as prescribed in Part III of the regulations. This shall be effected either by the removal of a length of pipe from the steam feed piping or by the insertion of substantial blank flanges. Where blank flanges are employed, they shall be inserted between the flange of the chest and the pipe attached to it. No blank flange shall be inserted between a safety valve chest and the boiler.

Note. These provisions as to effective disconnection shall extend to every case in which a person is sent, or with the assent of the owner or person in charge goes, into a boiler for any purpose. See Part III of the Regulations.

(B) PREPARATION FOR HYDRAULIC TEST.

The chest of all mountings subject to steam pressure shall be in place and shut tight or blank-flanged. The safety valves shall either be jammed in place or removed and the chest-opening blank-flanged. The attachment of the Inspector's pressure gauge and the nipple† for connecting the Inspector's test pump hose shall be in order. All doors shall be properly opened and tightened up. The boiler shall be completely filled with water, being taken to allow all air to escape and, if possible, a preliminary test not exceeding the working pressure of the boiler shall be taken before the Inspector's visit to test the tightness of the joints. When a boiler hydraulically tested for the first time, it shall be entirely cleared of lagging or brickwork; at subsequent tests the lagging or brickwork, or portions thereof, shall be removed if required by the Inspector.

LABOUR DEPARTMENT

ORDER.

4655Lab.—22nd August 1950.—Whereas under the Government of Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 615Lab., dated the 6th February 1950, read with its addendum No. 1191Lab., dated the 13th March 1950, the industrial dispute between the Indian Aluminium Co., 414, Grand Trunk Road, Belur, post office Belur Math, Howrah, and employees represented by the Indian Aluminium Belur Works Employees' Union, 336, Grand Trunk Road, post office Belur Math, regarding the matter specified in the schedule thereto was referred for adjudication to Sri A. Das Gupta, District Judge; and whereas the said Sri A. Das Gupta, District Judge, has submitted to the State Government his award on the said industrial dispute;

now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE.

The matter of reference No. 615Lab., dated the 6th February 1950, and addendum No. 1191Lab., dated the 13th March 1950, of the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, and in the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Indian Aluminium Co., Ltd., 414, Grand Trunk Road, Belur, post office Belur Math, Howrah, and their employees represented by the Indian Aluminium Belur Works Employees' Union, 336, Grand Trunk Road, post office Belur Math, Howrah.

PRESENT: SRI A. DAS GUPTA, District Judge.

For employers: Dr. J. K. Bose, Labour Adviser, assisted by Sri A. Das Gupta, Works Manager, and Sri B. K. Murthy, Controller of Production.

For employees: Sri P. K. Sanyal, Advocate, and Sri Nalini Mohan Mukherjee, Pleader, assisted by Sri S. C. Bhattacharya, and Sri D. P. Das, Joint Secretaries of the Union.

The following are the points for adjudication:—

House rent.

Annual bonus.

Increase in the maximum rates of wages in different grades.

Pay for the strike period.

Payment of gratuity to the workers on retirement.

Increase of Provident Fund contribution and other facilities allowable according to the Provident Fund Rules.

Increase of extra production bonus rates.

For the history of the dispute may be necessary for a clear understanding of the case. A Major Tribunal was appointed in 1947 by order No. 718Lab., dated 1st October 1947, of the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department to adjudicate upon the disputes in nearly 182 engineering firms in Bengal, including the Indian Aluminium Co., Ltd., which was serial

No. 40 of list No. I appended to the order of reference. A Tribunal constituted with Sri S. K. Sen, I.C.S., as Chairman and Sri P. K. Sar and Sri P. R. Mukherjee as Members. The award given in pursuance of the order was published in the Calcutta Gazette under order No. 21611, dated 30th June 1948, of the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, and was in force for one year from 30th June 1948. Most of the points referred to this Tribunal for adjudication are covered by the award.

Before expiry of the operative period of the last award, the Union submitted a charter of demands to the Company. This was on 21st May 1949. The charter of demands is Annexure A to the written statement. As the Company did not implement any of these demands, the Union wrote to the Company on 10th December 1949, stressing upon some of the demands submitted on 21st May 1949, viz., dearness allowance, house rent, and bonus and increment of maximum rates. The letter is Annexure B to the Union's written statement. The Company replied to the letter of the Union on 17th December 1949 (Annexure C of the Union's written statement).

About dearness allowance, the Company pleaded that the Government was contemplating to constitute an omnibus Tribunal for revision of dearness allowance and that the Company would implement the decision of the Tribunal that might be announced.

Regarding the demand for annual bonus, the reply of the Company was that the production bonus scheme initiated by the Company assured bonus in a most satisfactory manner in direct proportion to the work consistent with the policy "fair return for fair work".

The Company rejected the demand for house rent on the ground that the pay structure was fixed by the last Tribunal, taking into consideration the demands of the employees on this point.

The demand for increase of maximum rates of wages was also rejected.

At the instance of the employees, a general discussion was arranged on 30th December 1949 between Mr. J. W. Cameron of the Company and J. Neogi, President of the Union. During this joint discussion the President of the Union pressed for one month's pay as bonus and an increase of 3 per cent. in the dearness allowance to avoid a strike which the employees had been contemplating. The discussions were continued by the Union by a letter of the same date (Annexure D of the Union's written statement). On 31st December 1949 the Union wrote to the Works Manager of the Company reviewing the demands stressed in the letter of the 30th December 1949. By this letter a clear intimation was given to the Works Manager that the workers would go on strike on and from 15th January 1950. Before actually striking work, the Employees' Union wrote to the Works Manager, advising precautionary measures relating to the personnel and equipments of the Company (Annexure E of the written statement). Then a joint conference was held in the office of the Assistant Labour Commissioner, Howrah, on 9th January 1950, but no conciliation was achieved. The discussions were put into writing by the Union (Annexure G of the Union's written statement). The Assistant Labour Commissioner was asked to have recommended implementation of the modified demands of the President of the Union placed at the joint discussion held on 31st December 1949. With a view to carry out a peaceful strike without any damage to the Company's properties, the Union entered into an agreement with the Works Manager on 14th January 1950, as embodied in Annexure H to the Union's written statement. The strike actually commenced on 16th January 1950, 15th January having been a Sunday.

truth of the financial position of the Company is also very relevant in the present enquiry. The following extract from the audited balance sheet of the Company will indicate their financial position :—

ides, the industry is working on an overdraft which stood to Rs. 75,000 on 30th September 1949.

Company is subsidised by the Union Government and this subsidy is granted to the Company as a whole and not to any particular part of it. The Company have quoted in their written statement an extract from the Government of India resolution, dated the 15th May 1950, the correctness of which was not disputed by the Union. The extract is given below :—

"The Government have considered this report in consultation with the Union Board and have decided that the Indian Aluminium Company, Ltd. and the Aluminium Corporation of India should be subsidised to the extent of the difference between the fair selling price of their production, on the one hand, and their respective costs of production and the fair selling price of similar imported articles."

This subsidy is based on the principle of allowing the Company a small margin of profit above cost of production, without any regard whatsoever to the interests of the share-holders. The following extract from the report of the Indian Aluminium Corporation Board on the aluminium industry will clearly indicate this :—

"The usual practice followed by the Board is to allow 4 per cent. interest on block capital and 10 per cent. profit on the block. If the interest and profit had been calculated on this basis in the present case, they would have amounted roughly to Rs. 700 per ton, which is quite out of proportion not only to the cost of production but also to the price of imported aluminium. The block in the case of the Company is Rs. 151 lakhs and the working capital is estimated roughly at Rs. 25 lakhs, equal to six months' turnover. The profit which we have allowed, viz., 10 per cent. on cost, represents 2½ per cent. on the block and working capital put together. This may appear somewhat low, but it has to be remembered that for a concern like the Company, the cost of block capital is very high and the usual return of 10 per cent. on block capital is not feasible in the circumstances, be accepted, particularly at a time when the Company is struggling to make both ends meet and is claiming a subsidy to enable it to withstand competition from abroad."

No dividend has been given to the ordinary share-holders since the very beginning of the industry and whatever profits have resulted, have been ploughed back for improvement of the equipments. The Union filed a statement in 1949 showing that the Company earned a net profit of Rs. 13,24,450 in 1948 and Rs. 37,23,562 in 1949. This did not agree with the Company's accounts as found from their books. The Union could not certify the accounts produced by it as correct. The certificate appended to the account "certified to be approximately correct". The discrepancies were in the quantity of production of different items and the price of metal. According to the Union's accounts, price of metal was Rs. 2,125 per ton both in 1948 and 1949, but we find from the Government letter No. 91. IV(19)/48, dated 22nd September 1948, that the price of metal was Rs. 2,680 per ton ex Always plus Rs. 100 for transport charges. In September 1949 the price went up to Rs. 2,680 per ton ex Always (Government letter No. DM3/177/49, dated September 1949). (These letters were produced at the hearing and taken back.) It is thus clear that the accounts submitted by the Union cannot be relied upon. This is a limited Company and its balance sheets which are deposited with the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies are public documents, as defined in the Indian Evidence Act. They have a strong presumptive value and in the absence of any cogent evidence to the contrary, the presumption stands.

Most of the points which have been referred to me for adjudication were adjudicated upon by the Major Engineering Tribunal constituted by Government Order No. 716 Lab. of the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, dated 31st October 1947. The award of the Major Tribunal was published on 30th June 1948 and was in force for one year from that date. The operation period of the award has since expired.

On principle one Adjudicator should not change the previous award without proof of any altered circumstances. In the case of B.E.S.T. Company, Limited, Bombay, Sir H. V. Divatia observed:

"Without going so far as to say that the employees are barred by res judicata, any demands which are made before me and are covered by the decision in the previous adjudications cannot be proceeded now unless the employees prove any change of circumstances after the previous decision. If there has been no change of circumstances, the mere ground that the previous Adjudicator had not granted a demand would not, in my opinion, justify the employees in repeating the same demand before a new Adjudicator, because that would be substantially asking one Adjudicator to set aside his judgment over the decision of another Adjudicator." (Bombay Labour Gazette, December 1947, page 482.)

In the award for the Tinsplate Company of India, Limited, Gurgaon, Jamsheerpur, published in the Bihar Gazette (Extraordinary), dated 1st March 1949, Sri F. Jeejeebhoy held the same view. He observed:

"In a consideration of this subject we must start with the fundamental concept that an award of the Tribunal has the same force as any other award or decision and is entitled to the same respect. And it is but a corollary to this concept that the principle of res judicata should apply so that the same facts and in the same circumstances the issues decided may not be re-tried in fresh proceedings with a view to securing a different decision. If it were otherwise, there would be no finality of decisions, with the unfortunate result that labour, unsuccessful on an issue, would wait discontented, restless and impatient for the period of the notification to elapse and would then embark on go-slow tactics and other equally questionable means to force a fresh reference from the Government in the absence of any change of circumstances.

* * * * *

As I conceive it, an award is final and binding for all times in matters relating to personal rights, as for instance, victimization; and an award of agreement of parties on all other matters like wage structure, facilities, amenities, etc., is final and binding until altered by consent of parties or replaced by a fresh award based on change of circumstances. Such prevailing concept of awards and agreements in other countries which are equally conscious of the claims of labour, and it is in consonance with natural justice and with recognised legal principles."

It there has been any change of circumstances, which are apparent and which a judicial notice can be taken, the question of onus ceases to have any effect. It shall be my duty to discuss how far the new demands of the Union on matters adjudicated upon by the last Tribunal are justified. I shall discuss whether there has been any change of circumstances, what that change is and how far it justifies a review of the previous award when it takes up the individual demands.

Point 1.—House rent.

This point was adjudicated upon by the Major Tribunal under Issue No. 6. The learned Judges of the Major Tribunal, after reviewing the Industrial Housing Sub-Committee's Report, published by the Government of India in May 1946, and the report of the Labour Investigation Committee of the Government of India and all circumstances connected with the demand, rejected it. The award was published in June 1948. Since then, there has been no change in the circumstances justifying review of the last award, which embodies the considered opinion of three Judges. I am not, therefore, in a position to deviate from the last award on this point.

Points 2 and 7.—Annual bonus and increase of extra production bonus rates.

These points were dealt with by the Major Tribunal under issue 18(i) and 18(ii). The learned Judges did not award any annual bonus. They, however, recommended that the Company, which had paid bonus in the past, might continue giving annual bonus to the employees in similar circumstances, or in other words, if they had earned comparable profits. About the scheme for production bonus, the demand of the employees had the approval of the learned Judges and they observed:

"We recommend that some steps be taken for working out the standard production and evolve a scheme of production bonus, for a scheme of production bonus is likely to increase production."

Bonus which is not linked up with attendance or production may either be deferred wages or customary bonus. Workmen may demand bonus as deferred wages only when the wages paid to them by the employer are not fair. Fair wages is not an absolute term. Fair wages must be fixed against the background of the general economic condition of the country and the level of the national income, with due regard to the interest of the community as a whole. The Union did not claim bonus as deferred wages; it did suggest that the wages paid to the workmen were not fair. From the written statement of the Union, it is clear that the Union demands bonus on the ground that the Company have earned huge profits. I have already discussed the financial position of the Company and it is clear that from improvement, it had deteriorated. The percentage of the net profit to the capital invested is gradually on the decrease. The demand of the Union for annual bonus can by no means be supported on ethical principles. In the interest of the industry, the Company introduced a scheme of production bonus in January 1949. Although the scheme was introduced in the interest of the industry, the employees were substantially benefited by the scheme. The scheme of production bonus should be more welcome to the workmen than a scheme of profit-sharing bonus. Profit of an industry is dependant on many factors, over which the employees have no control and profits may dwindle for reasons for which the employees are not at all responsible. But if bonus is linked with production, the employees may earn the bonus by bona fide and honest attempts. The existing production bonus scheme has been detailed in Annexure XXIV of the Company's written statement. Under the bonus scheme, the employees were to give an outturn of 340 ingots in a day. The existing rates are—

(1) For workers—

(a) Productive—40 per cent. of the total earning including dearness allowance but not overtime allowance.

(b) Non-productive—20 per cent. of the total earning including dearness allowance but not overtime allowance.

(2) For staff—

(a) Productive—12½ per cent. of the total earning including dearness allowance but not overtime allowance.

(b) Non-productive—6½ per cent. of the total earning including dearness allowance but not overtime allowance.

The Union demands an increase of these rates as indicated below—

(1) For workers—

(a) Productive—60 per cent. of the total earning including dearness allowance but not overtime allowance.

(b) Non-productive—30 per cent. of the total earning including dearness allowance but not overtime allowance.

(2) For staff—

(a) Productive—30 per cent. of the total earning including dearness allowance but not overtime allowance.

(b) Non-productive—20 per cent. of the total earning including dearness allowance but not overtime allowance.

Annexures XXVI and XXVII to the Company's written statement show that the actual production did not mostly come up to the estimated production, although in some of the departments more men were employed. These were considered necessary under the scheme. Only in November and December 1949 the average daily production exceeded the estimate. The excess in these two months could not make up the deficiency in the other ten months. The average daily production during the year 1949 was 237 tons less than the estimated production. The Company have filed an estimate of the Costing Accountant to show that the present rates are more than what the employees should be entitled to, if they had given the full estimated outturn. The extra production bonus scheme was introduced with a view to raise the production from 300 tons to 340 tons a day. The following figures may indicate the position of the existing rates:—

Total expenditure in 1949—Rs. 14,66,040 (a).

Wages and salaries on which bonus is paid—Rs. 5,19,754 (b)

Bonus paid—Rs. 1,35,676 (c).

(b) is 39 per cent. of (a) and (c) is 26 per cent. of (b). Increase in the output is 13.3 per cent. Operative supplies, repairs and maintenance power and fuel amounting to Rs. 3,83,500 are variable expense and for per cent. of the total expenditure. Hence deducting these expenses and expenses on wages and salaries, the balance 35 per cent. is fixed expenditure, on which reduction in cost is possible by increased production. The saving would be $4\frac{2}{3}$ per cent. but the increase in the expenditure on account of extra production bonus would be 10·1 per cent. of the total cost. Even supposing all expenses excepting labour are stationary, the saving due to extra production would be 8 per cent. In any case the expenditure which is being incurred by the industry under the existing extra bonus scheme, is not neutralised by the saving in the expenditure on account of extra production. The following is a comparative chart of the average production per day in terms of labour and machinery in 1948 and 1949:—

	1948.	1949.
	Tons.	Tons.
Total production	1,908	3,619
Average labour strength per day	336	402
Machine hours available for production per day	208	264
Number of days worked in the year	238	313
Average production per day in terms of labour and machine hours	1,908	3,619
	$238 \times 336 \div 208$	$313 \times 402 \div 264$
	= 3,000·115	= 3,000·109

It has been contended that increase in the extra production bonus scheme was recommended by the Works Committee on the 27th April 1949. This was only a recommendation. There is nothing to show that the Works Committee scrutinised the financial position of the Company, both before and after the introduction of the extra bonus scheme before they recommended increment in the rates. It was unfair on the part of the Union to lay much stress upon the recommendation of the Works Committee, which was not based on facts and figures. I have looked into the financial position of the Company and the existing scheme of extra production bonus and I cannot see any way to direct an increment of the existing rates. The scheme was introduced only a short time before the demand for increment of the rates was placed before the employer. The Union should have in all fairness waited for a sufficient period of time to see how the scheme worked.

I am told by the Company's representatives that the existing production bonus scheme costs the Company Rs. 13,000 monthly. If the rates are fixed, as demanded by the Union, the increment in the expenditure will be Rs. 9,700 per month, or Rs. 1,12,400 per annum. The total expenditure on account of bonus at two months' wages is likely to come up to Rs. 65,000, and in the last year the gross profit without making any provision for taxation is only Rs. 72,045. These calculations were submitted in writing, a copy hereof was made over to the Union's representative. Nothing could be shown to prove that the calculations were substantially wrong. It is thus clear that the present financial position of the Company, apart from all circumstances, does not justify the Company to accede to any of these demands of the Union, either in part or in full.

Point 3. - Increment in the maximum rates of wages in different grades.

The maximum rates of wages of the workers of different categories were not fixed by the last award. I am not, therefore, debarred from revising the maximum rates of wages of the workers of different grades, provided existing maxima appear to me to be grossly inadequate. The detailed wage structure introduced on the 4th October 1948 over the signature of Mr. Stork the then Works Manager, has been placed before me. On an analysis, fix the minima and maxima as detailed below :—

Grades of workers.			Minima.			Maxima
			Rs. a. p.			Rs. a
Unskilled	1	2	6	1	8
							1	10
							1	12
							1	12
Semi-skilled	1	5	6	1	10
							1	12
							1	14
							2	12
							3	14
							1	12
Skilled	1	6	0	1	14
							2	12
							3	14
							1	12

							3	14
							3	14
							4	14
Highly skilled	1	12	6	3	14

The maxima of Re. 1-8 and Re. 1-10 for unskilled workers and of Re. 1-10 to Re. 1-14 for semi-skilled workers and Re. 1-14 to Rs. 2-4 for skilled workers and Rs. 3-14 for highly skilled workers appear to me to be quite inadequate. I accordingly direct that the maximum rate of wages for unskilled workers shall not be less than Re. 1-12, for semi-skilled workers Rs. 2, for skilled workers Rs. 2-8 and for highly skilled workers Rs. 4-0. The workers who are now getting the maximum which have been increased, shall get the next increment at the beginning of the next financial year of the Company. The rates of increments shall be what were before they reached the existing maxima.

Points 5 and 6.—Gratuity and increase of Provident Fund contribution and other facilities allowable according to the Provident Fund Rules.

The demands for Provident Fund and gratuity were adjudicated upon by the last Major Tribunal under Issue No. 8. The learned Judges allowed only one kind of retiring benefit and that was Contributory Provident Fund with a scheme of gratuity for the period anterior to institution of the Provident Fund scheme. Normally there is only one kind of retirement benefit in the engineering industry in West Bengal. There has been no change of circumstances since the publication of the last award. Strictly speaking, the financial position of the present industry has not improved. I find no reason to enlarge upon the scheme of retirement benefits laid down by the learned Judges in the last award; nor do I find any justification to deviate from the general practice prevalent in engineering industries in West Bengal. The present Company has a Provident Fund scheme. The rules are printed and have been placed before me. All that I can direct is that the existing scheme should be improved to the maximum limit permitted by the existing rules. I have been referred to rule 6, which provides for increased rates of subscription. The minimum subscription of every member of the firm has been at 6½ per cent. of his salary or wages for a month. This is compulsory. No permission is necessary for subscribing 6½ per cent. of the salary. The rule for subscribing at a higher rate is that "any member may by giving written notice to the Trustees before joining the Fund and after obtaining the permission in writing of the Company fix the percentage of his salary or wages which he proposes to subscribe to the Fund for the ensuing year at a higher percentage than 6½ per cent. Such percentage of more than 6½ per cent. shall not exceed 12½ per cent. and shall remain constant for the year". For increase in the rates of subscription, two conditions are to be fulfilled, viz., (1) the intending member is to give a written notice about the increased rate of subscription to the Trustees before he joins the Fund, (2) he is to obtain necessary permission in writing of the Company for subscribing at the increased rate.

This permission of the Company will necessarily depend upon its financial resources. Now that the Company cannot bear the extra burden of increased contribution, which may necessarily follow if the rates of subscription are increased, I am not in a position to give any definite direction. Besides, under the rules of Provident Fund, the matter is discretionary with the Company. I may only recommend that if the financial position of the Company improves, rule 6 may be liberally interpreted in favour of the employees.

The Union demands some representatives of the employees on the Board of Trustees. Under the existing rules, the Trustees are five in number, three of which are Directors of the Company and two are members of the Fund. All the Trustees are, however, to be nominated by the Company. The employees have thus two representatives in the Board of Trustees. I recommend that the employees' representatives may be selected by election. The employees may elect double the number in the vacancies of Trustees reserved for members of the Fund and the Company may nominate the requisite number from among the elected nominees of the employees. This election may be conducted on an All-India basis.

The employees want some provision in the rules for loans. Rule 39 provides for advances from Provident Fund. I recommend that the provision may be extended to the employees in suitable cases.

Point 4.—Pay for the strike period.

It has been settled that a strike must be both lawful and just to entitle an employee to wages for the strike period. In the notice of strike, the Union reiterated its demand for dearness allowance, house rent, annual bonus, and increase in the maximum rate of wages. These demands were placed before the Company by the Union by a letter, dated 10th December 1949. In the reply, which was sent to the Union on 17th December 1949, the Works Manager stated that the demand for house rent was not maintainable in view of the decision of the last Tribunal. About annual bonus, it was stated that the production bonus scheme introduced by the Company meets the demands of the workmen for bonus in a satisfactory manner.

Referring to the demand for dearness allowance, the Works Manager stated that the Government was contemplating to set up an omnibus Tribunal to decide the question and the Company would be agreeable to implement whatever such Tribunal might award.

About increase of maximum rates, the Company regretted that this could not be undertaken.

In the joint discussion between the President of the Union and Mr. Cameron, the President demanded only one month's wages as annual bonus and an interim increase of dearness allowance by 3 per cent. of the wages. It appears that the President modified the Union's demands made from time to time and the Company was given to understand that if these minimum demands were agreed to by the Company, there would be no immediate strike. So far as house rent and annual bonus were concerned, the reply of the Works Manager was quite reasonable.

Besides, as I have shown above, the Company were not in a position to meet the modified demands of the Union for one month's wages as bonus. That would cost the Company about Rs. 32,500. The Company earned a gross profit of only Rs. 72,045 in 1949 and were on a overdraft of Rs. 33,75,000.

About dearness allowance, the Government was actually contemplating at that time to set up a Major Tribunal to revise the dearness allowance payable to workers in the engineering industry in West Bengal and in fact the Tribunal has since been set up. The hearing has been concluded and the reference is pending for award. The Works Manager's reply on this point was also not unreasonable. On the 6th January 1950, the Union appears to have circulated a leaflet in which the Union stated that it had no faith in Tribunals, or in other words, the Union was not willing to submit to the machineries set up by the Government for peaceful settlement of industrial disputes. This attitude of the Union can hardly have any justification.

The demand for the increase of maximum rates of wages was rejected by the Works Manager without assigning any reason whatsoever but the fact remains that the financial position of the Company has not improved since when the existing wage structure was set up. In view of the financial position of the Company, it was rather difficult for the Company to increase the maximum rates of wages by 25 per cent., as demanded by the Union. The Company's unwillingness to implement any of the demands stressed by the Union was not unreasonable, specially when they have not paid a single farthing to the ordinary share-holders. Each and every man is called upon to make some sacrifice on account of the economic depression in the country, low national income and high price of cost of living. There is nothing unjustifiable in the conduct of the Company in refusing the demand. I have increased the maximum rates of wages in some cases only, because the maximum rates in these cases were comparatively low. I did so to bring in a uniformity in the pay structure of the workers of the same categories in the present industry, so that there may not be a wide disparity between the maximum wages of the different grades of the same categories of workers, unskilled, semi-skilled, skilled and highly skilled. In spite of the deteriorating condition of the general financial position of the industry, I increase the maximum of some of the grades of pay as they exist for the worker.

The ordinary contract of service implies that by voluntary absence an employee loses his rights to pay for the period of such absence and even to the lien to the service. There has been a departure from this common law principle in the industrial courts, where voluntary absence on account of strike does not always terminate relationship of employer and employee between the employers and the employees who have struck work. The Judges of the Industrial Tribunal have also awarded pay for the strike period in cases where the strike was both lawful and justified. Soon after the operative period of the last award had expired, the Union placed a fresh charter of demands before the Management. The Management had in the meantime introduced a very reasonable scheme for extra production bonus. The Union should have waited for a reasonable time to see how the scheme worked. This scheme, as I have already indicated, did not improve the position of the industry financially. The extra production did not come up to the expectation. Nevertheless the bonus rates were not decreased. If the Management had pleaded inability to implement the demands on financial grounds, there was nothing unreasonable on the part of the Management. The Management gave full facilities to the Union for conciliation. The Labour Commissioner attempted a conciliation but had failed. It appears from the record of the Labour Commissioner that he assured the Union that the dispute would be referred to a Tribunal and asked the Union to advise its members not to strike work. This was on the 9th January 1950. In spite of this advice, the workers struck work. A leaflet was issued urging the workers to strike work and advising the members not to submit to any compromise but to be ready for a fight. This leaflet indicates further that the Union would not allow its members to have any faith in the Industrial Tribunal. It is clear from the leaflet, as also from the circumstances of the case, that the Union wanted to have a trial of strength. The strike had only one object, viz., to further the current dispute. There was no unfair labour practice on the part of the Management. From the facts and circumstances, I am clearly of opinion that this strike had no justification whatsoever. In these circumstances, I cannot persuade myself to award any pay for the strike period. As an authority on this point, I may refer to an award for Messrs. Burn & Company given by Sri S. N. Modak :

"I do not see however why the workers should have gone on strike at all merely for the purpose of redressing small grievance over the question of attendance allowance. They did not choose to seek the aid of a conciliation officer in the first instance. They did not choose to seek a reference by the Government to a Tribunal before the strike was actually launched. Some efforts might have been made in this direction by Mr. Shibnath Banerjee while the strike was actually on but even then I am unable to say that reasonable chance was given to the Government as it was constituted at that time. The whole atmosphere of the strike indicates elements of unreasonableness and it cannot be said that the strikers had exhausted all other avenues of having their grievances redressed before they had resorted to the drastic course of going on strike. The Industrial Disputes Act had been in force since April 1947. It is a purpose of the Act to discourage strike and to encourage workers to try other avenues of settlement before taking any drastic action by way of strike which is so detrimental to production and which causes loss of national wealth. I consider the strike launched in the present case as most unfortunate and I am unable to say that the strike in any of its phases was justified. Under these circumstances there can be no question of directing the Company to pay wages for the period of strike to any group of workers."

I have carefully considered the facts and circumstances of the case but cannot persuade myself to uphold the Union's demand. The demand is accordingly rejected.

3. SRI Kali Kinkar Chatterjee.

The case of Bivash Chandra Dutta in the above list is excluded as he has been re-employed.

Between the employees and the Company a dispute was going on about wages, dearness allowance, etc., and the Labour Commissioner was intervening in this matter to bring about a settlement. He failed to bring the matter to a settlement and the dispute was sent to me for adjudication. I have recently made an award which has not yet been published. During the time the matter was pending with the Labour Commissioner and before my reference to me the employees named above were discharged as they were surplus on account of fall in business. The Company assigned as the ground for retrenchment and it was contended before me that the principle of efficiency of the workers was taken in consideration in effecting retrenchment. It has been admitted by the Company that the principle "first come last go" was not adhered to.

The Union raised the objection that the Company violated the provision of the Industrial Disputes Act in effecting retrenchment during conciliation proceedings and that this amounted to an illegal lock-out. The relevant provision is section 23 which runs thus: "No workman who is employed in any industrial establishment shall go on strike in breach of contract and no employer of any such workman shall declare a lock-out during the pendency of conciliation proceedings before a Board and seven days after the conclusion of such proceedings;....." The point to be noted is that the conciliation proceedings must be before a Board. Pendency of a matter before the Conciliation Officer is quite different. The Union had a weak case against deterioration of business necessitating retrenchment and therefore took up this legalistic stand. The Company brought a wrong man to contend that there was a surplus. The witness broke down, but this cannot help the Union whose only legal ground failed.

Retrenchment cannot be denied. The workers had been given salary for one month in lieu of notice. Now the question is whether they should get anything more. Though the Tribunal is competent to allow gratuity by way of retiral benefit when there is no provision for it in the service conditions, yet I should look to whether there are conditions of payment of such gratuity.

There was a dispute between the employers and the Union and a settlement was arrived at on the intervention of the Labour Commissioner. set out the terms of the settlement below—

- “(1) Recognition of the Unions.—To be decided by the Labour Court
- (2) Provident Fund.—The employer would introduce Provident Fund system from January 1949 the rates of contribution being 6 anna per rupee of the basic pay excluding dearness allowance.
- (3) Gratuity.—Workmen would get 15 days' basic wages for each year of service with a maximum of 15 months' wages for the period prior to the introduction of Provident Fund.
- (4) Working hours.—No change.
- (5) Profit sharing.—Not to be introduced.
- (6) Medical relief.—The part-time doctor to attend every day on full hour to be notified to the workmen.
- (7) Security of service.—This will be in accordance with the standing orders certified under the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act, 1946.
- (8) Leave.—Workmen would get the following leave :—
 - (i) Statutory holidays under Factories Act;
 - (ii) Ten days' festival holidays with full pay and dearness allowance per year. The days and dates to be fixed in Works Committee.
 - (iii) Seven days' casual leave with full pay and dearness allowance per year;
 - (iv) Ten days' sick leave with full pay and dearness allowance per year on production of a medical certificate from an M.D. doctor.
- (9) Reinstatement of workers.—These cases occurred in 1946-47 and were then dealt with and as such not to be taken up.
- (10) Pay.—Existing rates of basic wages with a minimum wage of Rs. 15 per month to continue.
- (11) Dearness allowance.—The existing rates of dearness allowance to be increased by Rs. 12 per month at a flat rate raising the minimum for Rs. 3 per month to be Rs. 15 per month.
- (12) House allowance.—The Company would try to provide workmen with quarters within a reasonable time.

The above terms of settlement to be given with effect from 1st September 1948.

The above terms would remain in force for a period of one year with effect from 1st of September 1948.”

On behalf of the employers it has been argued that the agreement was valid for one year only and therefore the clause about gratuity expired before these persons were discharged. This is a thoroughly wrong contention. The increment in wages was valid for a year, but the context in the case is that the condition of gratuity is a continuing condition.

Another argument advanced was that the Company terminated the services of all the employees in 1948 and thereafter reappointed them. Wholesale discharge and immediate reappointment indicate that it was only a device to create a breach in the continuity of services. The motive was beyond reproach and the employers cannot be given any benefit for this. In the previous adjudication the employers submitted papers in which the length of service of many employees was noted. Those periods were given in the papers submitted by the employers in the year 1948. This clearly indicates that the incident of 1948 remained in paper only. Apart from this argument the clause in the agreement does not show that the period for which gratuity has to be given should be a continuous period. All that the agreement says is that gratuity shall be paid for the years of service under the Company, i.e., the aggregate number of years.

This is the case of termination of service at the will of the employers. The Company could have done it few months before or few months after the circumstances, the broken part of the year should be calculated to the nearest year. On that basis I have calculated the services, the salaries and the amount of gratuity payable to each. The table is given below :—

S. C. CHAKRAVARTY,
Chairman of the Tribunal.

8th August 1950.

By order of the Governor,
D. S. P. MUKHERJEE, Jt. Secy.

ORDER.

No. 4669Lab.—22nd August 1950.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 1846Lab., dated the 17 April 1950, the industrial dispute between the Hooghly Docking and Engineering Co., Ltd., 6, Howrah Road, Howrah, and its workers represented by the Iron Factory Workers' Union, 3/1, Kali Banerji Lane, Howrah, over the question of bonus for 1949 was referred for adjudication to Sri S. C. Chakravarty, District Judge;

And whereas the said Sri S. C. Chakravarty, District Judge, has submitted to the State Government his award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE.

In the matter of industrial dispute between the Hooghly Docking and Engineering Co., Ltd., 6, Howrah Road, Howrah, and its workers represented by the Iron Factory Workers' Union, 3/1, Kali Banerji Lane, Howrah, over the question of bonus for 1949.

PRESENT: SRI SAILLES CHANDRA CHAKRAVARTY, Chairman of the Tribunal.

For the Company: Sri S. K. Mullick, Solicitor, of Messrs. Sandersons & Morgans.

For the Union: Sri Shib Nath Banerjee, M.L.A.

Acting under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 Government of West Bengal, by their order No. 1846Lab., dated the 17 April 1950, referred to me for adjudication the industrial dispute existing between the Hooghly Docking and Engineering Co., Ltd., 6, Howrah Road, Howrah, and its workers represented by the Iron Factory Workers' Union, 3/1, Kali Banerji Lane, Howrah.

The reference is for adjudication of the dispute over the question of bonus for 1949 for the workers.

AWARD.

The first ground on which the Company wants to resist the claim is on the fact that it pays "attendance bonus" to the workers just as it pays the annual bonus to the clerical staff with this difference that in case of workers' payments are spread out and are linked up with attendance. The substance of the contention is that grant of a further bonus to the workers will disturb the equilibrium and lead to further discontent and unrest amongst employees.

I propose to examine if the "attendance allowance" is a counterpart of the annual bonus paid to the clerical staff. An essay about the history of introduction will help us to clear up the situation. The annual bonus to clerical staff is a pretty ancient practice.

On the 18th January 1947 Mr. Smith, the Superintendent and Managing Agent of the Company, wrote a letter to the President of the Union containing some talks. The copy of this letter was sent to the Managing Agents. The following extracts are relevant:—

"(B) Being in sympathy with the desire expressed by you at our previous meeting that the earnings of the Company's workmen should be increased to compensate them for the increased cost of living, I offered to recom-

the Company's Managing Agents that the present dearness allowance of pies per hour (equal to about Rs. 10-12 per calendar month) and the present value of cheap food concessions (equal in the average to about Rs. 6 month) should be changed into a consolidated dearness allowance of 5-12 per 48-hour week (equal to Rs. 24-12 per calendar month).

This would, in effect, mean a total increase of Rs. 14 per month in the payments made to each man who works a full 48 hours each week and a net average increase of Rs. 8 per man per month after allowing for the withdrawal of cheap food concessions. The allowance would be paid pro rata for any overtime worked and would be reduced in respect of absenteeism.

(C) The various demands put forward in the letter (undated) received by the Union on 8th January 1947 from the Vice-President of our Union were discussed and decided in turn as follows:—

* * * * *

5. One month's pay as bonus.—I pointed out that as this demand has been put forward on several previous occasions and has on each occasion been categorically turned down by the Managing Agents there is no likelihood of its being granted now.

You suggested that the introduction of a profit-sharing system or production bonus would stimulate the workmen to increased effort. I expressed doubts on this point but agreed to put forward to the Managing Agents for consideration any practical scheme which you may suggest."

Thus the claim for bonus was not favourably considered. On 28th January 1947 the Company issued the following notice:—

"Notice No. 12/47.

Under instructions from the Managing Agents the undernoted new scale of allowances will be introduced with effect from Sunday, 2nd March, 1947, for all adult workmen employed by this Company.

The new allowances will supersede existing food concessions and foodstuffs supplied with effect from Ration Week commencing on 3rd March 1947, be sold in the Company's ration shop at official controlled rates only.

The Company's existing grading system is also being extended to include regular increments within each grade. Details of the system of increments will be notified later.

The new allowances, which will be additional to basic pay and overtime, are as follows:—

Dearness allowance.—This will remain at the existing rate of 10 pies on 48 hours worked including overtime.

Attendance allowance.—This will be paid at 4-weekly intervals on the following scale to all workmen who have worked 21 days or more in each 4-week period:—

To men with basic pay of 19 to 21 pies—Rs. 2-11.

To men with basic pay of 22 pies and up—Rs. 3

Workmen will be regarded as having been present on declared "holidays with pay" for the purpose of qualifying for attendance allowance.

Food concession allowance.—This will amount to Rs. 3-3 per man per week and will be given in full to all workmen who work for 5 days or more in any week.

Proportionate food allowances will be given to men who work less than five days in a week as follows:—

- 4 days—Rs. 2-2.
- 3 days—Re. 1-10.
- 2 days—Re. 1-1.
- 1 day—Annas 8.

The food concession allowance will be raised or lowered, in the manner described below, according to variations in the official working class cost of living index.

Variations in food allowance.—In order to compensate the workmen for possible increases or decreases in the prices of food, it has been decided to base the food allowance on the working class cost of living index published regularly by Government for the district of Jagatdal (this being the nearest district for which an official working class cost of living index is published). The payment of Rs. 3-3 per week has been based on the current cost of living index of 305 points and for every 9 points rise or fall the weekly food allowance will be raised or lowered by 4 annas for all men who have worked five days or more in the week. Proportionate adjustments will be made in the allowances of men who have worked less than five days in a week. The cost of living index will be reviewed every three months and an alteration in the food allowance will be made until the index figure has varied by 9 points or multiple of 9 points. The first review will be made on 31st May and the rate of food allowance for the period June to July will be based on the latest index figure available at that date.

General.—The abovementioned allowances will give all workmen a substantial increase in their total earnings if they attend regularly. This will give the men an idea of what their earnings will amount to under the new scheme. The cases of men on basic pays of 20, 30, 40 and 50 pies per month have been worked out and are shown on a separate sheet issued with this notice.

It may be mentioned that the same scale of allowances is being introduced by our associated Company Messrs. Burn & Co., Ltd., Howrah, also with effect from 2nd March 1947.

The Hooghly Docking and Engineering Co., Ltd.

EBEN SMITH,

Superintendent and Manager

Salkia, the 28th February 1947.

The two documents referred to above will show clearly that the "attendance allowance" was a part of dearness allowance. The recommendation of the Manager about the total amount was practically accepted. Thus from inception the "attendance allowance" was not bonus. After some time the dearness allowance was amalgamated and "attendance allowance" was withdrawn but was reintroduced from the date of suspension on the basis of the following notice:—

"THE HOOGHLY DOCKING AND ENGINEERING CO., LTD

Notice No. 1/48.

Attendance Allowance.

Following upon a similar decision reached in the case of Messrs. J & Co.'s workmen the Managing Agents have agreed that attendance allowance on the original scale should be restored to the workmen of this Company with retrospective effect from the date on which it was discontinued.

Arrangements are being made to pay the arrears of attendance allowance at an early date and further payments will, as previously, be made at weekly intervals.

EBEN SMITH,
Superintendent and Manager."

January 1948.

In the last paragraph of the notice, dated 28th February 1947, it was stated that the allowances were made at par with the allowances granted Messrs. Burn & Co., Ltd. In the case of Messrs. Burn & Co., Ltd., the allowances were also withdrawn but was restored by an award of Sri S. N. Das (award made by West Bengal Tribunal, 1947, page 369). It appears that it was restored as part of total emoluments (pay and dearness allowance) and not as bonus. This award was enforced by an order of Government, dated 19th November 1947. Thus it was reintroduced by the Company on the same terms. It is thus clear that neither in its first inception nor at reintroduction it was thought to be a counterpart of the bonus paid to clerical staff. This also disposes of another contention of the Company that bonus should not be paid when "attendance allowance" is paid.

The Union came with the case that in the previous year (1948) a bonus of one month's pay was allowed on the basis of profits and as profits in 1949 do not compare unfavourably with the profits of the previous year, a bonus equivalent to a month's wages should be paid.

The Company keeps half-yearly accounts. In 1948 the profits had been Rs. 3,05,910 for the first half and Rs. 1,96,128 for the second half, totalling Rs. 5,02,038. At the time of the previous adjudication for bonus for 1948, accounts of the second half of 1948 were not ready, and the adjudicator, P. K. Sarkar, made an estimate of Rs. 6,00,000 as profits for the year and allowed bonus equivalent to a month's wages.

In 1949 for the first half the Company made a profit of Rs. 3,49,485 and for the second half suffered a loss of Rs. 80,000 making a total profit of Rs. 2,69,485 for the year. Rs. 75,000 is required to pay dividend at 10 per cent. The Union asked me to add Rs. 7,000 to the profit. It has been decided that the amount of bonus awarded for the previous year was paid from the fund of profit of this year. The amount became payable in 1949 and the outstanding dues may also have been realised this year. The accounts as given represent the true state of things and there is no objection for adding expenditure to the profits.

The Company has an inglorious past. In 1927 the capital was reduced 50 per cent, and in 1937 the entire capital was lost. From 1944 the Company is making profits and has been paying dividend. The lost capital has just been made good of. The profit may not be permanent, but for the present the Company can pay something beyond the wages which represent only the subsistence allowance. Since it can do so, it should pay. I need not repeat here all that I said in the Burmah Shell and Standard Vacuum cases on the question of bonus. I still adhere to that and looking to the need for profit and absence of liquid cash I award bonus equivalent to half month's pay.

Now the question is who should get bonus. Those persons who work in the relevant year will get bonus. We usually restrict it to those of the clerical staff who remain in employ when the bonus is declared or adjudication made. The principle underlying is that we do not want to extend it to workers who move about and do not stay in one concern. Relying on the principle payment cannot be denied to those who are retrenched as surplus before bonus is declared.

In this Company following the communal trouble in the first part of 1949 all the workers were discharged. After some time many have been taken back. Some are not coming and some are anxious to come but the Company is not taking them back on the ground of paucity of work. These persons stand like persons retrenched. It appears from a note of the Superintendent of the Manager, dated 23rd June 1950, that he has got a waiting list of 263.

I rule that those who worked in 1949 and are still in employ shall get the bonus. Those who worked in 1949 but lost job and have either been re-appointed or are in the waiting list shall be entitled to the bonus. Those who are not in the waiting list, dated 23rd June 1950, shall not get any benefit of the award.

Each worker shall get 1/24th of the basic salary drawn by him in 1949.

For the Union: Sri K. C. Prosad, General Secretary, Sri R. L. A. Member, Executive Committee.

AWARD.

By Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 3266Lab., dated the 16th June 1950, this industrial dispute between the Aluminium Corporation of India, Ltd., Jaykaynagar, Asansol, and their workmen represented by the Aluminium Workers' Union, Jaykaynagar, Asansol, regarding the issue of closing down of the Fabrication Department, as stated in the schedule appended to the order, has been referred to me as Industrial Tribunal for adjudication. This reference has been made during the pendency of another adjudication proceeding in respect of general issues between the same parties as per order No. 1445Lab., dated the 27th March 1950. The Company proposed to close down the Fabrication Department, that is to say, the department for the manufacture of aluminium utensils, with effect from 1st June 1950. The Union representing the employees concerned opposed the idea and communicated with this Tribunal the matter having been eventually taken up by the Labour Commissioner. The plan of closing down the Fabrication Department was postponed for the time being. The dispute arising from the proposal of closing down has since due course been referred to this Tribunal for adjudication. The issues at forth in the schedule appended to the order of reference are as follows:—

- (1) Should the Fabrication Department of the Company be closed down as proposed by the Management?
- (2) If so, how should the employees of the said department be compensated?

Both parties have filed their written statements before me. The Union's statement is in brief to the effect that there is no justification for closing down the Fabrication Department which has been in existence for several years, and the 61 employees involved should not be suddenly thrown out of employment. The Company, on the other hand, has taken its stand on the ground that the Fabrication Department, that is to say, the section for the manufacture of aluminium utensils is running at a loss and it is definitely uneconomic to continue it any longer, and it should be at the discretion of the Management to close down an uneconomic section of the concern.

2. The main business of this Company is to manufacture aluminium utensils from bauxite and also aluminium sheets and circles. The Company claims to be subsidised by the Government for such manufactures. It also appears that about the middle of 1945 the Company started a side business by opening a new department called the Fabrication Department for the purpose of manufacturing aluminium utensils. It is this side business, which the Company considers not to be intrinsically connected with the main business of the concern, which is proposed to be closed down on the ground that the cost of production of aluminium utensils has been decidedly higher than the sale price which such products can fetch in the market in recent years. It is contended by the Company that the cost of transport of aluminium utensils manufactured in the Fabrication Department at Jaykaynagar, Asansol, to the market in Calcutta makes the continuance of the department still more uneconomic, and it is more economic to have aluminium utensils manufactured in a different environment nearer the market. In support of these contentions which have been raised by the Company a statement showing the cost of production and the sale price relating to the last four years has been placed before me by the Company. The Union, of course, questioned the correctness of this statement but has not been able to point out the elements of alleged incorrectness. The Company has failed to bring in all the relevant documents to establish the correctness of the statement. In the light of what I have heard during the discussion it is not possible for me to say that the statement does not represent the true state of things. Ordinarily speaking, it should be left to the employer to decide whether a particular activity of the concern is profitable or uneconomic, and in the absence of materials to indicate a contrary state of things neither the Union nor the Tribunal is in a position to resist the conclusion that it is an uneconomic undertaking. Once it is accepted that an undertaking has become uneconomic it is not possible for the Tribunal to compel the employer to carry on such an undertaking. It is true that the closure of an undertaking will lead to unemployment with regard to the employees concerned. But in a case like this there is no alternative. I come to the conclusion that the Fabrication Department of this Company should be allowed to be closed down as proposed by the Management and decide Issue No. 1 accordingly and grant the permission to close down the Fabrication Department of the Company. It is to be noted that the Company has framed its prayer in terms of an application for permission to close down the Fabrication Department and to discharge the employees concerned under section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act as amended by the Industrial Disputes (Appellate Tribunal) Act, 1950.

3. The real question in this case which is involved in Issue No. 2, is how the employees concerned should be compensated. It appears that the strength of the Fabrication Department has gradually dwindled from 100 employees to only 61 employees at present. The names and designations of the 61 employees concerned will be found in the appendix set forth below. On enquiry it is found that two of these, viz., Bijoy Govinda Chatterjee, Supervisor, and Chandi Charan Banerji, Spinner, were brought to the Fabrication Department from other departments where they were originally employed, and the remaining employees were employed initially in the Fabrication Department itself. As regards the two specified employees, I consider it rather hard that they should suddenly be confronted with a situation of unemployment simply because they happened to be transferred to the Fabrication Department. As the Fabrication Department is being allowed to be closed down no question of compulsory re-employment arises in this case, but with regard to the Supervisor and Spinner specified above the Company should do its best to get them absorbed in other departments on the basis of their existing emoluments. It is also recommended that the Company should try to get the other employees also absorbed in suitable departments on the basis of their existing emoluments. I am told, however, that under the prevailing circumstances it may not be possible for the Company to get all or many of the 61 employees absorbed in the manner suggested. In case the Company fails to get them absorbed in a suitable manner maintaining the continuity of their service, I am definitely of opinion that the employees should be paid suitable compensation. I direct that compensation be paid to the employees shown in the appendix in accordance with the scheme set forth below, unless they are absorbed on lines indicated above—

- (a) Employees with less than 6 months' service shall be paid 2 months' total emolument.
- (b) Employees with more than 6 months' service but less than 1 year service shall be paid 2½ months' total emolument.
- (c) Employees with service of 1 year or more but less than 2 years shall be paid 3 months' total emolument.
- (d) Employees with service of 2 years or more but less than 3 years shall be paid 3½ months' total emolument.
- (e) Employees with service of 3 years or more shall be paid 4 months' total emolument.

- (f) The expression "total emolument" shall mean the average total emolument consisting of basic wages and dearness allowance (overtime wages and other allowances, bonuses or benefits being excluded), during the last 12 months of service on full wages or during the total period of service on full wages where such total period is less than 12 months.
- (g) In the case of Bijoy Govinda Chatterjee and Chandi Charan Banerjee the compensation payable to them in accordance with the above scheme shall be enhanced by 50 per cent.
- (h) All amounts of compensation shall be paid within six weeks from the date of publication of this award.

ORDER.

No. 4705Lab.—24th August 1950.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, Order No. 3131Lab., dated the 10th August 1950, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Caltex (India), Ltd., Chittaranjan Avenue, Calcutta, and their employees as represented by the Bengal Oil and Petrol Workers' Union, 47, Chowringhee Road, Calcutta, in connection with the discharge of four Gurkha Durwans was referred to Sri S. C. Chakravarty, District Judge;

And whereas the said Sri S. C. Chakravarty, District Judge, has submitted to the State Government his award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE.

the matter of industrial dispute between Messrs. Caltex (India), Ltd., 22, Chittaranjan Avenue, Calcutta, and their employees as represented by the Bengal Oil and Petrol Workers' Union, 47, Chowringhee Road, Calcutta, in connection with the cases of four Gurkha Durwans.

PRESENT :

SAILES CHANDRA CHAKRAVARTY, Chairman of the Tribunal
for the Company : Sri S. C. Sen, Advocate. for the Union : Sri P. K. Sanyal, Advocate.

Acting under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the Government of West Bengal, Department of Labour, by their order 31311Lab., dated the 10th June 1950, referred to me for adjudication industrial dispute between Messrs. Caltex (India), Ltd., 22, Chittaranjan Avenue, Calcutta, and their employees as represented by Bengal Oil and Petrol Workers' Union, 47, Chowringhee Road, Calcutta.

The dispute centres round the dismissal with effect from the 4th of April 1950 of four night watchmen attached to the Paharpur Terminal of Messrs. Caltex (India), Ltd., on the plea of negligence of duties. The reference is limited to the following points :—

- (1) Is the Company justified in dismissing the four Gurkha Durwans named below?
- (1) Dhan Bahadur, (2) Kharag Bahadur, (3) Bal Bahadur, (4) Deb Bahadur.
- (2) If not, are the said Durwans entitled to reinstatement forthwith in their own posts or in any other suitable posts under the Company?
- (3) If the dismissal is justified, are they entitled to any compensation?

AWARD.

I propose to discuss all the points together.

On behalf of the Union it has been contended that the Management disliked that the members of the security staff should join the Union of workers and suggested to Sri K. P. Mukherjee, the Secretary, to eliminate him from the Union. It has further been suggested that the dislike was originated by the fact that a member of the security staff was elected to the Grievance Committee. The Union's version is that there was no burglary in the premises of the Terminal Superintendent, Mr. Miles, but this was an excuse to get rid of the Durwans who were members of the Union.

Indian law is loose and under it the members of the security staff can join the Union of the workers. The position in the advanced countries is quite different. It is a fact that the Management disliked that the members of security staff should join the Union of the workers. This dislike is understandable. It was nothing strange.

If there were no burglary, it must be held that the Management tried to rid of them to exhibit their strong dislike of the security staff joining workers' Union and to exhibit also an example of the peril of it. If, on the other hand, there was a burglary which was possible on account of negligence of the security staff, the four night watchmen can claim no immunity because of the dislike of the Management against the members of security staff joining the workers' Union.

To appreciate the case of the Management it is just necessary to have a topography of the place. The installations are in two blocks separated by a public pathway. Both the blocks are circumscribed by compound walls with gates opening on the road in between the two blocks. The southern block may be described as the Can Factory and the northern block as the Office Block or Refined Oil Godown Block. In the Office Block there are two gates opening on the road and there is only one gate from the Can Factory Block opening on the road against the eastern side gate of the Office Block. Almost at the south-eastern corner of the Can Factory Block is the residence of the Terminal Superintendent, Mr. Miles. There is no compound wall in the residence of Mr. Miles. Just to the south of Mr. Miles' building is his flower garden. The intervening space may be about 3 feet. The western side wall of the Can Factory Block is not as high as the walls on the other sides. I think this is sufficient to understand the position.

Now I go on to describe the system of watch. Four men remain on duty for the night from midnight 12 to 8 a.m. in the morning. One man remains at the gate of the Can Factory Block. Another man remains on one of the gates of the Office Block and another man remains in a place to the north of the Office Block where empty drums are stocked. The fourth man moves round punching some disc clocks to indicate the time at which these are punched. These punching clocks are numbered and scattered over both the blocks. It would take about half an hour for a man to finish punching all the clocks. From midnight 12 the punching duty changes each 1½ hour and during this time the man on duty has to punch at each station three times in order. After this he goes to one of the stations, viz., one of the two gates or to the place of the block of drums, and another man comes for punching duty. There is one punching station just on the south-east of Mr. Miles' bungalow. Each man has to go almost brushing against the walls of the bungalow because of the garden to reach punching station No. 8.

On the night of 3rd of April Mrs. and Mr. Miles, after dining out for the night, returned to Paharpur at about 12-30 a.m. and retired to sleep shortly after. At about 7 a.m. in the morning the cook reported that the bungalow had been broken into and several articles had been missing. The Superintendent thereupon conducted an examination and found that entrance had been made by forcing open a window in the study cutting through the wire-netting and six bottles of whisky and eight bottles of beer were removed from the same room, one electric Singer sewing machine from the living room, and one lady's wrist watch and some money were also removed from the bed room. It also appeared that the burglars visited the pantry stealing from therein the entire contents of the refrigerator (beer, egg coffee, candy, a cold roast and a cold pudding) and an electric table lamp.

The police were, thereupon, informed who came and conducted an investigation. Mr. Miles waited for the police prosecution. The police could not trace the culprits nor could they trace the articles. No charge-sheet was framed. Thereupon Mr. Miles took up the matter in administrative way and, after conducting an enquiry, passed an order on the 24th of April dismissing the four men with effect from the 4th April, the day on which they were placed under suspension.

The Union challenged the fact of burglary, and the first point to be considered is whether there was, in fact, a burglary in the house of Mr. Miles. Mr. Miles deposed to that and it appears that he complained to the police about the burglary immediately after. The F.I.R. had been put in. The Sub-Inspector came and investigated the matter. He has been examining in this case. He found the wire-netting of the window cut to make ening for entrance. The window was on the southern side of the building the ground floor, i.e., in a place which the punching guard had almost brush in reaching station No. 8. After this I should have no hesitation believing Mr. Miles that there was a burglary and the articles, as stated him, were stolen.

The articles stolen formed a good load and looking to the nature of arding, the inevitable inference is that one or two of the guards must be sisting the burglars.

The Company gave a finding of negligence. This was a finding born of ndity because the police could not trace the culprit and, in the circum- nces, the Management were afraid of calling any of the night watchmen burglar. The view of the Management had been that this load must ve been passed through the gate and not only the punching man but the te man also must be in league. After this a finding that burglary was stole because of negligence becomes inconsistent. There were six nching stations in the Can Factory Block and the punching man must ve remained in this block at least for 15 minutes in each round, i.e., he st not have been absent from this block while moving round for 15 nutes each time. So burglary must not have been committed without his univance.

A Judge will feel difficulty in holding the entire staff guilty of negligence participation in the burglary. I will not blame the Management for ability in sifting evidence, because they have not been trained for that ipose. They are tradesmen conducting their trade. I will elucidate the utter.

The burglary was committed at a given time. It might have taken out half an hour. I can quite understand that this could not have aped the attention of the man on punching duty if he was not actually arty to this. Those who had punching duties before the hour of burglary not be guilty of any negligence; they can be found guilty of negligence they had been on duty at the gate through which the articles were carried t. If the articles were not carried through the gate, the man at the gate not be held responsible. It is only a suspicion that because it formed out it might have been taken through the gate. The western compound ll was not very high. It is only 5 feet high with 3 feet barbed wire anglements above. This was not an insurmountable barrier. The sibility of the articles being removed from that side cannot altogether ruled out. The safe inference is that the person who was on punching ty at the time of the burglary was guilty. Those who were on punching ty before cannot be found guilty. Can the same be said about those o had punching duties after the commission of the burglary? The rglary was not committed due to their negligence because it was com- tted before. The only point against them is that they had to pass by the ndow where wire-netting had been cut and they should have noticed it. esc are after all the cases of illiterate hillmen and it is not safe to infer t they should have, from the nature of the cut wire, inferred that there s a burglary. It was night though a moonlit night. I do not think t too much emphasis can be placed on the fact that they did not notice d damaged condition of the wire-netting.

Reviewing the entire position I can only find that man guilty who was punching duty at the time of the burglary. The time for the commission the burglary cannot be fixed and therefore I can only say that one of the r men at least is guilty of participation in the burglary but he cannot be spotted. The collective punishment, in the circumstances, cannot be supported. No innocent man can be punished because the real culprit cannot be caught.

There, however, remains one point. There has been a burglary and these four men were on duty. One of them is dishonest. Reasonably the Management have lost confidence in them for protection of their properties. The mental attitude is thoroughly honest and is not motivated by the persons involved being members of the Union. In the circumstances, I cannot say that those persons in whom the Management have reasonably lost confidence should be entrusted for the protection of properties. They cannot remain in the security staff. They must either be discharged or alternative appointments must be found for them. These hill men are not willing to come as Mazdoors in the plains. The question of providing with alternative appointments for them goes out. Since the Management have reasonably lost confidence in them and no alternative appointment can be found for them, they must be discharged but, as guilt has not been proved against any particular individual, they should be given some compensatory allowance.

I award that the termination of services shall be deemed to be ordinary discharge and not dismissal. As in case of ordinary discharge, they shall each get the employers' contribution in the Provident Fund as also the own money in terms of the last award of the Tribunal. Since it is a case of discharge, they shall each get salary for a month in lieu of notice. I further award lump compensatory allowance of the amounts noted against each below :—

Kharag Bahadur—Rs. 147.

Dhan Bahadur—Rs. 71.

Bal Bahadur—Rs. 71.

I do not award any compensation to Deb Bahadur as he worked only for 10 months.

AWARD.

The following points have been referred to for adjudication:—

- (1) Revision of dearness allowance.
- (2) Introduction of a "Grade" system for workers.
- (3) Introduction of the system of annual increment.
- (4) Puja bonus.
- (5) If a pass book for Provident Fund accounts is to be given to workers and if a separate account for Provident Fund is to be opened in the bank by the Management.
- (6) Claim for a furnished room for the Union office.
- (7) Introduction of cheap canteen system.
- (8) Supply of dresses to durwans, office peons and drivers free of charge.
- (9) Gratuity to all permanent workers irrespective of the period of service.
- (10) If retrenchment of workers is to be effected and, if so, to what extent?

A short history of the dispute may be relevant. Previous to the present award there had been an adjudication of some industrial disputes between Messrs. R. B. S. Jain Rubber Mills and their workmen represented by the R. B. S. Jain Rubber Mills Workers' Union by Sri S. C. Chakrabartty, District Judge, in pursuance of reference No. 768Lab., dated the 12th March 1948, of the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department. The award given by Sri S. C. Chakrabartty was published under order No. 1996Lab., dated the 18th June 1948, of the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department. By the said award the disputes then existing about scales of dearness allowance, gradation, bonus, Provident Fund, gratuity, cheap food and free tiffin were adjudicated upon along with the disputes on some other points. This award was in force for a period of one year beginning from the 18th June 1948. The operative period of the award given by Sri S. C. Chakrabartty expired on the 18th June 1949. It appears from the content of the written statement of the Mills filed before Sri S. C. Chakrabartty that the Mills were contemplating retrenchment of staff from before the date of the last reference. Soon after the publication of the last award, the Company issued a notice for retrenchment of 160 workers with effect from 1st August 1948. The notice was dated 12th July 1948. The grounds stated by the Mills were non-availability of raw materials, chemicals, and consequent difficulties in running all the departments of the Mills.

Many of the products were said to have been found unremunerative. The matter was amicably settled with the Union on 15th July 1948. Under the terms of settlement, persons employed between the period of 1st July 1946 and 31st December 1947 were to go on leave for three months on the ground of paucity of work. They were, however, to be recalled as soon as the work prospered. If, however, the situation did not improve within three months, they would be allowed one month's further leave. If, however, the situation did not still improve to justify the workers being recalled, they would be paid one month's salary. In future should there be any occasion to employ more men, these workers would be given preference, according to seniority of service. The number of such workers was 82. Most of them took employment elsewhere. Only 34 were awaiting for re-employment. As the Management of the Mills could not find its way to absorb these 34 men immediately, it proposed to take in these 34 men in batches and it was expected that they would be absorbed in a few months. With a view to secure their immediate absorption, the workers agreed to a voluntary cut of Rs. 5 each out of their monthly dearness allowance for six months. These 34 workers were also to submit to this cut. The agreement was effected on the 26th November 1948 and was to come into effect on and from 1st December 1948. This cut was to be restored after six months. But, according to the Management, the situation did not improve and a drastic retrenchment was called for. A notice was accordingly issued to the President of the Union on the 23rd July 1949 suggesting three alternatives. These are mentioned below:—

- (1) 33 per cent. of the workers remain on leave in suitable group.
- (2) Workers voluntarily reduce their wages by 33 per cent. along with the Management.
- (3) Number of workers be reduced by 33 per cent.

The Management would be glad to consider any other alternative suggested by the workers.

The Union addressed a letter on 5th August 1947 to the Manager of the Mills making some demands about foodstuff at cheap rate, gradation, bonus, production bonus, annual increment, and Provident Fund accounts. On 12th August, the President of the Union wrote to the General Manager of the Mills acknowledging receipt of the letter of the Manager, dated 23rd July 1949, already referred to. The President did not agree to any of the alternatives suggested by the Management and looked upon the suggestion of the Management as a "fine scheme" of destroying the poor labour. In this letter the President of the Union accused Pandit G. P. Mishra of the Mills severely. The President of the Union referred the General Manager of the Mills to adjudication for the proposed retrenchment and suggested that more money might be invested and arrangement might be made for more production. On about the 23rd September 1949 the President of the Union addressed a letter to the Assistant Labour Commissioner, Howrah with a long list of demands praying for an early reference to the Industrial Tribunal. Attempts were made by the Assistant Labour Commissioner for conciliation, but when conciliation failed the Government had to make the present reference.

Most of the items of the dispute under reference were adjudicated upon by Sri S. C. Chakrabartty. The Union wants to reagitate those points before me, mainly on the ground, as stated in paragraph 12 of the written statement, "That the.....award.....was not perfect in the sense that the Union could not furnish full facts on their behalf for a favourable and just award". Nothing has been suggested as to why so facts could not be furnished. On principle one Adjudicator should not change the previous award without proof of any altered circumstances. In the case of B. E. S. T. Company, Limited, Bombay, Sir H. V. Divatia observed:—

“Without going so far as to say that the employees are barred by res judicata, any demands which are made before me and are covered by any decision in the previous adjudications cannot be proceeded now unless the employees prove any change of circumstances after the previous decision. If there has been no change of circumstances, the mere ground that the previous Adjudicator had not granted a demand would not, in my opinion, justify the employees in repeating the same demand before a new Adjudicator, because that would be substantially asking one Adjudicator to sit in judgment over the decision of another Adjudicator.”

In the award for the Tinplate Company of India, Limited, Golmuri, Jamshedpur, published in the Bihar Gazette, Extraordinary, dated the 14th March 1949, Sri F. Jeejeebhoy held the same view. He observed:—

“In a consideration of this subject we must start with the fundamental concept that an award of the Tribunal has the same force as any other award or decision and is entitled to the same respect. And it is but a corollary to this concept that the principle of res judicata should apply so that on the same facts and the same circumstances the issues decided may not be re-tried in fresh proceedings with a view to securing a different decision. If it were otherwise there would be no finality of decisions, with the unfortunate result that labour, unsuccessful on an issue, would wait discontented, restless and impatient for the period of the notification to elapse and would then embark on go slow tactics and other equally questionable means to force a fresh reference from the Government in the absence of any change of circumstances.

* * * * *

As I conceive it, an award is final and binding for all times in matters relating to personal rights, as for instance, victimization; and an award or agreement of parties on all other matters like wage structure, bonus, amenities, etc., is final and binding until altered by consent of parties or replaced by a fresh award based on change of circumstances. Such is the prevailing concept of awards and agreements in other countries which are equally conscious of the claims of labour, and it is in consonance with natural justice and with recognised legal principles.”

The operative period of the award given by Sri S. C. Chakrabartty expired on the 18th June 1949. If any change of circumstances is apparent on the face of the records placed before me, the question of onus ceases to have any force. I shall now take up individual points of disputes and see whether revision of the decisions of Sri S. C. Chakrabartty is called for.

Points Nos. 1, 2 and 3—Dearness Allowance; Gradation and Annual Increment.

Sri S. C. Chakrabartty fixed the minimum basic salary at Rs. 30 and the minimum dearness allowance at the same amount per month. That was for the unskilled workers. For the clerks he fixed the minimum at Rs. 55 for a matriculate and at Rs. 45 for a non-matriculate and dearness allowance at Rs. 35 per month. He, however, linked increments with production. He did not lay down any grades for semi-skilled or skilled workers. In the quarter of the year in which the last reference was made the average cost of living index for a worker's family was 308. At the time when the award was given or when the award was published the average cost of living index for the second quarter of 1948 was not available. Although according to experts Rs. 30 was the estimated cost for a worker's family of 3 consumption units at pre-war price level when the cost of living index was 100, this has been accepted as the minimum basic salary at a cost of living index 160 or 180 or 185, when the workers might reasonably have expected to have more. Dearness allowance is paid to compensate the workers for the abnormal rise in the price of essential commodities. The lowest paid workers should have been compensated in full for the rise in the cost of living index. But in view of various circumstances, such as capacity of the industry to pay and national income per capita, the workers could not as yet be fully compensated for the rise in the cost of living index. In many awards the Industrial Tribunals have discussed the position of the national income per capita. The whole idea is that each and every man should, in consideration of the low level of the per capita national income, sacrifice some of the comforts. But at the same time if the dearness allowance of the lowest paid worker is not increased with the increase in the cost of living index, such workers will be forced below the poverty line. I am accordingly inclined to presume that the dearness allowance in the last award was fixed at the index 300—310. For the quarter ending on the 30th June 1950, the cost of living index is 343. The general practice is to split up the cost of living index into slabs of 10 points. 343 will represent the slab 340—350. Thus there has been an increase in the cost of living index by about 40 points since the last reference. The workers shall accordingly get an increased dearness allowance for the rise. I fix the scale of variation in the dearness allowance at Rs. 2 for every 10 points. Thus the workers are entitled to Rs. 38 per month as dearness allowance. I recommend the same variations for the clerks. The clerks shall accordingly get Rs. 43 per month as dearness allowance. The employees shall get dearness allowance at the increased rate with effect from 1st July 1950. In future dearness allowance shall be varied at the rate of Rs. 2 for every variation of 10 points in the average cost of living index of the previous quarter. The variation in the cost of living index is a sufficient change of circumstances justifying variation in the dearness allowance fixed in a previous year.

Sri S. C. Chakrabartty did not fix grades for semi-skilled and skilled workers. The semi-skilled and skilled workers should get some differential for the skill involved in their works. Sri S. C. Chakrabartty links increase of pay with production, but production could not be increased for reasons beyond the control of the workers. On the other hand production is said to have come down, and production had to be curtailed for some trade reasons, over which the workmen do not seem to have had any hand. It was on this account that shifts had to be reduced and retrenchment had to be made. The reasons as stated by the Mills were non-availability of raw materials, chemicals, etc., and want of market for some of the products of the Mills. In these circumstances it is not possible to link the wages of workmen with production. In an industry producing articles, linking increments of wages with production has a very salutary effect. It gives undoubtedly an incentive to the workmen to try their level best to increase production and to earn increments of wages. But in the present circumstances of the industry this is not possible. Although I feel that in an industry producing necessary articles any scheme of automatic increments is likely to encourage lethargy and indolence, I cannot but lay down a scheme for annual increments of wages for the workmen of the present industry where it is impossible for the workmen to increase the production and earn an increment that may be linked with production. The workmen need some periodical increments and wages, firstly to serve as an incentive to work and secondly to meet the responsibilities which increase as the workmen advance in age. If the wages are kept stagnant, the workmen will become callous and will not use all their energy and efficiency which is no less detrimental to the industry itself. The scheme of linking increments with the wages may be revived when the adverse circumstances which stand in the way of increment of production evaporate. I accordingly lay down the following grades and scales:—

Unskilled workers—Rs. 30—1—40.

Semi-skilled workers—Rs. 35—1/4—50.

Skilled—Rs. 40—1/8—52 E.B.—2—70.

Highly skilled—Rs. 60—2—82 E.B.—3—100.

Clerks—

Non-matriculates—Rs. 45—2—65.

Matriculates—Rs. 55—3—85.

Peons and bearers will get the same scale as the unskilled workers.

Durwans shall get the same scale as the semi-skilled workers.

In fitting the existing employees into the revised scale, the workers shall first be classed as unskilled, semi-skilled, skilled and highly skilled, and then they shall be placed in the aforesaid grades at the stage just above their present basic wages. In no case the workers shall get less than the minimum fixed for the grades to which they appertain. It shall be the duty of the Management to classify the workers into the several categories—unskilled, semi-skilled, skilled and highly skilled. This is the exclusive function of the Management and I hope that the Management will discharge this function properly. It is not possible for Judges of the Industrial Tribunals to classify workmen, for classification depends mainly on the valuation and the type of the different jobs in an industry. Nomenclature of jobs and their classification differ from industry to industry. It is the exclusive function of the Management to classify the job in an industry properly and give the workers the proper nomenclature. I do not propose to encroach upon this function of the Management, for such encroachment is likely to be disastrous to the workmen as also to the industry. No worker shall get less than his existing wage. If the existing wage of any worker exceeds the maximum of his grade, he shall draw the difference as personal pay.

Point No. 5—Pass Book for Provident Fund accounts and separate account for Provident Fund in the bank.

About the pass book I find that there was an agreement between the Management and the Union so far back as on 14th February 1949. This agreement was arrived at in the presence of the Assistant Labour Commissioner, Howrah. It was agreed that pass books would be issued to workers on after the rules of the Provident Fund had been completed. I accordingly direct that if the pass books have not as yet been issued to the workmen, they should be issued within a month from the date of publication of this award and that in the pass books, the total amount standing at the credit of the individual workmen at the end of each financial year shall be entered. If pass books be expensive, an intimation shall be sent to the workmen individually to inform them at the end of each financial year what amount is to the credit in the Provident Fund account of the workmen individually. The entry about the amount at the credit of the workman at the end of each financial year shall either be communicated to the workman or entered in the pass book within six months of the following year. Nothing was suggested at the hearing about opening of separate account for a Provident Fund in the bank. The Management shall comply with the direction about intimating the workmen about their Provident Fund accounts up to 1949 within a month from the date of publication of this award.

Point No. 6—Furnished room for Union office.

This is outside the scope of the Industrial Disputes Act.

Point No. 7—Cheap Canteen system.

Sri S. C. Chakrabartty directed that a canteen should be opened provided that 50 workers or 25 per cent. of the workers, whichever is less, want tiffin or cheap food prepared there. The Company were to supply utensils, or cook and one servant at their costs. The Union was to manage the canteen. It appears that there was an agreement on this point arrived at between the Management and the Union on 14th February 1949. The terms of the agreement on this point were:—

“As regards starting of canteen and provision of rest room, Management agree to sanction expenditure for repair to the existing structure and two rooms will be made fit for use as canteen and rest room respectively. The repairs are expected to be completed in course of a fortnight.”

It appears from the Company's written statement that the workers have been asked to select a cook and a servant from amongst themselves. This is not in keeping with the direction of the learned Adjudicator. The worker may select a cook and a servant, but the Company will have to pay their wages. The Company are agreeable to supply utensils as soon as the canteen is started. I direct that the Union do select a cook and a servant and start the canteen provided 50 of the workers or 25 per cent. of the workers, whichever is less, want to have tiffin or cheap food prepared there. The cook and the servant shall be paid by the Company. No meat or fish or eggs should be brought to the canteen.

Point No. 8—Supply of dresses to durwans, office peons and drivers free of charge.

Durwans, office peons and drivers are supplied uniforms mainly when the employers intend such employees to be known to the public as their employees. This is practically in the interests of the industry. I recommend that the uniform should be supplied.

Point No. 9—Gratuity to permanent workers irrespective of the period of service.

Sri S. C. Chakrabartty awarded gratuity to the workmen for the period not covered by the Provident Fund scheme introduced by him. The rules for gratuity were laid down by him to supplement the Provident Fund scheme. I do not feel myself justified to enlarge upon the scheme of gratuity enunciated by Sri S. C. Chakrabartty.

Points Nos. 4 and 10—Puja bonus, retrenchment and extent of retrenchment

These two points are taken up together on the ground that they are dependent on the financial position of the industry. It is found that the agement suggested retrenchment of workers as early as in 1948 in its statement filed before the last Adjudicator Sri S. C. Chakrabartty. following are the relevant extracts :—

"That under circumstances beyond its control, the Company had to think of retrenchment and to bring about an amicable settlement of this naughty problem talks were started with Union leaders and ultimately a memorandum, dated 24th January 1948, was submitted to the Labour Commissioner, Bengal.

* * * * *

That unless and until the Company is relieved of the burden of paying to a large number of absolutely unnecessary and ideal workers, the Company is not in a position to submit any definite reply to the statement of the Union.

* * * * *

That any scheme conducted to the promotion of labour welfare is not at all practical or possible unless the Company is allowed to reduce the number of workers and retain only those who can be actively employed.

* * * * *

That the Company is running under extremely adverse circumstances and only an immediate order for retrenchment can save it from a total fall."

following statements about the trade position of the industry, filed before the last Adjudicator, may also be relevant :—

"That in spite of the best efforts on behalf of the Company the availability of yarn for cycle tyres and valves for cycle tubes remains meagre and indefinite.

That the Company has been forced to stop production of carriage tyres, which was the best stable line, due to heavy accumulation of stocks.

That though the Company has got the labour force and equipment to produce 15,000 pieces cycle tyres in a month, the type of yarn and the quality allotted to the Company will allow the Company to produce not more than 1,000 pieces.

That in absence of cycle tyres the dealers are not interested in the purchase of cycle tubes, the position of which also remains precarious due to abnormal delay in granting import licenses for metal valves. The Company has received none so far."

The difficulties in carrying on with the work of the industry as experienced by the Management immediately after the division of India into two unions and partition of Bengal were represented to the Labour Commissioner as early as on 24th January 1948. A copy of the representation is in Appendix A to this award.

With reference to the claim of the Union for bonus, the learned Adjudicator observed in the last award :—

"I have already allowed sufficient increment in wages and it has yet to be seen how the industry fares and whether it can make sufficient profits for granting bonus."

The award was published on the 18th June 1948 and immediately after publication of the award a drastic retrenchment was called for. The matter amicably settled and 82 workers had to go on leave for 3 months. This leave had to be extended for another month and as the position of the industry did not improve, the employees had to forego Rs. 5 per head per month for 6 months out of their dearness allowance with effect from 1st

December 1948, in the interests of the 34 workers who were absorbed with effect from the same date. The remaining workers have taken employment elsewhere. In spite of this joint attempts of the Management and the Union, the position did not improve. On 23rd July 1948 the Management suggested to the President of the Union three alternative schemes already referred to. On 5th October 1949 the Management addressed a letter to the Assistant Labour Commissioner, Howrah. In this letter the Management referred to the agreement with the Union, dated 15th July 1948 and 26 November 1948, and pleaded that since 1947 the Company's position has been systematically deteriorating:—

“Owing to the communal disturbances in 1947 and subsequent partition of India, the Company suffered a heavy loss and its market in Punjab....., the Company was faced with severe competitive market. Consequently the Management checked its position and found that (1) many of its products have become unremunerative, and (2) it has been carrying in its employees a large number of surplus hands.”

* * * * *

“The Company has been losing money heavily, the prices have gone down, but the cost of production has been rising enormously. Under the circumstances the Company cannot afford to continue to employ the huge unremunerative surplus hands.”

In a letter, dated 12th August 1949, which was written by the President of the Union to the General Manager in reply to the suggestions, dated 23 July 1949, the President suggested that the agreements were made under compulsion. There is no iota of evidence on this point before the Tribunal. In this letter the President speaks of some assurances alleged to have been given by the Manager which were not fulfilled. My attention has been drawn to the different statements of the Management about the unfavourable circumstances which were alleged to have been responsible for the fall in the works of the industry:—

Date.	Occasion.	Unfavourable circumstances alleged
1st September 1947.	When the Union demanded increment of salary.	The Mills were not getting coal and materials to run the factory.
24th January 1948.	Representation to the Labour Commissioner, West Bengal.	(1) Division of India into two dominions upset the industry which had well established organisations in Lahore and Karachi. (2) Accumulations of large stock of products. (3) Sale of rubber materials by the “Government” at prices at which no manufacturer can compete. (4) Difficulties in obtaining supply of cotton yarn for cycle tyres, model valves, cycle tubes. (5) Difficulties in getting regular supplies of coal, dyes and chemicals.
12th July 1948 . .	When a notice for retrenchment of workers was given.	Due to non-availability of raw materials, chemicals, etc., it has become almost difficult to run all the departments.
23rd July 1949 . .	Suggestions to the President of the Union to relieve the industry of the financial burden it cannot bear.	Shortage of working capital and slump in the market.

None of the assigned reasons for deterioration of the business can be set as false and frivolous. Experience shows that even in everyday as soon as one difficulty is removed another steps in.

We get some idea about the working condition of the Mills from Dhonai, worker of the Mills, who has been examined by the Union before me. Previously there were two shifts for the departments of tube machine, cable and tube finishing. Now these departments are working only one shift. The cycle tyre department has been closed since 1949. There are no goods in stock. The stock may be finished in a day if orders are received. Orders are being received. The work of the handloom department has also come down considerably. It was working regularly previously. It is working very rarely. This is what Dhonai said. The shifts are to have been reduced in 1948 from before the last award. The Management was contemplating retrenchment since then.

The Company have filed an account to show that cycle tyres are unremunerative. The details are given below:—

	Rs.	a.	p.

I visited the Mills with a view to have firsthand information about the working of Mills. I could understand that the cycle tyres of this Company do not stand comparison with Dunlop tyres and have therefore no market. The price had to be reduced from Rs. 51 to Rs. 36 from 20th January 1950. The stocks on 1st January 1950, 20th January 1950 and 24th April 1950 were respectively 6,114, 6,089 and 4,255. The products of the braiding machine have no regular market. The following are the stocks of hot water hand gloves and gauntlets:—

Items	Last despatch.	Stock.	Last date of manufacture.
Water bottles	13 pieces in April 1950 .. 1 piece on 23rd March 1950.	About 400	October 1949.
Gloves	60 on 2nd November 1949. 50 on 4th November 1949 20 on 15th November 1949. 160 on 14th November 1949.	37 untested 192 tested 413 rejected
Gauntlets	..	37 untested 49 tested 198 rejected

This was the position of the stock on 24th April 1950 when I inspected the Mills. The following are the accounts of profit and loss from 24th October 1946 to 21st October 1949:—

Year.	Profit.		Loss
	Rs.	Rs. a. p.
2003 to 2004 S. Y. Eng. 24th October 1946 to 12th November 1947	..	28,796	2
2006 S. Y.	61,573	15

The President of the Union produced some production slips of 1946 to show that the production was not correctly entered in the Mill books. The slips were not accepted as they related to 1946. We are concerned with the present position of the industry.

From the accounts my attention was drawn to the item amounting Rs. 801 spent by Rani Sahib by way of charity. I am told that Rani Sahib is a proprietress. She has not taken a farthing from the Mills, which is her private concern. The voucher for travelling expenses of Rs. 330 was not produced and heavy interest was paid for advance made by the proprietor, Manager, Depot Manager and relations of the proprietor. The accounts have been passed by a Chartered Accountant. It is presumed that the expenditures were just and supported by vouchers. If the proprietress advanced money in addition to what has been invested to earn profit, she may charge interest for the additional sum advanced. The employees may likewise charge interest for the advance made by them to the industry. The only limitation should be that the interest is not higher than what would be charged by a bank. There is no suggestion that the interest was high. About the charity, the proprietress should not have drawn the money from the Mills, or at least the amount should have been shown on the credit side of the account for the industry. This was an irregularity. But the small amount was not sufficient for improvement of the industry. I hope such irregularities in respect of paltry sums may not recur in future.

My attention was also drawn to the consumption of coal to show that it was out of proportion to the production. The Management say that the stock and consumption were entered into the register by the clerks who are members of the Union. The coal was also spent by the workers. If there had been any inflation in accounts or any mistake in accounts or an unusually high consumption, the workmen are no less responsible than the Management. There is no definite evidence or even suggestion that the workmen made the entries under compulsion, or that the Manager has used the coal for his personal requirements. If there was any unusually high consumption, it was the duty of the workmen and the Management to observe the strictest economy. Lethophole purchase on 13th February 1948 and sold on 14th February 1948. There was no entry in the register about the amount for which this was sold. Carbon block was sold by the Company in February 1948 at 8½ annas per lb. which was subsequently purchased in June 1948 at 10 annas to Re. 1 per lb. This might be due to the fluctuation in the market. The Management should have studied the position of the article in the market and should have refused to sell the article in February at a much cheaper rate. The Management has not, however, offered any explanation what stood in the way of foreseeing the position. This mistake on a single item might be absolutely bona fide. But whatever that may be, this mistake contributed to a very small negligible fraction of the total loss. The Company further alleged that as the Company's Head Office was at Benares till 1948 and this has since been shifted to Calcutta, it was the duty of the clerks, who are members of the Union, to maintain the accounts carefully.

There might be some irregularity in maintaining the account. It is for the accountant to give his definite verdict on the point. It has been suggested that the accounts were kept irregularly with a view to do black marketing. If this be so, the clerks who wrote the accounts are equally guilty and the Union should approach the proper authority appointed by the Government to bring the really guilty person or persons to book.

Apart from the accounts, it is clear that some of the products have no markets and shifts have to be reduced. If the products were really profitable, the Company would not have acted against their own interest in closing some of the departments and reducing the shifts. On the evidence and circumstances of the case, I am definitely of opinion that the financial position of the Mills has deteriorated substantially and there is necessity of retrenchment. In a letter of the President of the Union, dated 13th April 1950, to the Assistant Labour Commissioner, Howrah, it was suggested that the Management had appointed five or six durwans when it was contemplating retrenchment of durwans as well. Five or six durwans might have been necessary for a short time. The point is whether any new hand is appointed in preference to retrenched hands and that without any efficient justification. Nothing has been suggested on this point. In the letter, dated 12th August 1949, addressed by the President of the Union to the General Manager of the Mills, the President appears to have suggested that more money might be invested. This Tribunal regrets that it does not find its way to make any recommendation in this direction. The Tribunal cannot ask the Management to borrow and to invest more money in an industry which is a losing concern unless it is definitely satisfied that additional investment will bring in profit in future.

Having held that retrenchment of staff has been necessary in the present condition of the industry, I may lay down the principle for effecting the retrenchment. Retrenchment is a necessary incident of industry and so long as it is not mala fide and prompted by any unfair labour practice, the Tribunal Judges should not interfere. Any interference will be compelling the industry to run at a loss. Although I am definitely of opinion that retrenchment is necessary, I am not in a position to find out definitely the extent of such retrenchment. It is the exclusive function of the Management to determine the size of the working force. This is the recognised principle prevailing in industrially advanced countries where trade unions have also been advanced. It is for the Management to decide the magnitude of its business and production, the scheme of the business and the size of the working force having regard to its resources. If the Management works with more men than necessary, it will entail a heavy loss. If it works, on the other hand, with less men than necessary, the workmen may be overworked and may be denied daily recess, weekly rest and annual holidays. The result would be to decrease the efficiency of the workmen and to do unrest to the prejudice of the industry itself. To ensure daily recess, weekly rest and annual holidays to the workmen, there have been considerable suggestions laying down the maximum working hours and minimum rest holidays and restricting the shift works. If any one is denied these statutory privileges, his relief lies in moving the proper authorities appointed by the State and the matter may be settled by negotiations and if negotiations fail, arbitrators may intervene. But so long as the statutory privileges are not denied or curtailed, the Management has exclusive jurisdiction to determine the size of the working force. If the arbitrator is assumed to have general powers of revision—general rights to review the exercise of the Management function in question—the right to prior Management initiation has only a temporary value. It means that Management decisions under such circumstances are ultimately exercised not by Management but by the arbitrator, a third party disinterested in the responsibilities of the enterprise. Surely this cannot be. Business cannot be run by disinterested third parties. It must be run by persons vitally interested in the conduct of the business, responsible for mistakes. In the absence of any agreement to the contrary, the right of initiating Management functions should carry with it the right to have an initiated function respected by arbitrators and upheld in the absence of showing of breach of agreement or bad faith. As an authority on this point, I may refer to "Management Functions under Collective Bargaining" by L. Teller.

Management's right to discharge an employee when there is a "cause" has been upheld. Sometimes in the agreement with the Union the term "cause" is defined. If it is not so defined and if it is doubtful as to whether the facts constitute a "cause", prior consultation may be necessary. Management functions are exercised for business reasons, and not for other reasons or for bad faith. It is only when Management functions are exercised for any reason other than bona fide trade reasons or are vitiated by bad faith, arbitrators may interfere; but arbitrators must refuse to interfere on the grounds of expediency, so long as the Management functions are exercised for bona fide trade reasons. It will be inexpedient for the arbitrators to encroach upon bona fide Management functions. Compulsory arbitration has been provided for grievances brought about by unfair exercise of Management functions and such arbitration must be subsequent to the exercise of the Management functions. This fact and the fact that prior arbitration or adjudication has not been provided for, emphasise the employer's general discretion in the field of Management functions:—

"Prior arbitration, by contrast, injects an implication of general supervision by a third party over the conduct of business and is an overhanging threat to the proper exercise of the Management functions."

The accepted principle of retrenchment is "last come, first go". This principle should be applied to the several department separately except to the unskilled workers. If additional hands are required in future the retrenched hands shall be given preference. Between the retrenched hands themselves, skill and efficiency shall count more than mere seniority at the time of re-employment. Other things being equal the appointment should go to the retrenched employees according to seniority.

Bonus is dependent mainly on profit. In the present case where the industry is gradually deteriorating, I am not in a position to give any direction for bonus. I recommend that as soon as the industry improves financially, the Management will consider employees' claim for bonus favourably.

APPENDIX A.

Memorandum, dated Lillooah, the 24th January 1948

From—Messrs. R. B. S. Jain Rubber Mills, Jwalaprasad Lane, Lillooah Howrah,

To—The Labour Commissioner, West Bengal.

1. We are the manufacturers of (a) tonga tyres, (b) cycle tyres, (c) CRT tubes, (d) I.R. tubings, (e) ebonite (hard rubber), (f) I.R. sundry articles.

- 2 We employ about 275 adults.
- 3 We have often produced goods worth one lakh of rupees per month with the present strength of workers.
4. In an average, our usual production had been about Rs. 75,000 monthly.
5. Our selling organisation had its branches and agencies throughout India including Lahore and Karachi.
6. Due to division of India into two dominions and the consequences that followed the business has been upset.
7. There is practically no organised business west of Delhi and east of Calcutta.
- 8 With the hope that things will settle down early, we continued with our usual programme of production.
9. Very large stock of our products have accumulated unsold drying up our financial resources and putting us into a very awkward position.
- 10 Rubber articles have been sold off by the department of "Disposals" at prices at which no manufacturer can ever compete.
- 11 We are experiencing unimaginable difficulties in obtaining our supplies of cotton yarn suitable for the manufacture of cycle tyres.
12. Metal valves required for cycle tubes are not available locally. Even England and other sterling areas are unable to supply.
- 13 As metal valves are articles of consumption and do not fall under the head "Capital Goods" licenses to import them from hard currency areas is difficult to get.
- 14 In spite of our best efforts, we are unable to procure regularly our supplies of coal, dyes and chemicals.
- 15 Under these circumstances, it has become impossible to carry on with full production with anything like realistic efficiency.
- 16 We have been compelled by force of circumstances to reduce our production by something like 50 per cent.
- 17 To run the industry on economically sound lines, it is imperative that the number of workers be reduced by 50 per cent.
- 18 The leaders of our workers' Union quite naturally find themselves unable to agree to retrenchment voluntarily.
- 19 Since the workers have come to know the idea of retrenchment, they have stopped dispatches of the products and as such, it is feared that we may not be able to meet our liabilities towards the workers themselves as well as towards our supplies of raw materials and power.

20. Our stocks of raw materials are running low and it is feared that in absence of necessary commodities the factory may have to be declared closed.

21. Under urgency of the situation, we request you kindly to intervene as early as practically possible.

22. In case no solution of the problem could be naturally agreed upon we request that the matter be placed before a Tribunal for award.

Sd. [ILLEGIBLE].

R. B. S. Jain Rubber Mills.
